Constitution

(Adopted September 29, 1954 - Revised October 1, 1969 and October 1, 1975)

PREAMBLE

We, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, unite ourselves according to the plan and for the purpose and work of the New Testament churches in our world, and to this end to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention, according to the following Articles:

ARTICLE I—NAME

The name of this body shall be the Liberty Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership shall be composed of the Baptist churches now holding membership and any other Baptist churches which may be received into the Association according to the subsequent provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches or reject churches according to its Constitution and By-Laws. Member churches may also withdraw at their pleasure. Any church in the Association which fails to cooperate with the Association for a period of two consecutive years shall be contacted by a committee appointed by the Association, to ascertain the wishes and desires of the church relative to continuance in the Association.

A cooperating church is one which sends a report to the Annual Session, sends messengers to the Annual Session, and contributes to the financial program of the Association.

ARTICLE III—MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday in September.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided sufficient notice is given the member churches to permit them two Sundays between the call and the meeting.

Section 3. In emergencies, any change in the time and/or place of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV—COMPOSITION OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The official voting body shall be composed of messengers from the member churches as follows: Five messengers from each church for its first one hundred members or fraction thereof, one additional messenger for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof up to 1,000 members, and one additional messenger for each additional hundred members or major fraction above 1,000; all ordained ministers of member churches; and officers of the Association.

Section 2. The names of the messengers printed in the minutes shall include only those actually attending and registering at the Association from the number elected by the churches.

ARTICLE V—OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the Association shall be Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, and Historian.

Section 2. The election of the Clerk shall be the first item of business in the first session of the Association. He shall be elected for a one-year-term. Other officers shall be elected on the last day of the annual meeting for terms of one year each. They shall be contacted and nominated by the Committee on Nominations (By-Laws 8, Section 2, (6), which shall consider the duly elected heads of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union as the committee's nominees for election as the Association's Officers also.

Section 3. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Associational meeting at which elected and shall serve until the close of the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. Any person serving or having served two full annual terms as Moderator shall be ineligible for re-election to this office for a period of two full years.

ARTICLE VI—TRUSTEES AND THEIR ELECTION

There shall be three trustees of the Association, one preferably a lawyer, serving terms of six years each in a rotating system. Upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, one new trustee shall be elected at the annual meeting in each even year to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of one of the three; no trustee being eligible to suceed himself until after the lapse of two full years. The expiration date of each trustee shall appear by his name in the Associational minutes.

ARTICLE VII—THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Committee shall be composed of all associational officers, the Director of Associational Missions (ex officio), each active pastor, church treasurers, and one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the Association in its annual report. The officers of the Executive Committee shall be the Associational Moderator, Vice-Moderator, and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII—POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

This Association of Churches shall have no power to infringe upon the rights of usefulness of any church or churches. All churches of the Association remain independent and sovereign. Cooperating churches unite here only that they may more effectively promote Christ's cause throughout the world. The Association may advise or offer recommendations for their adoption and guidance, but these cannot be binding on the churches in any way. (This in not to be interpreted as in conflict with Article II, Section 2.)

ARTICLE IX—AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendments are presented in writing and read at one session, as due notice, to be acted upon at a subsequent session.

By-Laws

BY-LAW I—PARLIAMENTARY RULES

Where the Constitution and By-Laws and special orders of the Association do not prescribe otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order Revised shall be followed as the Association's rules for conducting its deliberative assemblies.

BY-LAW II—ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

For the purpose of determining the period of time to be covered by the Annual reports of the Associational officers and church letters to the Association, the Associational year shall begin September 1st and close August 31st.

BY-LAW III—NEW CHURCHES

Section 1. Any church seeking admission to the membership of the Association shall petition in writing the Executive Committee at least three months before the annual meeting of the Association, which petition shall be referred to the Missions Committee for its study of the petitioning church's covenant, articles of faith, history, practices, cooperative spirit, its relations to other churches of the Association and its willingness to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. The Missions Committee shall then report to the Association with a copy thereof submitted to the Associational Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the Association, its findings and recommendations for Associational action at the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Each church applying for membership in the Association, upon approval shall be received under the watch-care of the Association for a period of one year. Each church received under a watch-care relationship shall submit a quarterly report to the Mission Committee of the Association and also submit the annual Associational letter at the end of the year.

BY-LAW IV—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the body according to the Constitution and By-Laws, appoint the Committee on Nominations at the closing session, shall be chairman of the Executive Committee and be an ex-officio member of all other committees. As presiding officer he shall discharge such other duties as may be given him by the Association.

Section 2. The Vice-Moderator shall preside in the absence, or at the pleasure of the Moderator and shall be Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 3. The Clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least a month before the Association's annual meeting; distribute at the annual meeting mimeographed copies of the composite record of the member churches taken from their annual reports; make accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distribution to the member churches copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the annual meeting; keep in file and turn over to his successor the printed minutes and other records and documents of the Association; and shall be secretary of the Executive Committee and a member of the Missions Committee.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association; distribute the same upon instructions from the Association, its Executive Committee oras designated; render a mimeographed, itemized report of receipts and disbursements for distribution at the annual meeting of the Association; keep his books always in shape and available for examination of the Executive Committee or any member of the Association; shall be a member of the Executive Committee, and be a member of the Finance and Missions Committee.

Section 5. The Historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches, and shall make a written report to each annual meeting of the Association.

Section 6. The Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, and Church Music Director shall promote their work in keeping with Southern Baptist Standards for their respective organizations, make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association, and serve on the Missions Committee.

BY-LAW V—DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Section 1. The Associational shall, when possible and expedient, employ a Director of Associational Missions. His selection shall be upon recommendation of the Missions Committee and on vote by the Association at its annual meeting, or between the meetings of the Association, by its Executive Committee. He shall be a member of all committees and organizations of the Association in a serving and advisory capacity. The relationship between the Association and its Director of Associational Missions may be terminated by either party upon the giving of reasonable notice.

Section 2. The Director of Associational Missions shall, under the direction of the Missions Committee, promote the work of the Association and Denomination, cooperating with the churches, their pastors and officers,and associational committees and organizations. He shall make oral reports to the Missions and Executive Committees in their quarterly meetings. He shall also make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association.

Section 3. He may assist the Clerk, by mutual consent, in preparing the composite record of member churches taken from the annual reports, and in preparing the annual minutes of the Association.

BY-LAW VI—ANNUAL REPORTS

The persons to prepare reports for the annual meeting of the Association shall present the same in writing for inclusion in the printed Book of Reports and in the printed minutes upon adoption; these reports to be limited to 250 words each.

BY-LAW VII—TRUSTEES

The Trustee's duties shall be to hold title to the property for the Association and to handle the legal matters of the Association with the Association's foreknowledge and approval; and to comply with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Body, and with state laws as they affect the Association. The trustees shall be responsible for keeping the property in good state of repair at all times, but shall not exceed expenditures of more than $500.00 on any major item without approval of Association.

BY-LAW VIII—COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

(1) The duties of this Committee shall be to act for the Association in all matters of business and activities between annual meetings, to call the Association in special session when necessary, to fill any vacancies that may occur between annual meetings among the Associational officers, the Executive Committee or the Committee on Nominations. It may elect the Director of Associational Missions when a vacancy occurs in accordance with By-Laws V, Section 1. It shall present a written report to the Association in annual meeting for its approval.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly, the first meeting being as soon as possible after the annual meeting of the Association, on call of the Moderator of the Association (By-Law IV, Section 1), and the last meeting being as near as possible to the next annual meeting of the Association for approving its report to the annual meeting.

Section 2. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS:

The Committee shall seek to avoid duplications and to distribute as widely as possible the obligations and privileges of service called for in this section. The duties of this committee shall be:

(1) To contact and nominate to the next annual meeting of the Association, on the last day, the officers of the Association, and its standing committees, naming their chairman, (Missions, Program, Place and Preacher, Resolutions, Finance, Memorials, Ordination Examining Council, and Christian Life and Public Affairs) these committees serving for the year following their election.

(2) To nominate trustees according to Article VI of the Constitution.

(3) To nominate such other special committees as may be authorized unless otherwise provided.

(4) To nominate, on the last day of the annual meeting, the Persons to Prepare Reports for the next annual meeting of the Association following their election, on American Bible Society, Annuity Board, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Baptist Foundation, Baptist Homes for Aging, Baptist Hospital, Christian Education, Christian Literature, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and State Missions.

(5) To fill vacancies which may occur between annual meetings of the Association on Committees and among persons to prepare or bring annual reports which are nominated by this Committee on Nominations.

(6) This commmittee's nominations, however, shall not preclude other nominations from the floor.

Section 3. THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE:

(1) This Committee shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, Treasurer, Clerk, and also the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and four member churches to be elected by the Association at its annual meeting for one, two, three, and four years respectively on a rotating system. After their election one new member shall be elected each year to serve for a period of four years. It shall supervise and work with the Director of Associational Missions in promoting the work of the Association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches.

(2) It shall meet once a quarter to receive a report from the Director of Associational Missions and make helpful suggestions to him concerning his work.

(3) If advice is sought, it shall advise any group seeking to organize a new church, or seek to help any member church desiring assistance in its problems.

(4) It shall perform the duties prescribed for it in By-Law III and By-Law V, Secion 1.

Section 4. THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of three members and the Moderator, Clerk, Church Music Director, and host Pastors. It shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program at least ten days before the annual meeting. It shall, in the opening of the annual meeting of the Association, present the printed program for adoption and serve through the session when adjustments in the program become necessary.

Section 5. THE PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the Association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the annual sermon.

Section 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall draw up and present to the Association resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient. Also, all resolutions and recommendations for consideration presented at the annual meeting shall be referred to this committee.

Section 7. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of five members and the Treasurer. It shall study the Association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the Association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in the raising of the budget, audit the Treasurer's books at the close of the Associational year, inform member churches of their record of giving, and make a written report to the annual meeting.

Section 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall bring a suitable report at the annual meeting and shall lead in a memorial service in memory of those reported by the churches to have died since the last annual meeting.

Section 9. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of the Director of Associational Missions, who shall serve as chairman, the Moderator and Directors of Associational organizations. Its duties shall be to plan and correlate the activities of the Associational organizations.

Section 10. CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of three members, whose duty it shall be to keep the Association informed of matters pertaining to civic righteous and public morals.

BY-LAW IX—AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the By-Laws may be made at any session of the annual meeting of the Association when presented in writing and approved by a majority of messengers present and voting.

Standing Resolutions

Ordination of New Ministers

It is strongly recommended as the position of this Association:

1. That, when a church desires to put forth a candidate for examination and approval for ordination to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, an Examining Council composed of a committee of five elected by the Association in Annual Meeting, plus the pastors and one layman from each cooperating church in the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association, be summoned by written invitation of at least one week in advance from the church nominating the candidate.

2. That the examination of the candidate be conducted by the Examining Council and that a report of its findings be given to the nominating church. If the report is favorable the nominating church will set the date of ordination and notify the member churches.

3. That we ordain only those who have received a definite call to become a pastor, an associate pastor, or an educational director of a Baptist church in regular standing in the Association or those who have felt a call to the mission field, the chaplaincy of our armed forces, or the chaplaincy of a public institution whose church shall have requested in writing his ordination before the call of the ordaining council shall be approved.

POLICIES FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MISSIONS

1. Definite sponsorship by an established church.

2. Sponsoring church to work in cooperation with Associational Missions Committee.

3. Sponsoring church to retain control of Mission until such time as the church and the Associational Missions Committee agree that the Mission is self-sufficient.

4. Sponsoring church to call Mission pastor and select all workers in the Mission.

5. Sponsoring church to encourage mission from the beginning to give a definite percentage of the offering plate dollar through the Cooperative Program and Associational Missions.

6. Sponsoring church should insist upon a full and well defined program of Southern Baptist Work in the Mission, using the Southern Baptist literature.

7. Sponsoring church to work with the Associational Missions Committee in properly locating the Mission.

8. Sponsoring church to work with the Mission in planning of new buildings, using the services of the Church Planning Department of the Baptist State Convention.

ORGANIZATION AND ADMISSION OF NEW CHURCHES

Recognizing the right of the Association to determine its own membership and being aware of the importance of the manner in which the churches are organized, we recommend that any group of individuals desiring to organize themselves into a new church with the purpose of seeking recognition of and fellowship and cooperation with the Association be requested to meet the following standards:

1. Notice shall be given to the Moderator of the desire to organize a church before any such organization takes place. The Moderator will then ask the Missions Committee to study and pass upon the need for and the practicability of such an organization.

2. That the location of said church shall be sufficiently removed so as not to interfere with the work or encroach upon the territory of the churches already affiliated with the Association. This will be determined by the Mission Committee.

3. Upon being approved by the Missions Committee the group will then request this committee to examine the church covenant, articles of faith, and constitution (if a constitution has been adopted) of the proposed church. Should the Committee approve the covenant, articles of faith, and constitution, the group will proceed at a later date to be constituted into a Baptist church of the same faith and order.

Proceedings

Tuesday Afternoon, September 29, 1981
Coggins Memorial Baptist Church, Lexington, North Carolina

1. The One Hundred Forth Ninth Annual Session of the Liberty Baptist Association was called to order by the Moderator, the Rev. Warren Kerr.

2. The service began with the singing of hymns, including "Praise to the Lord,the Almighty", and "Footsteps of Jesus". Al Martin led the music and Mrs. Marjorie Team played the piano.

3. The Moderator read from the History of the Liberty Baptist Association by Henry Sheets about the first meeting 149 years ago.

4. The Body was constituted by a motion from the clerk, the Rev. Morris Hollifield. It was moved that all registered messengers, and those who would register later that day and the next, constitute the Association for the purpose of worship and the transaction of business in the One Hundred Forty Ninth Annual Session. Following a second, the motion was adopted by voice vote.

5. The printed program was presented and a motion was made by the Rev. Brooks Hunt, Chairman of the Program Committee, that this serve as the order of business for the session. Upon a second the motion was adopted by the body.

6. The Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Rev. John Pace, moved that Morris Hollifield be elected to serve as clerk for the next year. This was approved.

7. The Moderator read a Mailgram from Harry M. Piland of the Sunday School Board. He sent greetings to the Association and called attention to the need for Sunday School Growth next year.

8. Dr. Alton H. McEachern, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro, was introduced to lead in a time of worship.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Following instructions contained in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Liberty Baptist Association, the Executive Committee scheduled four meetings during the year. All of these meetings were held at the Associational office. Each meeting began with a period of worship at 7:30 P.M.

The first meeting was November 17, 1980. New members were recognized and welcomed to the Committee. Reports were presented from the leaders of the organizations, and promotional information was shared. The treasurer's report indicated the cost for printing the Associational minutes was $1,286.00. The Sunday School report noted that High Attendance Day on October 26 recorded 6,001 in Sunday School in the 42 churches. A request for pastoral assistance in the amount of $1,200.00 was presented from one church. This was approved and forwarded to the Baptist State Convention for approval. Mr. Rollins called attention to the election of Miss Doris Lopp to the Board of Trustees for the Baptist Hospital during the fall meeting of the Baptist State Convention. Emphasis was given to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

The second meeting was on January 19, 1981. The Vice-Moderator presided over the session. Following reports from the clerk and treasurer, organizational leaders presented appropriate information. An Associational Sunday School Clinic was announced for February 24 at Lexington First. The Missions Committee report noted a recommendation that the Association seek to secure a student summer worker for 10 weeks through the cooperative support of the Baptist State Convention and the Home Mission Board. The primary concern would be survey and evaluation in the least churched areas of our county. Following lenghty discussion the motion was approved unanimously. The W.M.U. Director indicated that following an enlistment compaign, 33 churches reported 177 new members. The Annual W.M.U. meeting was announced to be held at Center Hill on April 13. Associational Youth Night was announced for March 14 with a special presentation by the Covenant Players.

The third meeting was on May 25, 1981, with 24 members in attendance. A report on securing a student summer worker indicated that there were not sufficient students to supply the requests across the Convention, and that there were no further plans toward this project. The W.M.U. report included information from various organizational meetings where participation had been excellent. The Moderator presented a letter of intent from the Trinity Baptist Mission Steering Committee, indicating their plans for constituting a church and requesting watch care status in the Association at the annual meeting in September. Mr. Rollins reported that 13 workers attended the State Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest. The date for the Associational Clinic was set for July 27. It was stated that the W.M.U. had rented a booth at the County Fair (Sept. 21-26) and members from several churches would be asked to help during that week. Following a presentation about the work in West Virginia, and details about working with one congregation at St. Albans, the Director of Missions and Missions Committee were instructed to pursue the matter for more information and further possibilities.

The last quarterly meeting was held on September 14. Following organizational and committee reports, the matter of financial support was emphasized. The chairman of the Missions Committee reported that the Trinity Baptist Mission would be constituted into a church on Sunday afternoon, September 20, 1981, at 3:00 P.M. with the service being held at the New Friendship Church. The Missions Committee had examined their constitution and approved the request to be presented for membership in the Association on September 29. The music report revealed an attendance at the Clinic at Mills Home of 177 people from 18 churches. It was noted that 37 churches had announced plans to participate in the 1982 simultaneous Crusade. After an emphasis on R. A. Leadership training, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Morris S. Hollifield, Associational Clerk

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH IS ORGANIZED

In the early months of 1981 a group of people from the Welcome area began meeting in homes with the purpose of organizing a new work to be located in the Arcadia community. On the first Sunday in April the group met for worship in the Community Building at Arcadia. Rev. and Mrs. Claxton Hall of Winston-Salem were responsible for the music and message in that first service. A request was made to the Liberty Association for sponsorship of the work to be known as the Trinity Baptist Mission. In following the guidelines of the Association in the establishment of new work, a constitution was drawn up and sent to the Association's Missions committee for evaluation and approval. The committee recommended that the mission consider constitution as a church, and make application for watchcare status in the Association when the annual meeting was held in September. An organizational meeting was scheduled to be held in the New Friendship Church on the afternoon of September 20, 1981. The host pastor, Rev. Warren Kerr, who also serves as moderator of the Liberty Association at this time, presided over the meeting. Following a report from the Chairman of the Missions Committee, the congregation took the action necessary for the mission to become a Baptist Church. The right hand of fellowship was extended to the new congregation. The Rev. R.O. Bennett, who had served as pastor of the mission, was asked to lead the congregation in their application for membership in the Liberty Association in the Annual Session on September 29, 1981. The Association voted to receive the new church under the watchcare of the Association for 1 year, and upon completion of suggested reports, be received into full fellowship at the next annual session. With the Rev. and Mrs. R.O. Bennett leading the congregation, the new church committed themselves to a challenge budget and the work necessary to experience Bold Missions.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The first meeting of the Liberty Association Missions Committee was held at the Associational office November 17, 1980 at 7:00 P.M. Information was shared about the need for a mission or church in the northern area of the county, by Director of Missions, Leonard Rollins and Rev. Warren Kerr. It was pointed out that we might be able to get some help from the Baptist State Convention to do survey work or pursue other avenues that were needed in establishing a work in the area.

It was also pointed out that three churches did not have messengers at the annual meeting and that these be notified that this was a requirement to be met by each and every church according to the Constitution and By-Laws. No reply had been received when we met on January 19, 1981 from the above churches.

Mr. Rollins indicated that a meeting had been established for 11:00 A.M. on January 20, 1981 in the Piedmont Association and that it was possible that we could be assigned a student to help with survey work in our association. A Recommendation from our committee was presented to the Executive Committee that we request a student. However, to my knowledge no students were available for this area of the state.

The Director of Missions suggested that we talk with Sara Ann Hobbs about a West Virginia project and the need for coordinating our work with our state office. He also shared concern for the High Rock Church in that a young minister who is independant had tried to take control of the congregation. Prayer was requested for this church.

A called meeting of the Missions Committee of Liberty Baptist Association was held at the Associational office on April 14, 1981. Director of Missions, Leonard Rollins was recognized to present a letter dated March 29, 1981, which had been received from a group in the Northwestern section of Davidson County, interested in establishing a new Southern Baptist Church in the Arcadia area. The letter which made request for the Liberty Baptist Association to recognize and sponsor the new work was signed by Marvin Lyon, Bruce Waddell and Gary Myers, as members of the steering committee. There were 12 to 15 members of the above mentioned group present with the Missions Committee. During the discussion about the new work, it was brought out that they had already organzied as a mission, to be known as Trinity Baptist Mission and meeting in the Arcadia Community Center, located at the old Arcadia Elementary School site.

After a lengthy discussion the Mission group were excused and the Missions Committee talked further about the need for a Baptist work in the area and What should be done. It was brought out earlier in the meeting that the group would like to be organized as a church before the annual meeting of the Liberty Baptist Association, meeting on September 29 and 30, 1981. A motion was made and seconded that the group be instructed to submit a request to the Executive Committee at least 3 months before the annual meeting if they desired to be presented at the annual meeting of the Association as a new church for membership, under Watch-Care for one year according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Liberty Baptist Association. Following discussion, the motion was approved. The secretary was asked to convey the decision to the Steering Committee of the Mission group.

A letter dated April 15, 1981, giving the decision of the Missions Committee of the Association in regard to their request was signed by Secretary Morris Hollifield, and John N. Penninger Jr., Chairman of the Missions Committee and sent to Marvin Lyon, member of the Steering Committee.

At our May 25, 1981, Missions Committee meeting, an update on the Trinity Baptist Mission was requested by the Director of Missions. The report was given by Rev. R.O. Bennett, who is serving as interim pastor. It was pointed out during the meeting that several committees were working toward an organization meeting. Rev. Warren Kerr, Moderator of the Association shared a letter from the Mission group requesting that consideration be given their desire to become a full cooperating church in the Liberty Baptist Association according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association, under Watch-Care status. The letter was also shared with the Executive Committee, which met immediately after the Missions Committee meeting and then turned over to the Missions Committee. Copies of the Constitution and By-Laws of the proposed new church were distributed to members of the Missions Committee for study the week before we met on Sept. 14, 1981. After discussion of the Constitution and By-Laws of the new church, it was the feeling of the Missions Committee that the Mission group had met the requirements of the Association as nearly as possible under existing conditions. A motion was made, seconded and approved of the Constitution and By-Laws as presented for the new church. This was also shared with the Executive Committee which met immediately after our meeting. It was announced at both meetings that a meeting would be held September 20, 1981 at the New Friendship Baptist Church for organizing the Trinity Baptist Church.

At the May 25, 1981 meeting Rev. Ernest Upchurch from the State Convention office was present and presented information relative to an effort to establish 150 new churches in North Carolina by 1985. Printed material was shared with the group and talked at length about church growth. The challenge was presented to start 12 new churches in our Association. The suggestion is that the Missions Committee determine where a new chuch is needed and call this to the attention of the local church.

Respectfully submitted,
John N. Penninger, Jr.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Your Director of Missions has been in 34 of the 42 churches for at least one service during the calendar year. In addition to regular preaching services, I taught the Book of Philippians at Reeds, Southgate, Tyro, and Liberty. I taught the Home Mission Study eight times, and led the Adult Conference for the Vacation Bible School Clinics. I have assisted a number of our churches while they were without a pastor, worked with eleven pulpit committees, and preached for two of our pastors while they were ill. I spoke twice on the North Carolina Missions Offering at Thomasville, First; previewed the Sunday School lessons on four occasions at Lexington, First; spoke to the Brotherhood at Reeds and North Lexington; spoke to the Baptist Women at Lexington, First; and also the Senior Citizens Christmas Party at Liberty. I preached in revival services at Faith and Floyd in Liberty Association and also in Purdy, Virginia.

I have participated in the following special events: service at Center Hill to honor Lamar Moore; Men and Boys' Banquet at Jersey; Deacons and Wives supper and Baptist Men's Day Breakfast at Churchland; reception at Thomasville, First, for George Williamson; Clergy Appreciation luncheon at Lexington Y.M.C.A.; valentine party at Wallburg; open house for new educational building at Liberty; Homecoming at Holloways, Reeds, and Jersey; two Golden Wedding Anniversary celebrations; Annual Meeting of Mental Health Association; and the organizational meeting for Trinity Baptist Church. I also spoke at Denton, First, on "The Value of Long-Range Planning" and had a part in the ordination services for Mark Blair at Liberty and Douglas Huff at Park Place.

I was involved in a world Missions Conference in the New River Association; attended two meetings of Directors of Missions and State Convention Staff at Caraway; attended January Bible Study Teacher Training at Wake Forest University; Sunday School Basic Book Study at Hickory; Long-Range Planning Meeting in Central Association; State Vacation Bible School Clinic in Winston-Salem; called meeting of the General Board at Caraway; Area Conference at Mills Home; Board of Ministers Meeting at Campbell University; and the General Board Meeting at Mars Hill College. I also attended the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro; the State Evangelism Conference in Asheville; Key Leadership Conference, Home Missions Week, and a National Conference for Directors of Missions at Ridgecrest; Directors of Missions Conference at Wingate College; and the Southern Baptist Convention in Los Angeles. Our association operated a booth in the exhibit hall at the Davidson County Fair.

Publicity and promotion are being given now to the Simultaneous Revival Crusades for our association, April 4-18, 1982; and the beginning of Seminary Extension classes on January 12, 1982. Stan Nichols and I made one trip to St. Albans, West Virginia, and I hope that our churches will be able to lend assistance to the mission church in that area in the spring of next year.

In the associational Minutes for 1932 there is a statement related to the work of the associational missionaries. It says: "They gave a part of their time in assisting the weak churches and in various other ways." After almost nineteen years of service, it is my conviction that it is the "various other ways" that brings a note of excitement to the work that God has called me to do.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Woman's Missionary Union, Liberty Association observed its seventy-fifth year. This year and through all these generations women have stood positively, progressively on the side of missions. Our purpose is still education, involvement and support on behalf of the missionaries of our Home and Foreign Mission Boards.

The 1980-81 year started with a training session for church WMU leadership. These sessions were led by the associational WMU officers who attended a workshop led by the state WMU staff. It was great to see the commitment of these leaders. Among the activities and events sponsered by the Association WMU were — the Baptist Women/BYW Retreat, Caraway in November; Association Acteens Day, Reeds Church in February; Girls in Action Day Camp, Mundo Vista in May; Mission Friends Fun Day, Thomasville Park in August; Personal Witnessing Conference for all women in the association in August.

Christmas gifts to the North Carolina Correctional Center for women and investing money in the Liberty Baptist Association booth at the county fair were also endevers of great significent. Center Hill Church hosted the Annual WMU Meeting, April 13. Key speakers were Mrs. Bernice Cross, Mrs. Donice Harrod and Mrs. Polly Rollins. Special recognition was given to these WMU organizations for reaching recognition on the Achievement Guide; Jersey, Wallburg, Carolina Memorial, Lexington First, Mills Home, North Lexington, New Friendship, Summerville, Thomasville First.

In October we participated in the state WMU Enlistment Campaign. This resulted in a total of 177 new members in Liberty Associational WMU. Each church was challenged to set a goal of one new member for each organization. These reached their goal: Abbotts Creek, Carolina Memorial, Center Hill, Community, Greenwood, Hasty, Lexington First, New Friendship, North Lexington, Oakhill Memorial, Reeds, Rich Fork, Summerville, Victory, Wallburg and Walter's Grove.

With your help and support the Associational WMU was recognized at the State WMU Annual Session as Distinguished and one of the association who reached the Enlistment Campaign goal.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT 1981

We have a great challenge set before us with the 8.5 by 85. This means we are going to try to have 8.5 million enrolled in Sunday School by 1985. We had 7.3 million enrolled in Sunday School at the beginning of 1980, so this would give us an increase of 1,200,000 by 1985.

Some of the emphasis that we will be promoting through Sunday School seeking to reach this goal are: a people search in the Fall of 81, witnessing training clinics in winter of 82, joint evangelistic crusades in Spring of 82, follow-up in Summer of 82, start new work in Fall of 82, Sunday School growth campaigns in 83, all of these working toward our goal of 8.5 by 85.

There were a number of new publications that came out this year and made available to us. Among the top was Harry Piland's book Basic Sunday School Work. He deals with the basic essentials of Sunday School work. One example is the purpose of Sunday School is to teach the Bible because it tells people how to be saved and how to live after they are saved. This book will be helpful to all Sunday School leaders.

Our Sunday School Department is still suggesting we promote high attendance day in October. Those who set goals and work toward them find them helpful in reaching more people.

Brother Cecil Ray spoke to the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest last May on the subject of "In Search of the Willing Church". This message included a church being willing to witness, a church willing to face dangerous issues and a church willing to respond to great opportunities.

My Prayer is that each of us will become a willing church in God's Kingdom. Just stretch your imagination a little and think what God could do in your Sunday School this year and then ask Him to do it.

Respectfully submitted,
Hugh Biggers

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Be it resolved that the messengers to the one hundred and forty-ninth annual session of the Liberty Baptist Association do express our sincere thanksgiving to our heavenly Father for His grace, love and blessings upon us this past year and our sincere appreciation to:

(1) The host churches, Coggins Memorial Baptist Church, Lexington and Southgate Baptist Church, Thomasville for their gracious hospitality, warm Christian friendship, and bountiful, delicious meals that they provided for our enjoyment and comfort.

(2) The program committee for arranging a very inspiring and informative program for this annual session.

(3) The program personnel for their dedicated contributions to our program theme "Here's Hope" encouraging us to grow in grace as we through our churches reachout to extend the hope of Jesus Christ to our communities and the rest of the world.

(4) Our Moderator, Rev. Warren Kerr, Vice Moderator, Rev. Franklin Myers, and Rev. Morris Hollifield, Clerk for their excellent leadership and service during this annual session.

(5) And to our Director of Missions, Rev. Leonard Rollins, and Mrs. Rollins for their able and conscientious leadership and service during the year.

(6) All those who served on committees this past year. To those who submitted reports in these meetings, and our executive meetings, or participated in the order of business in any way.

(7) To the messengers and the churches they represent, with the prayer that each one will return to their church, inspired and challenged to participate in our coming Simultaenous Revival Effort by reaching out as one to win one; carrying the Hope of Christ to our communities.

HISTORIAN'S REPORT LIBERTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Following the custom of the past several years, we are presenting a brief history of the churches hosting the annual meeting of the Liberty Baptist Association. Information on Coggins Memorial Baptist Church was furnished by Mrs. Lionel Wall and the information on Southgate Baptist Church was furnished by the pastor, Rev. Winfred Allison, Because of time and space, we have abbreviated the information provided; however, the information in its entirety will be placed on file in the associational office and will also be sent to the Baptist Historical Collection at Wake Forest University, Mr. John R. Woodard, Director.

Again I would urge every church, if you have not done so before, to have your church records microfilmed. These should be sent to Mr. Woodard at Wake Forest University. Also, if a church or an individual may have items of interest pertaining to the Baptist work or outstanding persons in the denomination, Mr. Woodard would appreciate items of this nature. If you need further information, please contact your associational historian and we will be glad to assist.

COGGINS MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Lexington, N.C.

On September 30, 1936, Mary Beck Coggins wrote in her last will and testament these words, "I wish to bequest $1,000.00 for a church, and a Baptist church on this end of town as I feel there will be one sometime. I would like for it to be named Coggins Memorial. I also wish my house I now live in to go for a parsonage for that church." In 1946, Mrs. Coggins added these words, "I also bought some lots from Mr. Fritts in front of my house to go for a Baptist church, also two thousand dollars toward building it. I want it to be a brick building."

Coggins Chapel was established as a mission of the First Baptist Church of Lexington on March 14, 1949, and met in Mrs. Coggins' former home at 1307 South Main Street. The mission continued until August 5, 1951, when the church was constituted with sixty-five charter members, was named Coggins Memorial Baptist Church and the first pastor, Rev. J.W. Dickens, was called.

The church held a groundbreaking service for its first building March 23, 1952. Mr. Thurman Fritts was employed to supervise the work, the majority of which was done on a voluntary basis by members of the church. The sermon that Mr. Dickens preached on groundbreaking day was his last, as he passed away May 23, 1952, as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Rev. Leonard Rollins was then called as pastor, preaching his first sermon August 3, 1952. On February 15, 1953, the first service was held in the new church building. The same year, the house on South Main Street was remodeled to be used as a parsonage. Rev. Rollins continued as pastor until March 15, 1963, when he resigned to become Associational Missionary of the Liberty Baptist Association. Under his leadership, the church membership grew from 95 to 276, Sunday School enrollment from 217 to 312, and the yearly budget from $3,075.00 to $11,975.00

January, 1964, Rev. Richard Chapman accepted the call to serve as pastor and served until July 17, 1968, when he accepted a call to a mission church in Kokomo, Indiana. During his ministry, the church offerings increased from $11,975.00 to $25,000.00, the contributions to missions more than doubled and 143 new members were added to the church.

In 1965, the church purchased another parsonage on Harrington Avenue beside the church and then sold the property on South Main Street.

Rev. Dearl Bunce began his pastorate July 1, 1969. Under his leadership the church continued to progress. Sunday School attendance doubled, 255 new members were added to the church, a strong program was initiated for the youth, total offerings increased from $25,000.00 to $55,592.00, the first floor of the sanctuary was renovated, parking lots were paved, additional educational building was completed, a bus ministry flourished, outdoor worship services were held in the Food Town parking lot on South Main Street reaching as many as 250 people weekly, and Family Vacation Bible School was emphasized with enrollment reaching over 1300 in 1974. In January, 1975, Rev. Bunce accepted a call to Bedford Baptist Church in Bedford, Virginia.

Rev. Jerry Laughter was called as pastor effective August 31, 1975. The church continued its growth under his leadership until he was called to Scott's Creek Baptist Church in Sylva, N.C., effective May 31, 1978.

Coggins again without a pastor sought out the man God would have to fill the pulpit. After almost a year, the pulpit committee found that man, Rev. Dearl Bunce, who answered the call to Coggins for a second time.

Interim pastors' who have served the church during the years are: Rev. R.N. Hardin, Rev. E.C. Roach, Rev. Horace Barefoot and Rev. Inman Stewart.

Coggins has sent out four young men as ordained ministers: Rev. Wayne Voncannon, Rev. Raymond Byrd, Rev. Charles Dickens and Rev. Robert McCrary. Each of these men are now pastoring growing churches. Three other young men are presently attending seminary.

The church is now in preliminary planning stage for building a sanctuary. Offerings are now the highest in the history of the church. In 1981, the church sponsored 115 garden plots for local families to tend and harvest. A well drilling unit purchased by the church will eventually be moved to a foreign country to be used to provide fresh water there. God continues to bless as membership is growing. Rev. Bunce is very enthusiastic about the great potential and opportunities with which God has blessed the church. Church leaders are praying and planning for the future. The future belongs to God and those who follow Him need not be afraid of what the future holds.

SOUTHGATE BAPTIST CHURCH
Thomasville, N.C.

The present Southgate Baptist Church, originally known as Tabernacle Baptist Church, had its beginning in October, 1945, with twenty-eight charter members. The first meetings of the newly organized church were held in the Walker Funeral Home located on Memorial Park Drive, Thomasville, North Carolina.

In December, 1945, the chruch moved to an old garage on Randolph Street, presently known as Black Welding Shop. For a more adequate meeting place, the church moved once more to a vacant store building on Sunrise Avenue, where they worshipped until a church building was constructed on newly purchased land at 214 Royal Oak Street, in the early fall of 1947. At this time the name was changed to Glennanna Baptist Chruch.

In July, 1958, the church purchased a tract of land known as the Jones place located in the Southwest corner of Cloninger and Liberty Drive. The land cost $16,500.00. A new parsonage was constructed in 1959 at a cost of $26,000.00.

In the early part of 1968, plans were made to relocate the church building on the Jones tract. The old church building was sold to the local Nazarene Church and construction of a first unit complex began in 1969. The name was then changed to Southgate Baptist Church. The new building was financed through church bonds and sale of old property for the amount of $49,000.00.

The first service was held in the new church building November 30, 1969. An educational building was added in 1975 and a larger sanctuary was erected in 1977.

Pastors who have served the congregation are:

Rev. Bill Kincaid	October, 1945 to November, 1947
Rev. Robert Taylor	December, 1947 to January, 1959
Rev. Odell Hall	April, 1959 to February, 1961
Rev. Hoyt Adams	February, 1961 to June, 1962
Rev. Bill Knight	September, 1962 to April, 1963
Rev. Cecil Hedgepeth	April, 1963 to April, 1967
Rev. Gerald Hewitt (Interim)	May, 1967 to December, 1967
Rev. Clyde B. Case, Jr.	December, 1967 to December, 1978
Rev. Winfred Allison	July, 1979 to the present time

A quotation from a former pastor states, "Progress has been made through the years of the church, and the future looks more promising than ever before. It is our responsibility and privilege to permit our Lord to move through us with His power as He brings many into His fold who live in our community."

At the close of the historian's report last year, a question was raised concerning the identity of Benjamin Lanier and Azariah Williams, both of whom served several years in the 1800's as moderator and clerk of Liberty Baptist Association.

We found the following information in the History of Liberty Baptist Association by Mr. Henry Sheets:

Benjamin Lanier served eighteen years as moderator of Liberty Association. He was converted in 1831 and was baptized into the fellowship of Tom's Creek Baptist Church. He was ordained as minister in 1833 and served more than sixty years in the ministry. He served churches in Davidson, Randolph, Stanly, Montgomery and Richmond counties. He preached more than thirty years in his home church. Following his tenure as pastor, agitation and opposition arose concerning the work of missions. The church began to decline, lost its influence, dwindled to few members, and by 1891, Tom's Creek Baptist Church was dissolved.

Azariah Williams served twenty-two years as clerk of the association. He was received into Reeds Cross Roads Baptist Church in 1839. He was ordained in 1844 and served at Reeds Cross Roads for ten years; at Marion (an arm of Liberty) for twelve years; and at Pine Meeting House (now Churchland) for one year. He was county surveyor for several years and was regarded as an exemplary citizen. Mr. Sheets said of Azariah Williams, "He was a good man and served his day and generation well."

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

The American Bible Society, founded 165 years ago in 1816, continues to pursue the only purpose for which it was established: the translation, production and distribution of God's Word without doctrinal note or comment, and without profit.

On behalf of the millions of people who learned about our Lord Jesus Christ through the pages of Scripture in 1980, the American Bible Society would like to express its sincere thanks to the churches and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention for their share in these successful programs of Scripture and evangelism. The denomination's support for each of the past four years has averaged about two cents per member, or a total of $293,000.

During 1980 the Illustrated New Testament in Today's Portuguese was produced in Brazil; in Nigeria, translation of the complete New Testament in the languages of Angas and Yala; and in the Philippines, even refugees from Vietnam are being reached with the Scriptures.

To help aid the American Bible Society in its worldwide effort to serve the church and its global ministries, and to strengthen the indispensable partnership between the churches and the American Bible Society, an Advisory Council was held last year.

The Advisory Council has adopted several important resolutions . Of special significance is the resolution encouraging "...greater financial support from churches and the total Christian community, especially when viewed in light of U.S. and world inflation..." and urging "...the churches to set a goal of at least ten per cent annual growth in financial support to the work of the American Bible Society." We sincerely hope that our churches will find it possible to assist in the successful fulfillment of this resolution. Perhaps we could look for the day when the average gift to the Bible cause will be at least four cents per member per year.!

Let us continue our Bold Mission Thrust in Scripture distribution with increased support of the American Bible Society.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Walter Blackwell

ANNUITY BOARD REPORT

Those of us who share the Retirement Plan of the Southern Baptist Convention know what a blessing it is. We look forward regularly for the monthly check, and then for that extra check each year. Let me encourage each church of Liberty Baptist Association to take a close look at your pastor's annuity plan this year when you make up your new budget. It may need to be upgraded.

"Nineteen hundred eighty has been a year of unprecedented growth and startling change," according to Dr. Darold H. Morgan, president of the Southern Baptist Convention's Annuity Board.

1. A 13th Check amounting to 10 per cent of a year's benefit was mailed to annuitants who retired before 1980.
2. A total of $21,059,479 in retirement was paid.
3. Total assets held in trust at the close of the year equaled $806,518,757. This figure represented a growth of $139,043,770 over 1979's total.
4. At the close of 1980, the Board counted 20,527 church and agency member accounts in Plan A, 47,701 in the fixed Fund, 6,033 in the Balanced Fund, and 3,376 in the variable Fund.

DEPARTMENT OF RETIREMENT PLANNING
Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

In North Carolina as of March 31, 1981, 3,114 staff members of 2,353 churches and associations are participating in the Southern Baptist retirement program. Through March 31, 1981, we had processed the following:

70 Southern Baptist Retirement Program applications.

11 applications for Age Retirement Benefits.

442 upgrades. One of the most exciting and far reading aspects of our work for 1980 has been the printing of ad response to the study guide Planning the Rest of your Life. This booklet is available from our office for church staff members, small study groups, and church families who wish to have help in planning their retirement years.

The church's response to upgrade the staff members' retirement program is most encouraging. Ten per cent of his/her annual compensation (salary, housing allowance, auto allowance, etc.) should be the minimum.

ASSOCIATION

In Liberty Association 33 churches and 38 staff members are participating in the retirement program. Of this number, 13 are still participating on the minimum of $33.34 per month. There is a great need to upgrade this to 10 per cent of total salary for staff members.

Respectfully submitted,
C.W. Pierce

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES REPORT

The ministry of the Baptist Children's Homes in Piedmont North Carolina continues to grow and develop. This is made possible by the continuing support of many Christian friends. Vital to the work of the Homes is financial support through special gifts, the North Carolina Missions Offering and income through the Cooperative Program.

The Thomasville Family Services Center offers to residents in the 28 surrounding counties any and all services of our statewide ministry. Many of these services are actually located within these counties: group care at Mills Home, a specialized group home at Wall Home, Wallburg, emergency care at High Point and Burlington, a network of licensed foster homes, therapeutic camping in Moore County, social service offices in Hickory, Thomasville, and Burlington, the Child Development Center and Family Resource Center in Thomasville, plus counseling and referral services.

During the past year an amphitheater has been completed on the Mills Home campus under the sponsorship of the Alumni Association. The therapeutic camping program of the Institution has been consolidated to make use of the Cameron Home near Vass.

Good things are taking place in our Baptist Children's Homes family across the State. Six Family Services Centers have been opened with three others in the planning stages. Children are being provided temporary care in seven Emergency Care Homes. The Child Development Center in Thomasville continues to offer progressive demonstration preschool care as a model for North Carolina churches. The Family Resource Center located in Thomasville is piloting a concept of continuing education for people across the State who are in the best position to assist families through a concept of preventive care.

Larry Sawyer and members of the staff of the Homes in Piedmont North Carolina are leading the program in a very fine way. In the words of Paul they can say, "We are laborers together with God" (I Corinthians 3:9). Thank Him for this relationship.

Respectfully submitted,
Carroll Wall, Jr.

BAPTIST FOUNDATION REPORT

The Directors of the Foundation made an investment decision in 1978 to increase the yield to the charitable beneficiaries of trust income. Over a two year period investments moved toward high quality selective bonds to accomplish this goal. The income of yield increased steadily with the rate on December 30, 1980, averaging 10.3 per cent. Market Value of all assets on December 30, 1980, were $4,586,215.12. The bond portion of the investment portfolio reflected the high interest market at the end of the year with market values being depressed below inventory value.

Thirty-eight per cent of the market value of all assets held by the Foundation were made as gifts by persons desiring to receive income for the remainder of their lifetime and at death have the trust funds pay income to missions or Baptist institutions. Foundation personnel are available to assist any member of a Baptist Church in North Carolina to utilize this or other plans of giving to provide a perpetual personal support for sharing the message of Christ - even beyond one's lifetime.

More families are utilizing the memorial gifts as a means of providing mission support on a continuing basis. Individual trust accounts are established with only the income being distributed in the name of the deceased family member. Generally the mission cause named to receive the income was loved and supported during the lifetime of the family member.

Private and confidential conferences are scheduled by Foundation staff members with individuals desiring to seek direction in estate planning and giving.

During the past year, twenty-three new trust funds valued at $385,016 were established with the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. Coupled with the additions to existing trusts, total new assets held for the various missions and institutions increased the value of trust assets by $453,877.

— Foreign Missions trust funds increased by about $26,000.
— Home Missions trusts increased by $8,000.
— Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina trusts increased by about $19,000.
— Southeastern Seminary by $12,250.
— Fruitland Bible Institute by $33,000.
— North Carolina Baptist Homes by $1,500.
— Local church trust funds, including cemetery, scholarship, and mission funds by $5,000.

— Cooperative Program by $7,000.
— Statewide Student loan fund by $115,000.

Respectfully submitted,
Hugh H. Shepherd

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING REPORT

As we look back over the past thirty years of ministry in our Baptist Homes, it is a real inspiration of see where we have been, and to meditate on the many blessings God has so richly bestowed upon us. He has brought us from one home in 1951 to a total of six homes, an apartment complex, and a skilled nursing unit. God has used North Carolina Baptists to bring this special ministry to older people a long way.

Building plans of a 70 bed addition to our current Nursing Care Unit and the Hayes home have been held up by regulatory red tape for years. Now that the State Health Laws have been altered to permit the building of these beds, it doesn't appear that we could wisely borrow the money at the current interest rates.

1980 gifts through our Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering are a little more than $550,000 (18 per cent of all income). These gifts are not commensurate with our current population growth and the ministry support needs of the home.

Baptists must be informed of our needs and do all possible with their gifts accordingly through the regular channels - the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering. North Carolina Baptists must help us find ways of raising money for development and the needs of growing numbers of older adults.

The General Board of the Baptist State Convention has joined us in our concerns, and has appointed a special study committee to take a close look at the financial needs of our Baptist Homes.

We believe that our future is as bright as the promises of God Himself and as sure as the love and devotion of North Carolina Baptists.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL REPORT

During the past decade, life expectancy in this country has increased by three years, to 73.2 years. Important factors in this increase have been the development of new medical technology and the application of new medical knowledge gained through research.

Baptist Hospital has had a significant part of this developing knowledge and technology. During the past year, the hospital has expended more than $3 million on technological equipment, including the installation of an 18-MEV linear accelerator for the improved treatment of patients with certain types of cancer. A new cardiac-catherterization laboratory increases the capability of identifying and locating heart problems. A cell saver, the first in North Carolina, contributes to the recovery of many surgical patients. This technology salvages the patients's own blood, cleans it and readies it for transfusion back into the patient in a matter of minutes - making transfusion faster and less expensive. The diagnosis and treatment of epilepsy has been greatly enhanced by the development of a video telemetry system which uses cameras to record a patient's physical symptoms during a seizure, thus enabling the physician to determine the precise drug dosage needed.

The hospital's ministry has been aided by completion and occupation of the Focus Building. Other hospital space is undergoing renovation for more effective use.

Several staff members from the Medical Center have participated in short-term mission assignments during the past year - many of these in overseas areas.

The Department of Pastoral Care continues to provide a pastoral ministry to hospital patients and their families, individual and group counseling in crisis situations, clinical pastoral education in both crisis ministry and pastoral counseling at several levels, and numerous events in Christian enrichment and development. The Minister's Care Plan continues in which the Baptist State Convention provides financial assistance for ministers and/or their families who seek pastoral counseling through one of the department's regional centers.

Again this year, our hospital has won awards in cost effectiveness programs, indicating our continuing efforts to keep our operating costs and patient charges as low as possible.

In 1980, our churches contributed $457,459.56 to the hospital through the Cooperative Program, and $353,397.73 through the North Carolina Missions Offering and designated gifts.

CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION REPORT

It is to the credit of North Carolina Baptists, once a largely uneducated people, that they were pioneers in education. Before the Civil War, Baptists were busy establishing academies across the state for the basic education of children. In 1834, 1848, and 1856, three of the schools which became colleges - Wake Forest, Chowan, and Mars Hill - were founded.

Today, North Carolina Baptists sponsor and support seven institutions of Christian higher education. Again, most of these Baptist schools are older than the majority of the state colleges and universities. In many cases the colleges begun by the churches became models for colleges and universities founded later by the state. The seven North Carolina Baptist colleges and universities are: Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredity, Wake Forest, and Wingate.

The task of the Christian college is large and complex: searching for answers to perplexing problems; guiding the lives of youth who have been greatly influenced by the values of a secular society; and interpreting this task in love and with reason to those who do not always understand the difficulty of the college task.

The 1981-82 school year is filled with financial uncertainties across the nation. North Carolina Baptist colleges, where a total of 19,751 students were enrolled last year, are grateful for the generous and growing support through the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering. In addition to dollars, the enrollment of more Baptist young people from the churches is a major emphasis of our colleges and universities.

The Council on Christian Higher Education has published a small book, designed for study in the churches. The title of the book is On Mission: The Church/College Alliance. Copies of this book have been sent to the pastors over the state. It is the hope of the Council on Christian Higher Education that the book will be read and used by groups within the congregation. Some topics dealt with are:

What are the purposes of a Christian college or university?

What are some of the distinctive problems that Baptist colleges encounter as they attempt to fulfill their educational mission in a Christian context?

How do Baptist colleges decide which students should be admitted?

How can Baptist young people of limited means afford the cost of attending a Baptist college?

Copies of the book will be sent, free of charge, to those who request it from the Council on Christian Higher Education, P.O. Box 26508, Raleigh, North Carolina 27611.

Mrs. Leonard Rollins

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE REPORT

Christian literature is one of the many assets of our churches, and we are indeed fortunate to have many periodicals and books available. Our Baptist Book Stores offer some of the best books and literature. The Sunday School, Church Training, Music, Brotherhood and W.M.U. magazines provide leadership guidance, spiritual enrichment, and helpful study materials. Home Life is an excellent resource for family devotions and reading in our homes. The Commission, Home Missions, and Charity & Children keep us abreast of activities in their respective fields of opportunity.

Again this year the Biblical Recorder has reminded us of the value of good church-pastor relations. This is just one of the many subjects the Recorder seeks to cover for North Carolina Baptists. The Recorder serves as a constant reminder to us that a bedrock of Baptist life is a strong local church served by a dedicated pastor. The Recorder also challenges us in many ways as it reports on gains or declines in our convention, and provides "front row seat" coverage of the Southern Baptist Convention sessions. We have a better convention, better churches, better associations, and better individual Christians with better communication. The Recorder is an instrument of communication for North Carolina Baptists that keeps us closer together.

May we become stronger Christians and churches reaching out in Bold Missions as we use to greater advantage the outstanding Christian literature available to us.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Robert W. Cook

FOREIGN MISSIONS REPORT

Primary in Southern Baptist overseas missions is the sending out and maintaining of missionaries through the channels of the Foreign Mission Board. Our sharing of the Gospel is in both word and deed.

As of January 1, 1981, there were more than 3,000 missionaries working in 94 countries. Of those, 2,554 are career missionaries. The others serve through auxiliary categories as associates, journeymen, and several project workers. Missionaries work in 93 different types of missionary services. During 1980 there were 330 appointments, of whom 139 were career missionaries.

Southern Baptists cooperate through their Foreign Mission Board with national entities representing over 11,500 churches. Of that number, some 8,000 are self supporting. One of the highlights of the 1980 annual report was a first time break through in the history of Southern Baptist foreign missions. There were 110,000 baptisms; that was over 36 baptisms per missionary. Forty three missionaries worked in 62 centers in a total of 48,000 radio broadcasts.

Medical assistance is an expression of Christian love and also a means of witness. Today the Foreign Mission Board assists in the maintenance of 20 hospitals and 120 clinics and dispensaries. At the end of the year, there were 56 missionary physicians, 70 missionary nurses, 12 missionary dentists, and 43 other missionaries engaged in medical and health care ministries. These treated 137,000 inpatients and 1.1 million outpatients. Working with Southern Baptist missionaries were 919 national physicians and 844 national nurses.

Missionaries minister with compassionate concern to unfortunate persons (the hungry, thirsty, lonely, naked, and imprisoned) in foreign countries. Refugees from war and national disasters present a haunting picture in our world.

In 1980 Southern Baptists gave a total of $85,456,178 for foreign missions. For the calendar year, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering was $40,836,167. Approximately 50 per cent of the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program funds is available annually for foreign missions. Still needed on overseas fields are land, buildings, and equipment.

Bold Missions depends on our response to the challenge of Bold Growing, Bold Giving, Bold Going, Bold Doing, and Bold Praying. Will we respond?

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. James A. Craver

HOME MISSIONS REPORT

William G. Tanner, Executive Director-Treasurer, states the basic working philosophy of our Home Mission Board when he writes: "...wherever people are, home missions must be, if we are to tell each person about Jesus Christ."

1980, we are assured, was a good year for home missions. The budget was the largest in our history - 36.6 million dollars. This record budget reflects the largest amount ever received through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, which was more than 16.5 million dollars.

The downward slide in baptisms was halted in 1978, and in 1980 we reported 429,000 baptisms.

The missionary force of the Home Mission Board rose in 1980 to 3,000. The year's end showed a total of 2,970. Maintaining the 3,000 was impossible because of the large turnover in Home Mission Board mission pastors who lead their churches to self-support status and, at that point, drop from Home Mission Board rolls.

Some will be interested to know that the new venture of providing a witness at the Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York, has resulted in a small church there. Plans are underway to provide another witness at the Summer Games in Los Angeles in 1984.

Your Home Mission Board has been engaged in a continuing ministry to the Indochinese refugees; and when the unexpected flotilla of Cubans took place, within days, home missionaries were on the scene helping to meet their needs. The Board named a hunger consultant in 1980 whose task will be to coordinate Southern Baptist Convention domestic hunger efforts.

Of interest in the wide range of Home Mission work are:

— Evangelism Support Department involved more than 70,000 persons in evangelism in 1980.
— During 1980, more than 1,100 church-type missions were started and 450 new churches were constituted.
— Where local financing was not available, loan applications from 187 churches were processed. Commitments totaled 16.6 million dollars.
— By year's end, approximately 350 Mission Service Corps volunteers were serving in 43 states, Canada, Puerto Rico, and American Samoa.
— In 1980 more than 30,000 served as home mission volunteers.

A summary of "Highlights 1980" includes this word addressed to each of us: "How much time do we have to reach our land and our world? Probably not as much as we think. Whatever we plan to do to reach our land, we had better do it quickly."

Respectfully submitted,
D. Hoke Coon, Jr.

STATE MISSIONS REPORT

When we consider the need to support and enlarge mission efforts to bring mankind into the influence of the saving grace of God's Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, our attention once again comes to focus on North Carolina Baptist Missions and the North Carolina Missions Offering to be taken the week of October 4 - 11. North Carolina Baptists have been challenged to meet a larger than ever goal of $2,750,000 which will be divided among our various ministries as follows:

3% to N.C. Baptist Men	$ 82,500
5% to Heck-Jones - W.M.U. of N.C.	137,500
5% to Christian Higher Education Scholarships	137,500
15% to Baptist Hospital	412,500
15% to Homes for the Aging	412,500
27% to State Missions Ministries	742,500
30% to Children's Homes	825,000
100%	$2,750,000

Through increased financial support and extensive participation of all North Carolina Baptists, our State Mission work can make great advances in communicating the life-changing message of God's love expressed in Jesus Christ. Our part in Bold Mission Thrust's goal to reach the six billion people who will be in the world in the year 2000 is to begin in our beloved State of North Carolina, and in order to win our State for Jesus Christ, we must give more money and we must pray much more.

1981 is the year of the Churchman in North Carolina Baptist life, so the theme of this year's North Carolina Missions emphasis is "The Churchman on Missions." A Churchman is a person, both male and female, who is serious about being a Christian, and to be a Churchman in its fullest sense, one must pray for missions, financially support missions, and be personally involved in missions.

Bold Mission Thrust calls us to GO if we can, GROW in Christian service, and GIVE sacrificially.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. L.E. Abbott

Proceedings

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, September 28, 1982, ABBOTTS CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH HIGH POINT, NORTH CAROLINA

1. The One Hundred Fiftieth Annual Session of The Liberty Baptist Association was called to order by the Moderator, The Rev. Warren Kerr.

2. The singing began under the direction of Mr. David Clemens, Director of Music and Youth for the Abbotts Creek Church. Kim Hedgecock played the piano and Steve Johnson served as organist. The congregation sang, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing," and "My Jesus, I Love Thee."

3. The Rev. John Pace, pastor of the Reeds Baptist Church, was recognized to lead in a period of worship.

4. The body was constituted for worship and the transaction of business following a motion by the clerk.

5. Upon a motion by Rev. John Pace, the program was adopted as printed with any necessary changes to take place as needed.

6. The Rev. Brooks Hunt, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, nominated Morris Hollifield to serve as Clerk. This was approved, and he was duly elected.

7. The Rev. Leonard Rollins was asked to introduce and recognize all new pastors and staff members.

8. The report of the Executive Committee was presented by the clerk. Following discussion, this was approved.

9. The Treasurer's report was given by Mr. Dothan Reece. This was adopted.

10. The Rev. Max Evington presented the proposed budget. After a motion and second there was some discussion. Rev. Douglas Huff inquired if the amount for Youth work included funds for the B.S.U. at DCCC. The answer was that it did not. The Rev. R. O. Bennett presented an amendment to the budget proposal. He moved that $150.00 be added to the Youth item under Department work. This amendment was approved. Then, as amended, the budget recommendation was adopted. The additional funds are to be designated for the work among students at Davidson County Community College.

11. The Chairman of the Missions Committee, J. N. Penninger, Jr., brought the report from the committee and it was approved.

12. Mr. David Clemens led the congregation in singing, "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know."

13. The host pastor, the Rev. Roy Cantrell, extended a welcome to the messengers and gave information concerning use of the facilities. He also gave instructions for the serving of the evening meal.

14. Mrs. Douglas Huff was asked to report on the Student Work at DCCC, where she has been asked to serve as the volunteer director.

15. Opportunity was given for miscellaneous business. Rev. Lee Horne asked for a meeting of the committee on Place and Preacher.

16. Rev. Cantrell asked that all program personel be given the opportunity to eat first so they could prepare for their responsibilities.

17. A report on registration showed 203 messengers and 59 visitors at 5: p.m.

18. The Rev. Douglas Huff called attention to the Winfred Allison scholarship fund and suggested that this be kept open through the year for further opportunities for persons or churches wishing to make contributions. Rev. Rollins provided further information and called attention to the death of Mrs. Allen Welborn.

19. Rich Lowder was introduced to bring a message in the form of a report on missions in West Africa. He is a member of Lexington First Baptist Church, and a student at Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest. He recently returned from a 6 months B.S.U. assignment in Togo.

20. The Scripture reading for the Annual Sermon was from I Corinthians 2:5-16 and was given by Rev. Roy Cantrell.

21. Special music was presented by Mr. David Clemens.

22. The Annual Sermon was presented by the Rev. Max Evington. He dealt with the difference between the church and the world, and he stressed that faith makes the difference.

23. The session was adjourned for the evening meal as Dr. Dennis Kenney offered the prayer of thanksgiving.

TUESDAY EVENING

24. The Moderator called the evening session to order.

25. Mr. Al Martin led the congregation in singing, "To God Be the Glory."

26. The Rev. John Pace was recognized to lead the time of worship. Before beginning his message he shared sources of information and expressed the desire for a complete set of Associational Minutes to be placed in the Associational office.

27. The Moderator called for miscellaneous business.

28. The Chairman of the Missions Committee was recognized for the purpose of welcoming the new church (Trinity Baptist Church) into the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association. The pastor, the Rev. Earle Rogers, was recognized to speak on behalf of the church. All members present from the Trinity church were asked to stand. Upon a motion by J.N. Penninger, Jr., and a second by the Rev. Allen Welborn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Welcome, the church was received into the association and the members duly welcomed.

29. Following this order of business, the Rev. R. O. Bennett was asked to stand and was recognized for his work in the early days as pastor of this new congregation.

30. The Rev. Carl Hemphill stood and commended Rev. John Pace for the fine report he had shared through the two periods of worship.

31. The Moderator recognized the next speaker, Miss Jeanne Hollifield, who brought word from the Holy Land. She is a member of the Jersey congregation and a student at Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest. Her report dealt with an archealogical expedition with which she had served during the summer at the old city of Dan near the Israeli and Lebanon border. Her message was moved ahead of the Rev. Charles Young so the students could get back to school as early as possible that night.

32. The Rev. Roy Cantrell was recognized. He expressed appreciation to his congregation for their work in providing for the associational meeting. Mr. Cantrell stated that a mission offering would be taken for the church in St. Albans, W. Va., following the Rev. Charles Young's message. He urged a good response.

33. The Rev. Charles Young, pastor of the St. Albans church, was introduced to bring a message on missions. He expressed appreciation from his congregation in West Virginia. After showing slides, he preached a powerful message on the challenge of missions.

34. Mr. Al Martin then led the congregation in singing, "Trust and Obey."

35. The ushers came forward, Rev. Kerr led the offertory prayer, and free-will offering for the W. Va. church was received.

36. The Director of Missions introduced the next speaker, the Rev. Don Hammer, Director of Metropolitan Missions with the Home Mission Board. He noted ties of friendship across many years.

37. The Abbotts Creek Church choir presented special music.

38. A very stirring message was brought by Rev. Don Hammer from Acts 16 on the topic, "How Jesus Helps Us." This was a tremendous challenge to faithfulness in missions. He concluded with prayer.

39. Instructions were given for getting to the Center Hill Church for Wednesday's meeting.

40. The clerk reported registration for the evening session 23 messengers and 45 visitors, for a total registration on the first day of 226 messengers and 104 visitors (330 total).

41. The Moderator reviewed the events of the day, and affirmed for the congregation that it had been a wonderful experience.

41. The meeting was concluded with the singing of the Doxology.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1982

CENTER HILL BAPTIST CHURCH
LEXINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

43. The meeting was called to order by the Rev. Warren Kerr.

44. Mr. Al Martin was invited to open the worship by leading the congregation in singing. The hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus," was sung with great feeling.

45. Rev. Leonard Rollins was introduced to lead in the period of worship. He reminded the association of the great heritage shared by Baptists, and then made a projection of associational work to take place in the future. His message was based on II Corinthians 5:17-6:1. Following the message, Mr. Rollins made a prayer request for one of the Deacons at Denton, Mr. Huff, and concluded with a prayer of commitment.

46. The Rev. Brooks Hunt was asked to make the report for the Nominating Committee. He read the list of general officers and these were elected.

47. Mr. Hunt then presented the nominations for committee members with a motion that these be elected. Following a second this motion was approved.

48. The Rev. Wesley T. Garner reported that the Resolutions Committee had not met. After conferring with the Moderator, Rev. Garner read the names of the committee members and asked that they retire to a class room and meet at that time.

49. The Rev. Lee Horne was asked to share the report of the Place and Preacher Committee. The recommendation was adopted as follows:

First Day (Sept. 27) New Friendship
Second Day (Sept. 28) Wallburg
Preacher-Rev. Dearl L. Bunce
Alternate-Rev. Robert J. Floyd

50. The Historian, Mrs. Robert Knapp, presented an abbreviated history of the host churches: Abbotts Creek, Center Hill, and Stoner's Grove. Upon motion by Mrs. Knapp, the report was adopted.

51. Upon a motion by the clerk the book of reports was adopted.

52. The Rev. Lamar L. Moore made a motion that the messages of the Rev. Pace and Rev. Rollins be included in the printed minutes. This was approved by the messengers.

53. There was a motion that the by-law relative to the inclusion of the book of reports be waived to permit the elimination of the book of reports from the printed minutes for this year. This was passed.

54. The Rev. Hoke Coon was recognized to lead the Memorial Service. He noted there were 116 people who had died in the last year, and then proceeded to read the list of names. He used a passage from Romans, read a poem by Frederick L. Hosmer, "Friends Beyond", and led the messengers in a prayer of Thanksgiving.

55. The report from the Resolutions Committee was presented by Rev. Wesley T. Garner and approved by the body.

56. The congregation sang, "O God, Our Help," under the direction of Mr. Al Martin with Mrs. Edith Lumsden at the organ.

57. The Moderator recognized denominational representatives and allotted each one five minutes for presenting their area of work.

58. Miss Doris Lopp was introduced and spoke on behalf of the Baptist Hospital. She serves as a trustee and is a member of the Liberty Baptist Church in our Association.

59. The Rev. Coy Privette of the Christian Action League was the next speaker.

60. Christian Higher Education was represented by the Rev. Henry Stokes from Wake Forest University.

61. The Rev. Charles Tanner spoke on behalf of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina.

62. Special Music was presented by a youth group from the Mills Home Baptist Church.

63. The Moderator reported that Dr. Fred B. Bentley, President of Mars Hill College, was to have been our next speaker. He could not be present because of extenuating circumstances on the campus. In his place Dr. Thomas Corts, president of Wingate College, was presented for the message. He read from Mark 14:3-9, preached on the "Adoration of Jesus," and concluded with a prayer.

64. The Moderator appointed the Nominating Committee for the following year as follows:

Rev. Carl Hemphill, Chairman ..... Carolina Memorial
Mrs. Daphne Motsinger ..... Abbotts Creek
Mr. Larry Yarbrough..... Welcome, First
Dr. Paul Millwood..... Churchland
Mrs. Beverly Dyson ..... Smith Grove

65. The host pastor, the Rev. Lamar Moore, gave instructions for lunch.

66. The new moderator, the Rev. Franklin Myers, was called to the podium and installed as the presiding officer.

67. Rev. Myers led a prayer which dismissed the meeting and expressed thanks to the heavenly Father for the food provided for the noon-day meal.

68. The clerk's record showed there were 35 messengers and 28 visitors registered on the second day. This made a total of 261 messengers and 132 visitors for a total attendance of 393 during the 150th anniversary session of the Liberty Association. The report from the offering received at Abbotts Creek on Tuesday evening revealed gifts in excess of $400.00. The ushers, who were members of Baptist Men's work at the local church, requested they be premitted to finish out the gift to a figure of $500.00. This brought memories of the earlier days when a mission offering was received while the association was gathered for worship.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Liberty Baptist Association the Executive Committee scheduled four meetings during the year. These were held at the Associational office and each began with a time of worship.

The first meeting was on November 16, 1981. There were 49 in attendance and the moderator recognized the new members who were present. The treasurer's report indicated all bills were paid and a balance of $3,940.50 remained in the checking account as of that date. The chairman of the Missions Committee stated that a quarterly report had been received from the Trinity Baptist Church which had been taken under the watch care of the Association at the annual meeting in September. Mrs. Bessie Blackwell reported for the W.M.U. that 160 people from 22 churches participated in the September W.M.U. Leadership Workshop. On November 13-14 there were 120 ladies who attended the W.M.U. retreat at Caraway Conference Center. The Director of Missions reported that he and Mr. Stan Nichols had visited a church at St. Albans, West Virginia, and conferred with their leadership about being paired with our Association during the five year emphasis of "Mountain State-200." It was noted also that Rev. Roy Cantrell and some men from the Abbotts Creek Church had visited the same church and explored further the specific needs and opportunities for ministry. It was suggested that our association could provide money, labor, and VBS leadership in the relocation of the church and the strengthening of the work. Mr. Stan Nichols requested that a committee be appointed to head up this work. Mr. Rollins and the Moderator agreed to assume this responsibility and report back to the committee. Seminary Extension courses were announced to begin January 12 and 14 at the Associational office, with 5 people in the Association having been certified to teach. The 1982 Crusade, "Here's Hope," was announced for April 4-18, 1982. It was reported that our Association had enlisted 100% of our churches to participate in the Crusade. Mr. Rollins reported on the booth at the Davidson County Fair, and suggested that in future years our efforts be directed toward a ministry to the people with the fair. High Attendance Day in Sunday School on October 24 had 5,682 attending our 43 churches. A request for pastoral assistance was approved for the Currytown Church and the application forwarded to the State Convention.

The second meeting was on January 18, 1982. The Vice-Moderator presided with 27 members present. The Treasurer reported a checking balance of $3,769.61 on December 31 with all bills paid. The W.M.U. report indicated that $422.15 was contributed by the ladies for Christmas gifts for the N.C.Correctional Center for Women in Raleigh. It was also noted the Associational W.M.U. had received the Achievement Recognition award of Distinguished for 1980-81. Mr. Numa Everhart of the Abbotts Creek Church asked the Executive Committee to endorse the idea of helping the St. Albans Church in West Virginia through the men's work in the churches of the Association. A committee to guide the work was named as follows: James Williams, Stan Nichols, and Malcolm Myers, Jr., The Abbotts Creek Church was commended for their leadership in involving our Association in the work in West Virginia. The decision was made to request a summer worker for 10 weeks through the Convention Youth Campus ministry to assist the Trinity Baptist Church and do survey work in other areas of the Association. Mr. Rollins reported the Lottie Moon Offering had reached a total of $78,618.51, which was approximately $2,300.00 ahead of last year.

The third meeting was on May 24, 1982, with 30 persons present. The Brotherhood report indicated that $4,021.00 had been contributed by three churches for the work at St. Albans in West Virginia. The W.M.U. report revealed that 167 people attended the annual meeting at Mills Home on April 26. On May 1 there were about 200 at Mundo Vista for the G. A. Day Camp. John Penninger, Chairman of the Missions Committee, brought a report on the Trinity Church, and made recommendations concerning their request for Convention funds. An application for a loan of $10,000 and a grant in aid of up to $5,000 for purchase of property was approved and forwarded to the Missions Division of the Convention. Mrs. Judy Wood from the Reeds Church brought a recommendation from the Liberty Baptist Association Church Secretaries' organization as follows:

1. That a study committee be appointed to establish a job description which could be adapted to present and future needs of the secretary in the Association office.
2. Establish a salary scale comparable to that of secretaries who serve in local churches.
3. Establish a policy on benefits including vacation pay, Christmas bonus, retirement plan, hospitalization, social security, and compensation for work incurred after hours.

Following discussion, the recommendation was adopted and the following committee was appointed: Mrs. Judy Wood, Mrs. Susan Simpson, Dothan Reece, Rev. Max Evington, and Mrs. Charlotte Cook. The treasurer's report indicated a balance of $3,946.27 as of May 24. The Director of Missions stated that 19 churches had reported on the Here's Hope Crusade with a total of 51 professions of faith.

The fourth meeting was on September 13 with 36 present. The treasurer reported a balance in the checking account of $4,728.33. In reporting on the work in West Virginia, the Rev. Allen Welborn said that First Baptist Church, Welcome, had taken on the project of procuring and installing the heating system for the church at St. Albans at a cost of $2,300. Mr. Rollins noted that there was a small surplus of funds at the end of the Associational year, and the Finance Committee authorized the purchase of a 19 inch T.V. and vidio cassette player. This was done in cooperation with the N.C. Convention, whereby the Convention provided $500 toward the purchase, which was approximately half the cost. This is to be made available to the churches. It was reported that 42 churches held Vacation Bible Schools. Mr. Rollins emphasized the annual meeting on September 28-29. Following prayer requested, the meeting was concluded.

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Missions Committee of the Liberty Baptist Association met quarterly, as is indicated in the Constitution and By-Laws. Each meeting was held at the Associational office at 7:00 p.m. on the same dates as the Executive Committe.

At our first meeting on November 16, 1981, the chairman presented a written progress report from the Trinity Baptist Church, which came under the watch care of the Association at the annual meeting in September. The report indicated an average of thirty (30) in attendance in Sunday School and average offering of three hundred, eighty-one dollars ($381.00) per Sunday for July, August and September. Mr. Rollins indicated that a request for pastoral aid of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) for the Currytown pastor would need to be made. Motion was made, second and passed that the request be sent to the Baptist State Convention. He also reported that Ernest Upchurch wanted to come to the Association and look at records for the past ten (10) years, with specific information being shown for evaluation.

The second meeting was held on January 18, 1982. Mr. Rollins reported that the ten (10) year report on the work of the Association would be complete in the near future. He also reported on the possibility of a summer worker, to work with the Trinity Church, and perhaps with some other churches. A motion was made, second and passed to recommend to the Executive Committee that the Association contribute four hundred, fifty dollars ($450.00) toward the salary of the summer workers, which be matched with funds by the Baptist State Convention. Another quarterly report was shared from the Trinity Church, which was real encouraging, showing an increase in attendance and offering.

The third meeting was held on May 24, 1982. The chairman read another good progress report from the Trinity Church. The church is requesting a loan of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and also up to a five thousand dollar ($5,000) grant in aid, from the Baptist State Convention for the purchasing of property. The two requests were granted and were shared with the Executive Committe. Mr. Rollins shared a progress report in reference to the summer worker. Not having time to discuss this properly, he requested that we meet again after the Executive Committee meeting to complete our business. This continued at 8:30 p.m. and after much discussion, it was decided to keep the option open on securing the summer worker. We are awaiting additional word from George Shore at the Baptist State Convention office.

The fourth meeting was held September 13, 1982. Mr. Rollins reported that plans for the securing of a summer worker did not work out, and the Convention funds would be returned. Perhaps plans can be made for a worker at another time. Mr. Rollins reported that since the death of Pastor Jimmie Edwards, he has offered to preach for the congregation of Faith Baptist Church during September and October. The church accepted his offer and our committee readily approved the approach. The fourth report dated September 12, 1982, was received from the Trinity Church with much enthusiasm. They continue to grow, now having a membership of fifty, and average weekly offerings of almost five hundred dollars ($500.00). All of the reports were approved by the Missions Committee and shared each time with the Executive Committee. Rev. R. O. Bennett was pastor until March or April when he resigned because of health problems. Rev. Earl Rogers was chosen as Interim pastor starting in April. The congregation has purchased property at the intersection of Welcome-Arcadia Road and Highway 150. They have renovated the house on the property and are meeting there for church services. After some discussion, a motion was made, second and passed that we recommend to the Executive Committee that Trinity Baptist Church be received into full fellowship of the Association, on Tuesday evening of the annual meeting, September 28, at 7:35 P.M., miscellaneous business period. Mr. Rollins related the interest Rev. Wesley Garner, pastor of Denton First Baptist Church, in starting mission work between Denton and Asheboro. It was suggested that Rev. Garner appear before the Missions Committee and share his desire for the work and what plans might be involved.

Respectfully submitted,
John N. Penninger, Jr.
Chairman of Missions Committee

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

WHEREAS the Liberty Baptist Association, meeting in its 150th session, September 28 and 29, 1982, has experienced in these days the grace and mercy of God through which he has enabled us to meet for fellowship and inspiration:

AND WHEREAS we the messengers and visitors have been challenged by our theme, "Hitherto Hath the Lord Helped Us," and whereas we, the people of God, wish to express appreciation to Him for all His blessings;

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the messengers to the 150th annual session of the Liberty Baptist Association, assembled in the Center Hill Baptist Church this 29th day of September, 1982, do hereby:

1. Express appreciation to our host churches, Abbotts Creek, Center Hill, and Stoner's Grove, for the gracious manner in which each has so ably cared for our needs and comfort and the adequate and delicious food provided.
2. Express our heart felt thanks to Rev. Warren Kerr, Moderator, and Rev. Morris Hollifield, Clerk, for their excellent leadership during these days of the annual session.
3. Express thanksgiving to God for the spirit of the meeting, especially noted in the worship periods, and to each leader of these worship periods, and to the Committee on Order of Business who brought us the program.
4. Express thanksgiving for the Spirit of God who called this body, our association, into being and has blessed us with very capable leadership and a rich heritage of Christian experience.
5. Express thanksgiving for the spirit of cooperation of our churches and association with the mission work in West Virginia, and gratitude for the generous offering of $500.00 taken last evening at the Abbotts Creek meeting.

6. Express appreciation to the messengers and the churches they represent, with the prayer that each one will go back to their church with a better understanding of our heritage and a renewed spirit of the possible, both in the present and in the future.

REPORT OF
DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Your Director of Missions has been in 36 of the 43 churches for at least one service during the calendar year. In addition to regular preaching services, I taught the Book of Jeremiah at Coggins Memorial, Churchland, Reeds, and Liberty. I taught the Home Mission Study nine times, and taught the adults in Vacation Bible School at Carolina Memorial. I have assisted a number of our churches while they were without a pastor, and worked with nine pulpit committees. I also served on an interim basis for two months at Southgate and Faith, whose pastors had dies. I spoke at Mills Home on the North Carolina Missions Offering; previewed the Sunday School lessons on seven occasions at Lexington, First; spoke at North Lexington for deacons and wives Christmas party, Men's Retreat and Women's Retreat; spoke to Brotherhood at Carolina Memorial, Welcome, First, and Churchland; spoke to R.A.'s at Liberty, and deacons and wives at Churchland; spoke at Rich Fork on associational missions, and participated in the prayer retreat at Denton, First.

I have participated in the following special events: Pastor Appreciation Dinner for Hoke Coon at Lexington Y.M.C.A.; reception for Danny Dalton at Rich Fork; Triple L. Club banquet at Rich Fork; special service at Denton, First, to honor Herbert Baker; senior adult banquet at Lexington, First; reception at Hasty for new pastor; Homecoming and dedication of fellowship hall at Churchland. I had a part in deacon ordination services at Southgate, Currytown, and Trinity; participated in pastor ordination services for Tim Robbins at Coggins Memorial and Scott Forrest at Reeds and Dave Williams at North Lexington. I also assisted in seven funeral services.

I was involved in an associational evangelism rally at Reidsville in the Dan Valley Association; Sunday School Task Force and Directors of Missions meetings at Caraway; World Missions Conference in the Wilmington Association; Inter-faith Witness Seminar at Caraway; Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest; Regional Brotherhood Planning Meeting in Greensboro; Directors of Missions Conference at Wingate; ACTS Awareness Alert Meeting in Greensboro; area conference at Mills Home; Music Leadership Conference in Central Association; and Two R.A. Days at Wake Forest University. I preached in revival services at Southgate, and Bethany Baptist Church in Kenly, North Carolina. I also attended the Evangelism Conference and the State Baptist Convention in Greensboro, the State Vacation Bible School Clinic in Concord; and attended the Southern Baptist Convention in New Orleans.

I have given assistance to the associational Program Committee, Nominating Committee, and Finance Committee, and the People Search Survey in the Arcadia Community. The response to the new church in St. Albans, West Virginia, has been tremendous. Our churches have given almost $7,000 in financial assistance. We have sent two work crews, youth groups from Abbotts Creek and Wallburg, a paint crew from Wallburg; and Welcome First, has made a commitment to purchase and install the heating unit.

We need to give attention in the coming year to Sunday School Enlargement, Seminary Extension, and the starting of new churches and units.

Respectfully submitted,
Leonard Rollins

EVANGELISM REPORT

The "Great Commission" is a mandate, not an option for Christians. Pastors and churches must begin to take "Bold Mission Thrust" seriously if we are to see our nation and world evangelized by the year 2000. "Bold Mission Thrust" must become more than a denominational slogan and become the heart beat of each church if our bold goal is to be achieved.

Brethren, let us not get so wrapped up with the world's conditions that we forget the Lord's Commission. God help us to be about our Father's business which is bringing men and women, boys and girls to a saving faith in Jesus Christ.

Reports are still coming on the "Here's Hope" Joint Evangelistic Crusade held in March and April, 1982. Interpretation Meetings were held across the state to suggest plans and basic thrusts for the Joint Crusade Effort, sponsored jointly by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist State Convention. Churches conducted "People Search" and Lay Evangelism Schools, followed by local revivals. Figures to date indicate 2,932 professions and 34,266 rededications, with only 36 of our 80 associations being complete in their reporting.

"Here's Hope North Carolina" was the theme for the 36th annual Statewide Evangelism Conference, February 8-9, 1982, in Greensboro, with 2500 people in attendance; the best consistant attendance in recent years.

This was the year the Youth Evangelism Conference expanded to three Asheville, Greensboro, and Fayetteville. These were tremendously successful meetings, with the largest number of youth ever attending.

As we move toward the time when Growing an Evangelistic Church will be our major planning tool and CWT will be the new witness training method, some pilot churches have started the programs. The Key Leadership meeting in Ridgecrest introduced the associational evangelism chairmen to Growing Evangelistic Churches in North Carolina.

The Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held in Charlotte's Ovens Auditorium during February 7-8, 1983, with Dr. Wayne Ward leading Bible Study; Dr. Landrum Leavell, Dr. Bo Baker, Dr. Joe Ford preaching, and Dick Baker leading the music.

On February 1, 1982, J. W. Hutchens, Jr., became the Director of the Division of Evangelism for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Dennis E. Kenney
Director of Evangelism

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT 1982

Our Bold Mission Thrust goal for Sunday School is 8.5 by '85. To reach this goal we are going to have to work hard and major on out reach. Visitation has proven to be the main key in Sunday School growth.

Another factor that needs attention is the number of names dropped from our rolls each year. Throughout the Southern Baptist Convention in 1980, about 700,000 names were dropped from our Sunday School rolls for various reasons. In North Carolina our Sunday School Department reported 45,499 new members but with an over all loss of 7,624 members which means we lost over 53,000 members in 1980 for various reasons. An important factor to keep in mind is a large number of these were simply dropped from our rolls without any real justification in doing so. We need to keep reminding our Sunday School secretaries that the three reasons for removing a name from our rolls are: when that member joins another church; when they move too far to return each Sunday; or, when they pass on into eternity. Some of our best prospects are those who have shown some interest in our Sunday School.

New material continues to be made available for us. This year we have the "How To" books on training workers, setting up a visitation program and starting a weekly workers meeting, new Bible Story time material for children ages birth to five, and a new publication describing the duties of Sunday School general officers. We can appreciate the work our Sunday School board is doing as they make a strong effort to provide materials to meet our needs.

Nothing less than our best effort should be given to the Lord's work.

Respectfully submitted,
Hugh Biggers

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Dedicated WMU Officers who had attended a two part training workshop led the 1981-82 training session for church WMU Leaders from 22 churches to begin a year of joyous service in Liberty Associational WMU.

Highlights of the year are: Missions Friends Watermelon Feast, Baptist Woman/BYW Retreat at Caraway in November, Acteens Sleep-over at Cedar Lodge in March, "Women Praying For Revival Gathering" in April at Rich Fork, GA Day Camp at Camp Mundo Vista in May.

The project to provide drapes for our home for Director of Missions is making progress with more than one-third of funds needed already contributed.

The Annual WMU meeting held at Mills Home Church was a blessed time with Mrs. Saralynn Collins, Faye Fincannon and Tom and Crystal Capps and the Mills Home Children's group providing inspiration and information. It was a proud moment when the Associational Flag designed and made by Mrs. E. B. Elmore was displayed.

A special time was recognition of those WMU organizations receiving recognition on the Achievement Guide - Jersey, Wallburg, Abbott's Creek, Southside, Summerville, Welcome, First and New Friendship. It's no small thing that the Associational WMU was recognized as Distinguished at the State Annual WMU Session in March.

We rejoice that several of the churches held their own prayer Retreats this year. Good preparation for our new three year cycle with churches on "Growing" "Giving" "Going" and our efforts to Know the Lordship of Christ, to Growing the Lordship of Christ and to Show the Lordship of Christ in a ministry of Seeking, Training and Caring.

Bessie Blackwell

HISTORIAN'S REPORT
LIBERTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
September 29, 1982

This year as we are observng the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the Liberty Baptist Association, our minds are focused on events of the past.

The historian's report includes a brief history of the churches hosting the annual session of the association.

We express appreciation to the pastors and to the members of these churches for providing information.

ABBOTTS CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

(The history of Abbotts Creek Baptist Church was presented in 1977 when the annual session of Liberty Association met with the church. This year we are presenting an update to the history.)

In 1978, Abbotts Creek Church voted to give full support to The Bold Mission Thrust; the first full time Music and Youth Director was elected; the sanctuary was air conditioned and a ball field was constructed. It was also in 1978 that the church paid travel expense for Mrs. Bonnie Wiggs, missionary to Kores, to come to the States to be with her daughter when she enrolled as a student at Wake Forst University.

During the year of 1979, the church voted to contribute $2,000.00 toward the support of Carson and Louann Brisson, a missionary couple in Israel. This has been continued since that time. In addition to this support, the church is presently contributing $2,000.00 toward the support of Charles and Bonnie Wiggs in Korea, and $600.00 annually to help with the education of the Wiggs children. In 1980, an additional $2,000.00 was given to the Wiggs family to enable Mrs. Wiggs to complete her college education while they were in the States.

As Abbotts Creek entered its one hundred and fiftieth year, special services were held throughout the year with outstanding speakers for the occasion. Some of those who shared in the services were: Mrs. Elizabeth Hayworth McClaren, a former member who left to go into full time church vocation and is presently serving in the Washington, D.C. area; Dr. Keith Parks, Executive Director of the Foreign Mission Board and Dr. Cecil Ray, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention.

On July 4, 1982, the date of the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the church, morning and afternoon services were held with a message by Dr. Ray and the presentation of a drama recalling events that led to the founding of Abbotts Creek Baptist Church on July 4, 1832. The drama was written by the pastor, Rev. Roy Cantrell.

The church has recently established a scholarship fund for students who are preparing for church related vocations. At the present time there are five of these students.

During the present year, 1982, the church has been very actively involved in missions. Two members have worked on mission projects in Bermuda and Barbados. The Baptist Men of the church have been working with others from Liberty Baptist Association on the St. Albans Chapel project near Charleston, West Virginia. Two adult work crews went at different times to help with this project. Later a group of young people went to assist in canvassing. The church has also helped financially in this project. In October of this year, the church will be involved in Missionary Evangelism in Chile as Rev. Cantrell will go to help in this mission project.

Miss Pearl Hayworth, Church Clerk, makes the following statement: "we look into the future with great hopes and expectations as we continue to serve in a changing community and world. May we be led by His Spirit as were those thirteen members who formed us into a church one hundred and fifty years ago."

At this time the church, with 596 members, continues to reach out under the able leadership of Rev. Roy Cantrell, who began his ministry October 6, 1974.

CENTER HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Center Hill Baptist Church is one of the many daughters of Jersey Baptist Church. It was established as a direct result of a revival held in the fall of 1907 at the Center Hill Schoolhouse by Rev. S. D. Swaim, who was then pastor of Jersey. He was assisted by Rev. E. L. Weston of Cooleemee. At the close of the revival on October 18, 1907, a council met for the purpose of organizing the Center Hill Baptist Church which was named in honor of the school which was located a short distance from where the church now stands.

Those serving on the council were Rev. S. D. Swaim, Rev. E. L. Weston and the following deacons from Jersey: Z. T. Sharpe, J. B. Palmer, C. S. Palmer, Lindsay Kepley, and A. L. Yarbrough; also A. A. Yarbrough from the First Baptist Church in Lexington.

Among the charter members were: J. L. Bowers, Sarah Bowers, Florence Bowers, Belle Brown, Rohama Gallimore, Marcellus Gallimore, Bettie May Gallimore, Ada Hartley, Donnie Hartley, D. O. Jarratt, E. D. Jarratt, Lowina Jarratt, Annie B. Jarratt, A. V. Miller, Sallie Miller, Lillie Miller, Carrie Miller, A. L. Miller, C. A. Owen, Carrie Owen, Annie Owen, Emma Owen, Eugene Owen, Alice Owen, Beulah Owen, Mattie Owen, John Owen, Margaret Owen, Pearl Palmer, Alice Palmer, J. E. Palmer, J. V. Palmer, Charles McCarn, C. J. Rickard, Bettie Rickard, J. E. Rickard, T. M. Sheets, Eliza Sheets, Joyce Swing, and Martha Staley.

In this same meeting, the following were appointed as a building committee: T. M. Sheets, A. V. Miller and Marcellus Gallimore. This committee began action immediately and Marcellus Gallimore gave one acre of land and another acre was purchased from him for $16.00.

The members gave lumber, money and free labor for the building. J. L. Bowers and Center Hill Baptist Church History. Burl Bowers hauled the first load of lumber to the site. Shortly after this, Lee Bowers, young son of Burl Bowers died. He was buried in a grove of pines, later to become the church's cemetery. The first sill for the foundation was laid April 14, 1908, by Frank Paterson and Burl Bowers. The people gave freely and around $500.00 was borrowed to complete the building. The congregation met in the schoolhouse for about a year until the building was completed. In 1908, the associational minutes show a membership of sixty-four. Amanda Sharpe donated the church bell which is still in use. The pews were made from lumber donated by the members. The lumber was hauled by horse and wagon to High Point where the pews were made; they were then hauled by horse and wagon back to the church. Ed Leonard, a singing teacher, helped the church to secure its first organ which was a pump organ with foot pedals.

The original building was a white frame structure with seating capacity of around three hundred. It was heated with two cast iron stoves and lighting was furnished by four kerosene lamps suspended from the ceiling.

The building was dedicated November 7, 1908, only thirteen months after the church was organized. The sermon was preached by Rev. E. L. Weston. At this service, $125.00 was raised on the building indebtedness. On this same day the church organized its first Sunday School with C. A. Owen as superintendent and T. M. Sheets as secretary. The first deacons were: A. V. Miller, C. A. Owen and J. L. Bowers. The first pastor was Rev. S. D. Swaim.

Rev. Swaim resigned as pastor July2, 1910, and Rev. Henry Sheets was called. At that time the church was receiving from the State Board $45.00 per year toward the pastor's salary. By the end of 1915, the church was self supporting and paying the pastor $100.00 per year. At this time the church assessed monthly dues against those who did not voluntarily contribute. The assessment was 15¢ for heads of families, 10¢ for boys and 5¢ for girls.

Rev. Henry Sheets resigned as pastor November 19, 1916, and Rev. B. C. Ingram was called. In April of 1918, Rev. Forrest Feezor was called to replace Rev. Ingram for the summer. Rev. J. F. Gillespe was called in 1919 and served until May, 1920, when Rev. J. L. Shinn became pastor with a salary of $250.00 per year. Rev. W. L. Barrs was called in March, 1923. H resigned January 24, 1926, and was replaced by Rev. H. T. Penry.

In 1982, a Woman's Missionary Society was organized under the leadership of Mrs. R. B. Sheets with the aid of ladies from First Baptist Church of Lexington. There were fifteen members in the organization according to the 1928 associational minutes.

In 1929 and 1930, the building was brick veneered and eight class rooms and some basement rooms were added. Rev. G. A. Martin was pastor and served until 1934. Rev. E. C. Roach served from 1934 to 1937. Rev. C. D. Barringer was pastor from 1937 to 1939.

In 1940 the sanctuary was renovated and a heating system was installed. Rev. D. W. Digh was then pastor and served until 1944. In 1942 the basement was completed and two more class rooms were added. Rev. J. W. Dickens was pastor from 1944 to 1952.

In 1945 the church built an eight room parsonage on lots donated to the church by R. B. Sheets. This property is located about one quarter of a mile north of the church.

On January 11, 1953, under the leadership of Rev. Charles Young, the church began full time services, with morning and evening services each Sunday. About this time a Brotherhood was organized with Wade Jarratt as president. In October, 1954, the church licensed Tommie Honbarier to preach.

In June of 1955, the church adopted plans for a new educational building which was to be brick veneered, two story building of twenty-eight rooms. The building was completed in 1957. The building committee was composed of Joe Hunt, Chairman, Bill Sheets, Frank Forshee, Wade Homes and Mrs. Hobart Wilson.

In 1959, The Currytown Mission was started by the church in a vacant building in the Currytown Community on Highway 150, with Rev. Tommie Honbarier as its pastor. In 1964, the Mission was organized into the Currytown Baptist Church.

Rev. J. O. Walton served as interim pastor of the Center Hill congregation from 1968 to May 1969. On June 1, 1969, Rev. Lamar Moore, Jr. came to the church and is still serving as its pastor. Under his leadership a fellowship hall was built in 1970.

In August of 1974, the old church building was torn down to make way for a new sanctuary to be erected on the site of the original building. Serving on the building committee were: Gerald Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Ray Lumsden, Mrs. Fred Hunt, Joe Hunt, M. L. Kearns, John Lopp, Jr., Arthur Mabry, Lee Wrenn and the pastor, Rev. Lamar Moore. On August 10, 1975, the first morning worship service was held in the new sanctuary. The present indebtedness on the sanctuary is approximately $14,000.00.

In the fall of 1981, a new heating and air conditioning system was installed in the educational building and new carpet was installed.

The church today is in a very progressive area surrounded with new housing developments. What a challenge for the future!

STONER'S GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

During the years of 1898 and 1899, Elders J. M Bennett, John R. Miller and W. H. Rich preached as they had opportunity at Fairmont schoolhouse. This was established as an arm of Holloways Baptist Church as there were several members of Holloways Church living in the community and these services were held for their convenience. In 1900, Elder Jeff Lanning was engaged to preach regularly once a month.

As interest grew in this effort, Elders Jeff Lanning, John A. Summey and W. H. Rich were invited to form a presbytery, and on March 6, 1900, the church was constituted. At that time three deacons were elected and ordained and the church extended a call to Elder Jeff Lanning to become its first pastor. The following night there was a called conference and a building committee was appointed. Work began immediately on a building and the first service was held in the new building in May of 1901.

There were twenty charter members as follows: Mr. and Mrs. John H. Warfford, Mr. and Mrs. James Emmanuel Warfford, Thomas Ivey Warfford, Sallie M. Warfford, Mrs. John E. Wrenn, Mrs. Fannie Stoner, W. F. Stoner, O. L. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lookabill, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lomax, L. A. Vuncannon, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Warfford, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Roach and Mrs. Rachel Shoaf.

Mrs. Fannie Stoner offered as a gift a tract of land consisting of several acres, including the present site. As a tribute to Mrs. Stoner, the church was named Stoner's Grove Baptist Church.

Pastors serving the church are as follows: Rev. Jeff Lanning (1900-1909), Rev. Henry Sheets (1909-1910), Rev. J. T. Jenkins (1910-1912), Rev. J. F. Fletcher (1912-1916), Rev. Forrest Feezor (1916-1917), Rev. L. M. Holloway (1918-1920), Rev. J. L. Shinn (1920-1923), Rev. H. T. Penry (1923-1937), Rev. H. M. Stroupe (1937-1942), Rev. C. C. Edinger (1943-1952), Rev. Dean Berger (1952-1953) and Rev. R. N. Hardin (1954-1958). These served on part time basis.

In 1958, the church decided to go full time and called Rev. Richard J. McQueen to be its first full time pastor. He served from December, 1958, until December, 1963. Rev. T. C. Williams, Jr. was called some months later and began his work with the church in April of 1964 and served until 1967. Rev. Frank Dawkins was called that year and served until July 31, 1972. Rev. John L. Hawkins was called September 17, 1972, and served until March of 1975. The present pastor, Rev. Franklin Myers, was extended a call September 14, 1975, and came to the field November 2nd of that year.

The church has ordained five men to the ministry. They are; Cicero Roach in 1918; his brother, Joe Roach in 1920; Ronald Wall in 1924; Walter Warfford in 1929; and H. T. Penry, Jr., in 1955.

In the fall of 1977, the church elected a Planning Committee for a new educational building. In April, 1978, plans were completed and a building committee was elected. Construction began soon thereafter and on Sunday, September 24, 1978, the cornerstone was laid and the new building was dedicated. Dr. Forrest Feezor was guest speaker for these services.

Stoner's Grove Baptist Church realizes the challenge of the future is great and they accept the challenge by praying and planning for the future.

Out church records are invaluable and should be preserved for future generations. Mr. John R. Woodard, Director of the Baptist Historical Collection, Wake Forest University, is urging all churches to have records microfilmed. This is a free service. For further information, please contact Mr. Woodard or your associational historian.

Respectfully submitted,

YOUTH AND CAMPUS MINISTRY REPORT

Last January through the Division of Youth and Campus Ministry of our State Convention a ministry to students was begun on the campus of Davidson County Community College. The work is being carried out by volunteers. We have made contact with some 200 students and are reaching 25 at the present time through a weekly fellowship meeting.

I share this with the Association as a matter of information, trusting that you will support us with your prayers and that you will spread the word to college students in your church and community, that there is a Christian witness on your campus. Your church may also want to help us by sharing resources through your college department or your missions organizations. I am presently the volunteer director for this group and may be contacted through the Park Place Baptist Church in Thomasville.

DEVOTIONAL MESSAGES GIVEN AT THE 150th ANNIVERSARY SESSIONS

DEVOTIONAL: TUESDAY AFTERNOON
By the Reverend John Pace

"Hitherto Hath the Lord Helped Us." I Samuel 7:12

The people of God, under the leadership of the priest Eli and his two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, had wandered away from God and were being punished by constantly being under attack by their Caananite neighbors, the Philistines. The sons of Eli, because of their wickedness, were not fit to serve as the priests of the most high God, so God was raising up another to take their place. This one was Samuel - and the story of his life is told in the two books of Samuel in the Old Testament.

As a child, Samuel was ministering to the Lord under the leadership of Eli the priest and he is called of God to assume the leadership of the nation of Israel upon the tragic death of Eli and his sons. For, in the course of the battle against the Philestines, the Ark of the Covenant, which was a symbol of Gods presence to His people, was captured by the Philistines, and they carried it away as a part of the spoils of war. But Gods hand was heavy upon this people and they voluntarily returned the Ark of the Covenant to Israel. Samuel gathered all of the people together for a time of prayer and worship and confession. While they were at Mizpah for their meeting, the Philistines tried once more to destroy the Israelites but God again delivers them by the mighty thunder that threw the Philistines into confusion, and Israel, by Gods help, won the battle.

Here is the point at which Samuel took a stone and set up a memorial, and here we read from I Samuel 7:12, "Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

This was a thankful memorial of victory, both for the glory and God and as an encouragement to the nation of Israel. This stone was called Ebenezer - literally meaning "the Stone of Help." A stone to remind them of the fact that it was God who won the battle for them as well as the fact that Gods help for the future is contingent upon their continued faithfulness to them.

"Hitherto Hath the Lord Helped Us"!

Ebenezer - Literally - "the stone of help." This was a time of celebration, a time of remembering, a time of rejoicing, a time of victory, a time of restoration, a time for saying to themselves - up to this point God hath helped us and at this point in time we not only celebrate His help but we set up a stone of memory so that men for ages to come shall know of our victory and our rejoicing this day and of the one who is represented by this stone.

The songwriter, Robert Robinson, wrote a song entitled, "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing," in which he uses, very effectively, this word and this idea of verse 2.

"Here I raise mine Ebenezer;
Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope by thy good pleasure
Safely to arrive at home:
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood."

Liberty Baptist Association comes today to a time of memorial of memory, of victory, of celebration, of rejoicing - a time for saying, "Up to this point God has helped us, and at this point in history we not only celebrate what He has done for us in the past, but we mark a time - we 'set up a Stone of help", he in 1982 that men of all ages to come may know of this moment and this place, and shall know of our day of rejoicing and our day of memorial.

We meet here today at Abbotts Creek Church, one of the original seven churches to establish the Liberty Baptist Association, in our 150th Anniversary Session. Thus, this Association and its programs, and its leadership and its churches are Stones of help and it is by the help of Almighty God that we have come this far. Over the years there have been many people, many churches, many issues and many battles that have passed before the presiding officers of this Association but our very existance has been a stone of help in our good times as well as in our bad times.

To truly appreciate what we have today we must go back and examine some of the 'stones of help' that have been set up on the way before us. We must understand that our forefathers were breaking new trails and traveling in largely uncharted territory, both geographically and spiritually, for only a relatively short time had there been Associations and especially in the very sparsely settled areas of North Carolina.

First, in our area, there was the Sandy Creek Association. It was begun at Sandy Creek Church in Randolph County, on June 2, 1958. In 1816 this Association was divided creating, in addition, the Pee Dee Association. In 1825, a new group was formed from churches from the Sandy Creek Association and from the Pee Dee Association. This group met at Liberty Meeting House in Davidson County, on November 12, 1825, and was called the Abbotts Creek Union Association. All of these divisions, thus far, seemed to have come about peaceably and from a desire to better facilitate the work of the Lord through the churches.

The next division comes on September 24, 1832, in a session of the Abbotts Creek Association, held at Mt. Tabor church in Randolph County. At this time the Liberty Baptist Association was formed out of churches or parts of churches that were disowned by the majority of the members of the Abbotts Creek Association. The dispute was over support of the Baptist State Convention and its Mission causes, support of the Sabbath School (our Sunday School) and Missionary and Bible Societies. Those excluded were just too friendly with missions to suit the majority.

When the majority expressed a hope that "we would retire and trouble them no more," the minority left the session of the Abbotts Creek Association, went out and assembled in a tent on the grounds, and there organized the Liberty Baptist Association on September 24, 1821. Letters were received from seven churches, representing a total of 159 members who gave contributions totaling $5.40 toward the work of the new association. The seven churches were; Lick Creek, Jersey Settlement, Abbotts Creek, Tom's Creek, Jamestown, Liberty and Holloway's.

At the organizational meeting a moderator, William Burch, and clerk, Peter Owen, were elected, and a committee was formed to write for the records the reasons for the split in the Abbotts Creek Association. This was printed in the 1834 minutes of the new association. Along with the other necessary business, the next meeting of the Liberty Association was planned for November 17, 18 and 19 of the same year, 1832, at the Jamestown church. This would have been the first full fledged meeting and Annual Session of the Liberty Baptist Association.

At this first Annual Session, the opening message was by Elder George W. Purifoy, a corresponding messenger from the Raleigh Assn., from the text "and if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear," I Peter 4:18. This would have been on Saturday. Then on Sunday, three sermons were heard by "a large and attentive congregation." Elder George W. Punifoy preached from John 5:28-29; Paul Phifer on Proverbs 14:34 and Jesse Sowell from Ester 8:6.

Several significant points must be made about this First Annual Session, which came just two months after the organizational meeting. By this time there were still just 7 churches, they now numbered 188 members, an increase of 29 in the two month period. They reported 23 baptisms and this time a contribution of $8.60 toward the work of the Association. (Included in this total were two 25¢ gifts from people described as "friends of Zion.")

The original Constitution and Rules of Decorum were adopted at this session. These are printed in the minutes of the Association for 1832. One very interesting aspect of the record of this meeting was that while all of the churches combined had only 188 members, the group voted to have 400 copies of the minutes printed and distributed to the churches.

The second session was appointed to be held with the Holloway's Meeting House on November 9-11, 1833.

At this 1833 session, two new churches presented themselves for membership in the Association bringing our total to 9 churches. Big Creek in Montgomery County and New Friendship in Stokes County. They were accepted.

By this time, in one year the number of members had grown from 188 to 270 and gifts to the Association wa $9.32.

After 10 years, in 1842, the number of churches had grown to 12 with a total membership of 555, and contributions to the association were $13.65 3/4.

Look at the continuous pattern of growth at ten year intervals.

1852	13	churches	809	members (619 whites, 192 blacks)
1862	14	churches	938	members
1872	16	churches	1,302	members
1882	18	churches	1,413	members
1892	20	churches	2,123	members
1902	27	churches	2,316	members
1912	23	churches	2,560	members
1922	26	churches	4,067	members
1932	26	churches	6,237	members
1942	30	churches	7,278	members
1952	37	churches	10,512	members
1962	44	churches	12,108	members
1972	43	churches	14,500	members
1982	43	churches	16,432	members

Or you might look at it this way - we started in 1832 with 188 members.

It took 35 years to exceed 1,000 members in 1867
It took 22 years to exceed 2,000 members in 1889
It took 24 years to exceed 3,000 members in 1913
It took 8 years to exceed 4,000 members in 1921
It took 7 years to exceed 5,000 members in 1928
It took 3 years to exceed 6,000 members in 1931
It took 10 years to exceed 7,000 members in 1941
It took 6 year to exceed 8,000 members in 1947
It took 3 years to exceed 9,000 members in 1950
It took 1 year to exceed 10,000 members in 1951
It took 3 years to exceed 11,000 members in 1954
It took 6 years to exceed 12,000 members in 1960
It took 5 years to exceed 13,000 members in 1965
It took 4 years to exceed 14,000 members in 1969
It took 5 years to exceed 15,000 members in 1974
It took 3 years to exceed 16,000 members in 1977
We have been working 5 years toward 17,000.

Thus, here is a brief history telling of the story of our beginning. There are many more interesting and informative facts available if time permitted, which it does not. Let me just share with you the sources of this information, that you may dig deeper into on your own.

1. The minutes of our meetings of the Liberty Baptist Association. (A complete set is available through the Baptist Historical Collection at Wake Forest University Library.)

2. Of special interest would be the 1932 minutes (100th Annual Session) and the historical sketch by Sam Smith for the historical committee.

3. History of Liberty Baptist Association from its organization in 1832 to 1907, by Elder Henry Sheets.

4. Elder Henry Sheets Scrapbook, also at Wake Forest Library in the Baptist Historical Collection.

We learn a lot by observing our beginnings, and our travels, what we have said and what we have done, by our successes and our failures. We will never know these things until we study our past. I challenge you today to use these available resources to make such s study. - Prayer -

DEVOTIONAL: TUESDAY EVENING - By the Reverend John Pace

On this, our 150th Anniversary Session of the Liberty Baptist Association, we are trying to, not only recognize our past, but to try to feel the past and to catch something of the Spirit of those persons who are our past. What better way to do this than to read a part of the circular letter that was attached to the 1833 minutes, and through this to get some feeling for their theology as well as their current situation.

CIRCULAR LETTER

"The Ministers and Messengers composing the Liberty Baptist Association to the churches they represent send greetings:

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN IN THE LORD: - We at this time address you in our associated capacity, and call your attention to the importance of searching the word of God, which he says shall not return to him void, but shall accomplish that which he please and prosper in the things whereto he sent it; we ought therefore to search the scriptures with a proper regard to their divine origin, with a deep impression upon our minds that they are the words of truth, and that God is speaking to us. Could we realize this, with what solemnity would we proceed when approaching him; and like David, hear what God the Lord would speak, with a desire to receive as truth whatever is contained therein, and a fixed resolution to practice as duty whatever is commanded, that we may be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving of ourselves; for what doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith and have not works, can faith save him without works?

We are told to fight the good faith, to war a good warfare, to put on the whole armor of God, for we contend not against flesh and blood alone, but against spiritual wickedness and against the fiery darts of satan.

Now how this war is to be maintained, and subjects prepared for the service, different opinions are prevalent. Some seem to think, that almost all the movements on the part of men for the advancement of the Redeemer's Kingdom to enlist soldiers to carry on this war, and also to encourage and sustain them already engaged, is fraught with presumpion, and implies that God can not do his own work without our help, and that we want to take the work out of His hands; and that when he sees fit, he will accomplish his purposes without our meddling interference. This argument we dislike; for if, indeed, a man have faith, without works his faith is dead.

And how can we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein; our duty is not to pass the time of this present life unfruitfully and idly, walking after the enchantments of the world and flesh, whereby we know that we do serve the world and not God; for that faith which bringeth forth, without repentance, either evil works or no good works, is not a pure and lively faith, but a dead faith, as saint James calls it; for even the devils know and believe, that Christ Jesus is the Son of the living God; and yet, with all this faith, they be but devils, remaining still in their miserable estate, lacking that true Christian faith which sweetly works by love, and purifies the heart; for saving faith is not only to believe the holy scriptures, but also to have a trust and confidence in God's promises, whereof doth follow a loving heart, willing to obey his commandments. In this place we will offer a few thoughts on the use of means. Regeneration is frequently represented in Scripture as being effected by means; men are said to be born again by the work of God. 1st Peter, 1st 23d, to be begotten by the word of truth, James 1:18; and Paul says to the Corinthians, in Christ Jesus have I begotten you through the gospel. Some may ask, how is this to be reconciled with making the quickening of sinners properly a supernatural work?

We would answer, almost all the supernatural works recorded in the Scriptures are represented as wrought by means as much as regeneration is. The Red Sea was divided by Moses' rod, and the river of Jordan by Elijah's mantle. It was by smiting the rock in the wilderness that the waters were made to flow out of it like a river. Moses brought forth this water as much as Paul regenerated the Corinthians. It was by throwing a stick into the river that the young man's axe was made to swim, and by washing seven times in Jordan that Naaman was healed of leprosy. It was by prophesying over a valley of dry bones, as represented in the vision of Ezekiel, and calling to the four winds to breathe upon them, that they were converted into a living army.

It was with clay, made of dirt and spittle, that our Saviour opened the eyes of one that was born blind; and by calling with a loud voice that Lazarus was made to hear and come out of his grave, after he had been dead four days. Therefore, let us consider it a matter of great importance to search the Scriptures, in order to learn the will of our heavenly Father respecting us; let us strive to be practical Christians, found walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

Brethren - In the ministry study to show yourselves approved unto God; give yourselves to reading, meditation and prayer; preach not yourselves but Christ Jesus the Lord.

Christians. - In your several stations be careful to discharge the duties annexed to your respective places in the church. Heads of families, be particular to set good examples before them, and instruct them in the fear of God; read the Scriptures to them, and pray with and for them; for if these things be in you and abound they make you that you shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; fear God, and keep His commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil.

Eli Carroll, Moderator.
Peter Owen, Clerk.

In the earlier presentation I shared with you the reasons for the split in the Abbotts Creek Association and the reasons that the Liberty Association was formed. These were:

1. Support of the Baptist State Convention
2. Support of Foreign Missions in Burna
3. Aiding in the education of ministers
4. Support for Sabbath Schools and Missionary Societies and Bible Societies.

Now, if these issues were important enough to cause men to take such a stand as did our forefathers, what has been done since that time to justify their taking such a stand?

The first year of our Association, these seven churches contributed $27.44 to Foreign Missions, $13.64 to Education and $42.09 to what is called Home Missions, but which probably referred to State Missions as we had no Home Mission Board doing this kind of work at that time. Every session of the Association from that time until now has given reports on ever increasing amounts to be given to all mission efforts supported by our convention. From that time until 1925, with the establishing of the Cooperative Program, missions has been a prime topic of sermons, reports and special offerings in the churches as well as in the Associational meetings, with each cause attempting on its own to raise just as much money as they could from the churches and the Association.

How are we, the spiritual decendents of these earlier Baptists, doing with this matter of missions? Let me share these two statistics with you.

1. Since 1925, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association has a total of $4,470.464 through the Cooperative Program up through this year 1982. The total in 1925 was $3,139. It was 1966 before that total reached the $100,000 mark. This year, 1981-82, the total gifts from our churches to the Cooperative Program were $371,837.
2. Since 1925, these same churches have given in total mission gifts $8,824,651. This began with a total of $12,727 reported in 1925, and our total for this year is $632,353.

Now, there are many factors to be taken into consideration here, but I believe that Elder George W. Purifoy would stand and sing the Doxology if these figures could be shared with him today.

What about our support of the State Convention and its plans and purposes. I believe that this speaks for itself to any thinking person with an open mind. It has been very constructive to both the Association and to the Convention.

Education of ministers and lay persons has always been a prime consideration for our churches. Study our support of seven Baptist Colleges and six Southern Baptist Seminaries. We stand tall within our Convention on this subject.

What about Sabbath Schools? An excellent discussion of this is given in Elder Sheets' History of the Liberty Baptist Association, Beginning on page 29. I encourage you to read it if this book is available to you.

Remember now, one of the reasons Liberty Association was begun, was because of their stand in favor of Sabbath Schools. But from our organization until 1844, not a word is said in their minutes about Sunday Schools. In 1845 there is this note. "We are pained to say, there is not, to our knowledge, a single Sabbath School within the limits of our Association." In 1850 the following report was given by the Sabbath School Committee.

"Your Bible, Sabbath School and Publication Society Committee feel it is their duty to report in favor of the adoption of the most efficient means of operation. The Bible lies in our houses unused and unstudied by many. How shall this evil be corrected? Your Committee thinks Sabbath School is the most reliable source - in fact the only source. A man that can read can teach the Bible if the grace of God is in his heart. We want kind and affectionate teaching. Your committee would recommend that this subject be laid before our churches early next spring, both by the pastors of the churches and by the missionary and that Sabbath Schools be organized in every neighborhood.

"Your Committee most earnestly recommends the formation of a society by this Association that it may concentrate the efforts of the friends of Zion."

Immediately after the adjournment of the Association the members agreed to form a Bible and Publication Society, Auxiliary to the N. C. Baptist Publication and Sunday School Society. There follows the minutes of the organization.

In 1852 only school reported - at Reeds, with "upwards of 40 scholars."

In 1862, - Glad there is one well regulated school within our bounds.

By 1872, there were 5 schools reported with an attendance of 236 and an increased interest in the work. By 1891, a separate page is given in the minutes showing the work of Sunday School in the churches.

Such was the beginning Sunday School movement in our Association which now has grown so that today every church has Sunday School with an enrollment in 1982 of 9,132,

Another aspect of the growth of the Association that is of great interest even today is the number of Baptisms by the churches of the Association. In 1832, 23 baptisms were reported by 4 of the 7 churches. In 1834, there were 307 baptisms reported, 162 of them at Jersey. That means that there were more people baptised in the Associational year 1833-34 than there were church members in 1833. Check that with your current statistics.

In 1835, 114 were reported baptised, 63 of them at Jersey. In a two year period, Jersey Settlement Church baptised 226 souls, yet in 1832 they only had a total of 68 members. It seems that none of our churches have ever done this well again, although Jersey did baptize 79 in 1848 and 50 in 1859.

Another interesting statistic on baptism is noted for the year 1866, our 33rd Annual Session. The Association reported 136 baptisms for the year. As you study these statistics you notice that 106 of these baptisms were reported by 4 churches and the same man was pastor of all four of them. Elder J. A. Cornish baptised at Licks Creek 27, at Holloways 42, at Marion 11 and at Muddy Creek 26. He was certainly a busy man that year.

The best year for baptisms that the association has ever had was 1950 when 793 persons were baptised. In two other years there has been over 600 baptised - 691 in 1951 and 629 in 1954. The ten year period of 1950-59 was the best 10 year period that the Association has ever had with a total of 5,652 being baptised. Maybe we should go back and see what we were doing right during the time and start doing it over again.

In the entire 150 sessions of the Liberty Baptist Association, there has been reported a total of 33,989 baptisms. This total includes this years total of 386. There was one year, 1861, for which I was not able to determine the number of persons baptised. If you average this out over the 150 years, it turns out to be an average of 227 per year.

Someone asked if our Association has met every year since its establishment. The answer is no. In the collection of minutes at Wake Forest University there is a handwritten page for the year 1865. This page says: "The Civil War had just closed. The people were in such condition - many had been killed in the war - distress reigned on every hand and society was so disorganized that the session for 1865 was not held." It was signed by Henry Sheets.

Well, there must be a stopping place somewhere. We must leave out so many interesting things like WMU and Church Training and Baptist Men and Church Music, but I have tried to bring to you something out of our past and these are relatively new organizations.

Now, for just a moment, go back with me to where we began. I Samuel 7:12, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

You see, we had our beginnings taking a stand on the work of God, in favor of missions, and Sunday Schools, and of providing teaching for the education of ministers, and in support of cooperative efforts for winning our world for Christ. These all are important stones of help that served to guide our forefathers through the year of our formation. These are the rocks from which we have been hewn. We can then ill afford to change things now. These stones of our foundation have served to bring us thus far. Let's not tamper with them now. Let's keep on building on them and challenging the world about us with our convictions and our deeds. God has brought us this far. Lets keep setting up new stones of remembering for each new generation to see and to follow as we say anew with Samuel, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us," the Liberty Baptist Association.

DEVOTION WEDNESDAY MORNING
by the Reverend Leonard Rollins
II Corinthians 5:17 - 6:1

Liberty Association was organized in 1832 with 159 members. This year we report 43 churches and 16,432 church members. Two new churches have been organized in the last ten years.

In 1932 with 26 churches, we had 333 baptisms and 6,539 enrolled in Sunday School. This year we report 386 baptisms and 9, 132 enrolled in Sunday School.

In 1981-82 we met our associational budget, and every church made a contribution to that budget. We also gave $6,916.82 to the St. Albans Baptist Chapel in West Virginia. Two work crews and two youth groups have visited the site; a paint crew from Wallburg donated their time; and Welcome, First, is committed to the purchase and installation of the heating unit.

We have a beautiful association office and recently purchased video equipment to be used by our churches. The Liberty Baptist Secretaries, organized in March, continue to search for projects that would strengthen the work of the Director of Missions.

What of the future?

We need a new "conviction" that the wages of sin is death and that the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ. Surely this is going to be the age of Bold Mission Thrust in our association. "We then as workers together with him" (II Corinthians 6:1). We must see beyond our own person, our own family, our own churches, and recognize ourselves as part of the Kingdom of God. We must pool our resources and discover ways to communicate with those who are lost. We must continually ask the question, "How can we get to them?" There are some people in other churches with expertise that I do not have. If I can release myself enough to identify those other resources and to share mine, I can be a more effective Christian. A Christian's commitment to Christ as Saviour and Lord produces a commitment to other persons who are similarly committed.

We have got to start new churches and new units. The People/Organization Profile that we did reveal the Baptist potential of the unchurched in this county to be 7,966 persons. This is enough people to place 3,983 in existing churches and 3,983 in new units of work. Bold Mission Thrust - Phase II has as No. 1 Reaching People, and the two enphases are being placed on Sunday School Enlargement Campaigns and Starting New Units. The greatest need of churches in the Liberty Association is to have a compelling sense of mission. Too many congregations have forgotten why they exist and their objectives have become survival oriented. They do not expect to be used of God to accomplish his purpose or mission in the world. This is true notwithstanding their study, prayers, and gifts for world missions. They expect missions to be done by people they send and support.- but the mission of a church is its reason for being. It is in associations that churches confront the facts that they, more than anyone else in the world, have the responsibility under God to communicate his love to all the people of their area. It may be that the first Sunday of January, 2000 A.D., Baptists will have their greatest victory rally yet and say, "They didn't all respond, but we told the last one about Jesus yesterday."

We have got to "bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." (Galatians 6:2). In less than two years we have lost Joyce Moore, Winfrid Allison, Jimmie Edwards, Mrs. W. D. Williamson, and Becky Welborn. The association fosters a fellowship of encouragement, love, acceptance, and inspiration. An example of this is found in the ministers' wives organization, called "Pastors' Partners," which meets monthly. Unless the fellowship in the Christian assembly is far superior to that which can be found anywhere else in society, then the Christians can talk about the transforming love and power of Jesus until they are hoarse, but people are not going to listen very hard. William Morris says, "Fellowship in heaven, and lack of fellowship is hell; fellowship is life, lack of fellowship is death." By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." (John 13:35). The heaviest burden becomes supportable when shared with loving sympathy.

Constitution

(Adopted September 29, 1954 - Revised October 1, 1969 and October 1, 1975)

PREAMBLE

We, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, unite ourselves according to the plan and for the purpose and work of the New Testament churches in our world, and to this end to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention, according to the following Articles:

ARTICLE I—NAME

The name of this body shall be the Liberty Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership shall be composed of the Baptist churches now holding membership and any other Baptist churches which may be received into the Association according to the subsequent provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches or reject churches according to its Constitution and By-Laws. Member churches may also withdraw at their pleasure. Any church in the Association which fails to cooperate with the Association for a period of two consecutive years shall be contacted by a committee appointed by the Association, to ascertain the wishes and desires of the church relative to continuance in the Association.

A cooperating church is one which sends a report to the Annual Session, sends messengers to the Annual Session, and contributes to the financial program of the Association.

ARTICLE III—MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday in September.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided sufficient notice is given the member churches to permit them two Sundays between the call and the meeting.

Section 3. In emergencies, any change in the time and/or place of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV—COMPOSITION OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The official voting body shall be composed of messengers from the member churches as follows: Five messengers from each church for its first one hundred members or fraction thereof, one additional messenger for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof up to 1,000 members, and one additional messenger for each additional hundred members or major fraction above 1,000; all ordained ministers of member churches; and officers of the Association.

Section 2. The names of the messengers printed in the minutes shall include only those actually attending and registering at the Association from the number elected by the churches.

ARTICLE V—OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the Association shall be Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, and Historian.

Section 2. The election of the Clerk shall be the first item of business in the first session of the Association. He shall be elected for a one-year-term. Other officers shall be elected on the last day of the annual meeting for terms of one year each. They shall be contacted and nominated by the Committee on Nominations (By-Laws 8, Section 2, (6), which shall consider the duly elected heads of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union as the committee's nominees for election as the Association's Officers also.

Section 3. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Associational meeting at which elected and shall serve until the close of the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. Any person serving or having served two full annual terms as Moderator shall be ineligible for re-election to this office for a period of two full years.

ARTICLE VI—TRUSTEES AND THEIR ELECTION

There shall be three trustees of the Association, one preferably a lawyer, serving terms of six years each in a rotating system. Upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, one new trustee shall be elected at the annual meeting in each even year to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of one of the three; no trustee being eligible to suceed himself until after the lapse of two full years. The expiration date of each trustee shall appear by his name in the Associational minutes.

ARTICLE VII—THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Committee shall be composed of all associational officers, the Director of Associational Missions (ex officio), each active pastor, church treasurers, and one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the Association in its annual report. The officers of the Executive Committee shall be the Associational Moderator, Vice-Moderator, and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII—POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

This Association of Churches shall have no power to infringe upon the rights of usefulness of any church or churches. All churches of the Association remain independent and sovereign. Cooperating churches unite here only that they may more effectively promote Christ's cause throughout the world. The Association may advise or offer recommendations for their adoption and guidance, but these cannot be binding on the churches in any way. (This in not to be interpreted as in conflict with Article II, Section 2.)

ARTICLE IX—AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendments are presented in writing and read at one session, as due notice, to be acted upon at a subsequent session.

By-Laws

BY-LAW I—PARLIAMENTARY RULES

Where the Constitution and By-Laws and special orders of the Association do not prescribe otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order Revised shall be followed as the Association's rules for conducting its deliberative assemblies.

BY-LAW II—ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

For the purpose of determining the period of time to be covered by the Annual reports of the Associational officers and church letters to the Association, the Associational year shall begin September 1st and close August 31st.

BY-LAW III—NEW CHURCHES

Section 1. Any church seeking admission to the membership of the Association shall petition in writing the Executive Committee at least three months before the annual meeting of the Association, which petition shall be referred to the Missions Committee for its study of the petitioning church's covenant, articles of faith, history, practices, cooperative spirit, its relations to other churches of the Association and its willingness to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. The Missions Committee shall then report to the Association with a copy thereof submitted to the Associational Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the Association, its findings and recommendations for Associational action at the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Each church applying for membership in the Association, upon approval shall be received under the watch-care of the Association for a period of one year. Each church received under a watch-care relationship shall submit a quarterly report to the Mission Committee of the Association and also submit the annual Associational letter at the end of the year.

BY-LAW IV—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the body according to the Constitution and By-Laws, appoint the Committee on Nominations at the closing session, shall be chairman of the Executive Committee and be an ex-officio member of all other committees. As presiding officer he shall discharge such other duties as may be given him by the Association.

Section 2. The Vice-Moderator shall preside in the absence, or at the pleasure of the Moderator and shall be Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 3. The Clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least a month before the Association's annual meeting; distribute at the annual meeting mimeographed copies of the composite record of the member churches taken from their annual reports; make accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distribution to the member churches copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the annual meeting; keep in file and turn over to his successor the printed minutes and other records and documents of the Association; and shall be secretary of the Executive Committee and a member of the Missions Committee.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association; distribute the same upon instructions from the Association, its Executive Committee oras designated; render a mimeographed, itemized report of receipts and disbursements for distribution at the annual meeting of the Association; keep his books always in shape and available for examination of the Executive Committee or any member of the Association; shall be a member of the Executive Committee, and be a member of the Finance and Missions Committee.

Section 5. The Historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches, and shall make a written report to each annual meeting of the Association.

Section 6. The Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, and Church Music Director shall promote their work in keeping with Southern Baptist Standards for their respective organizations, make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association, and serve on the Missions Committee.

BY-LAW V—DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Section 1. The Associational shall, when possible and expedient, employ a Director of Associational Missions. His selection shall be upon recommendation of the Missions Committee and on vote by the Association at its annual meeting, or between the meetings of the Association, by its Executive Committee. He shall be a member of all committees and organizations of the Association in a serving and advisory capacity. The relationship between the Association and its Director of Associational Missions may be terminated by either party upon the giving of reasonable notice.

Section 2. The Director of Associational Missions shall, under the direction of the Missions Committee, promote the work of the Association and Denomination, cooperating with the churches, their pastors and officers,and associational committees and organizations. He shall make oral reports to the Missions and Executive Committees in their quarterly meetings. He shall also make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association.

Section 3. He may assist the Clerk, by mutual consent, in preparing the composite record of member churches taken from the annual reports, and in preparing the annual minutes of the Association.

BY-LAW VI—ANNUAL REPORTS

The persons to prepare reports for the annual meeting of the Association shall present the same in writing for inclusion in the printed Book of Reports and in the printed minutes upon adoption; these reports to be limited to 250 words each.

BY-LAW VII—TRUSTEES

The Trustee's duties shall be to hold title to the property for the Association and to handle the legal matters of the Association with the Association's foreknowledge and approval; and to comply with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Body, and with state laws as they affect the Association. The trustees shall be responsible for keeping the property in good state of repair at all times, but shall not exceed expenditures of more than $500.00 on any major item without approval of Association.

BY-LAW VIII—COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

(1) The duties of this Committee shall be to act for the Association in all matters of business and activities between annual meetings, to call the Association in special session when necessary, to fill any vacancies that may occur between annual meetings among the Associational officers, the Executive Committee or the Committee on Nominations. It may elect the Director of Associational Missions when a vacancy occurs in accordance with By-Laws V, Section 1. It shall present a written report to the Association in annual meeting for its approval.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly, the first meeting being as soon as possible after the annual meeting of the Association, on call of the Moderator of the Association (By-Law IV, Section 1), and the last meeting being as near as possible to the next annual meeting of the Association for approving its report to the annual meeting.

Section 2. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS:

The Committee shall seek to avoid duplications and to distribute as widely as possible the obligations and privileges of service called for in this section. The duties of this committee shall be:

(1) To contact and nominate to the next annual meeting of the Association, on the last day, the officers of the Association, and its standing committees, naming their chairman, (Missions, Program, Place and Preacher, Resolutions, Finance, Memorials, Ordination Examining Council, and Christian Life and Public Affairs) these committees serving for the year following their election.

(2) To nominate trustees according to Article VI of the Constitution.

(3) To nominate such other special committees as may be authorized unless otherwise provided.

(4) To nominate, on the last day of the annual meeting, the Persons to Prepare Reports for the next annual meeting of the Association following their election, on American Bible Society, Annuity Board, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Baptist Foundation, Baptist Homes for Aging, Baptist Hospital, Christian Education, Christian Literature, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and State Missions.

(5) To fill vacancies which may occur between annual meetings of the Association on Committees and among persons to prepare or bring annual reports which are nominated by this Committee on Nominations.

(6) This commmittee's nominations, however, shall not preclude other nominations from the floor.

Section 3. THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE:

(1) This Committee shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, Treasurer, Clerk, and also the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and four member churches to be elected by the Association at its annual meeting for one, two, three, and four years respectively on a rotating system. After their election one new member shall be elected each year to serve for a period of four years. It shall supervise and work with the Director of Associational Missions in promoting the work of the Association, and lead and assist in organizing new churches.

(2) It shall meet once a quarter to receive a report from the Director of Associational Missions and make helpful suggestions to him concerning his work.

(3) If advice is sought, it shall advise any group seeking to organize a new church, or seek to help any member church desiring assistance in its problems.

(4) It shall perform the duties prescribed for it in By-Law III and By-Law V, Secion 1.

Section 4. THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of three members and the Moderator, Clerk, Church Music Director, and host Pastors. It shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program at least ten days before the annual meeting. It shall, in the opening of the annual meeting of the Association, present the printed program for adoption and serve through the session when adjustments in the program become necessary.

Section 5. THE PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the Association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the annual sermon.

Section 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall draw up and present to the Association resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient. Also, all resolutions and recommendations for consideration presented at the annual meeting shall be referred to this committee.

Section 7. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of five members and the Treasurer. It shall study the Association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the Association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in the raising of the budget, audit the Treasurer's books at the close of the Associational year, inform member churches of their record of giving, and make a written report to the annual meeting.

Section 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS:

This Committee shall be composed of five members. It shall bring a suitable report at the annual meeting and shall lead in a memorial service in memory of those reported by the churches to have died since the last annual meeting.

Section 9. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of the Director of Associational Missions, who shall serve as chairman, the Moderator and Directors of Associational organizations. Its duties shall be to plan and correlate the activities of the Associational organizations.

Section 10. CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This Committee shall be composed of three members, whose duty it shall be to keep the Association informed of matters pertaining to civic righteous and public morals.

BY-LAW IX—AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the By-Laws may be made at any session of the annual meeting of the Association when presented in writing and approved by a majority of messengers present and voting.

Standing Resolutions

Ordination of New Ministers

It is strongly recommended as the position of this Association:

1. That, when a church desires to put forth a candidate for examination and approval for ordination to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, an Examining Council composed of a committee of five elected by the Association in Annual Meeting, plus the pastors and one layman from each cooperating church in the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association, be summoned by written invitation of at least one week in advance from the church nominating the candidate.

2. That the examination of the candidate be conducted by the Examining Council and that a report of its findings be given to the nominating church. If the report is favorable the nominating church will set the date of ordination and notify the member churches.

3. That we ordain only those who have received a definite call to become a pastor, an associate pastor, or an educational director of a Baptist church in regular standing in the Association or those who have felt a call to the mission field, the chaplaincy of our armed forces, or the chaplaincy of a public institution whose church shall have requested in writing his ordination before the call of the ordaining council shall be approved.

POLICIES FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MISSIONS

1. Definite sponsorship by an established church.
2. Sponsoring church to work in cooperation with Associational Missions Committee.
3. Sponsoring church to retain control of Mission until such time as the church and the Associational Missions Committee agree that the Mission is self-sufficient.
4. Sponsoring church to call Mission pastor and select all workers in the Mission.
5. Sponsoring church to encourage mission from the beginning to give a definite percentage of the offering plate dollar through the Cooperative Program and Associational Missions.

6. Sponsoring church should insist upon a full and well defined program of Southern Baptist Work in the Mission, using the Southern Baptist literature.

7. Sponsoring church to work with the Associational Missions Committee in properly locating the Mission.

8. Sponsoring church to work with the Mission in planning of new buildings, using the services of the Church Planning Department of the Baptist State Convention.

ORGANIZATION AND ADMISSION OF NEW CHURCHES

Recognizing the right of the Association to determine its own membership and being aware of the importance of the manner in which the churches are organized, we recommend that any group of individuals desiring to organize themselves into a new church with the purpose of seeking recognition of and fellowship and cooperation with the Association be requested to meet the following standards:

1. Notice shall be given to the Moderator of the desire to organize a church before any such organization takes place. The Moderator will then ask the Missions Committee to study and pass upon the need for and the practicability of such an organization.

2. That the location of said church shall be sufficiently removed so as not to interfere with the work or encroach upon the territory of the churches already affiliated with the Association. This will be determined by the Mission Committee.

3. Upon being approved by the Missions Committee the group will then request this committee to examine the church covenant, articles of faith, and constitution (if a constitution has been adopted) of the proposed church. Should the Committee approve the covenant, articles of faith, and constitution, the group will proceed at a later date to be constituted into a Baptist church of the same faith and order.

Proceedings

TUESDAY AFTERNOON — SEPTEMBER 27, 1983
New Friendship Baptist Church
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

1. The 151st Annual Session of the Liberty Baptist Association was called to order by the moderator, The Rev. Franklin Myers.

2. The singing was led by the associational Music Director, Mr. Al Martin. Mrs. Susan Kerr Thorpe played the piano and Mrs. Faye C. Reece played the organ. The hymns sung were, "God of Our Fathers" and "I Need Thee Every Hour."

3. The Rev. Leonard Rollins introduced the Rev. Luther Osment to lead a worship period at the beginning of each of the three sessions. Being an employee of the Baptists Children's Homes of North Carolina, his leadership furthered the emphasis upon the Children's Homes in this year's annual meeting.

4. The Rev. Osment spoke from Acts 2 on the subject, "Growing Churches and Reaching People."

5. Following a motion by the clerk, the body was constituted for worship and the transaction of business.

6. The chairman of the Program Committee, the Rev. Warren Kerr, made a motion that the printed program be adopted as the order of business. This was approved by voice vote.

7. The Rev. Carl Hemphill moved that Morris Hollifield be elected to serve another year as clerk. Following a second and an opportunity for other nominations, the clerk was elected by the body.

8. Mr. Rollins was recognized to introduce new pastors and staff members, and welcome them to the association.

9. The clerk was recognized to present the Executive Committee Report. This was adopted upon the completion of the report.

10. The associational treasurer, Mr. Dothan Reece, was called upon to present the annual financial report. Upon proper motion and second, this report was approved.

11. The Rev. Max Evington was introduced to present the report of the Finance Committee. He called attention to the printed proposed budget, and moved its adoption. After discussion, this was adopted.

12. The clerk was asked to present the Missions Committee Report which was approved.

13. The Rev. Morris Hollifield, who serves as the representative from the Liberty Association on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention, shared with the messengers that Dr. Cecil Ray had resigned as Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention that morning in a meeting of the General Board at Caraway. He is going to assume the responsibility of Director for the emphasis by Southern Baptist on Stewardship. It was noted that Dr. Roy Smith, Assistant Executive Secretary-Treasurer, was elected to serve as interim.

14. Mr. Al Martin was asked to lead a period of singing. The hymns used were "Blessed Assurance" and "Standing on the Promises."

15. The Rev. Warren Kerr, host pastor, was recognized to welcome the messengers. He gave instructions for the use of the building and plans for serving the evening meal.

16. The clerk brought a motion that would amend Bylaw VI to omit the book of reports from the printed minutes. Upon second and discussion by the Rev. Carl Hemphill, this was approved.

17. The Rev. George Williamson was recognized to speak to the body about the importance of Church Training.

18. The people who were to lead in worship were introduced by the moderator.

19. Mrs. Ray Landreth sang "See My Jesus" and "To God Be the Glory."

20. The Rev. Robert Floyd read scripture selections from Joshua 1:6-9, 4:21-24, and Matthew 16:13-18.

21. The annual message was brought by the Rev. Dearl Bunce. Upon conclusion of the message, he requested congregational singing.

22. The congregation stood and were led in singing "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" by Mr. Al Martin.

23. The Rev. Hugh Biggers led the prayer of thanksgiving for the meal which was to follow.

24. The moderator dismissed the congregation for supper.

TUESDAY EVENING

25. The moderator called the evening session to order with the explanation that the meeting was 15 minutes late because the evening meal had been delayed when the caterer was detoured by an accident.

26. The moderator announced that there were 285 persons present for the afternoon session. There were 228 registered messengers and 57 visitors.

27. The congregation sang "Crown Him with Many Crowns."

28. The Rev. Luther Osment read from the Gospel of Luke and spoke again on "Growing Churches and Reaching People."

29. The meeting was opened by the Moderator for miscellaneous business matters.

30. Mr. Tommy Capps announced the Fall Youth Roundup.

31. Mrs. Douglas Huff brought a report on the Campus Ministry at Davidson County Community College.

32. Special music was presented by a choir made up from the churches of the association. They sang three selections and there were eight churches represented in the choir.

33. The Director of Missions was recognized to bring his annual report. He presented his written report without reading it, and then used the time to award certificates to several churches for reaching particular goals in Bold Mission Thrust. The categories of achievement and the churches recognized were as follows:

34. Announcement was made that there were some extra copies of minutes from three previous years.

35. The congregation stood and sang, "Saviour, Like a Shepherd."

36. Special music was presented by the Adult CHoir from the New Friendship Baptist Church.

37. The Rev. Charles Tanner introduced Dr. Michael C. Blackwell, the recently elected President of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. He brough the message of the evening.

38. Dr. Blackwell read two passages of scripture (Isaiah 61:1-3, and I Peter 3:3-6) and preached on the work of Christians.

39. The moderator announced the next day's meeting to be held at the Wallburg Church.

40. Brother Byron Barker, pastor of the Rich Fork Church, led in the closing prayer and the congregation was dismissed.

41. The meeting was called to order by the moderator.

42. Mr. Tommy Capps led the congregation in singing "For the Beauty of the Earth" and "Blessed Redeemer."

43. The Rev. Luther Osment led the congregation in a period of worship, using scripture from Numbers 13 and Joshua 14.

44. The moderator stated that the clerk, Morris Hollifield, was attending the General Board meeting at Caraway to present the report from the Missions Committee, and that the Rev. Bill Sutphin was taking the clerk's place.

45. The chairman of the Nominating Committee, the Rev. Carl Hemphill, was recognized to present the report of his committee. He read the list of general officers and these were duly elected.

46. Upon a motion by the Rev. Hemphill, the remaining portion of the committee report was adopted.

47. Mrs. Eva Spurgeon gave the report of the Resolutions Committee and it was approved.

48. The report on Place and Preacher was given by the Rev. B.V. Broadway as follows:

Rich Fork Church, September 25, 1984 - Preacher, Rev. Robert Floyd
Greenwood Church, September 26, 1984 - Alternate, Rev. Ronald Coleman

49. Mrs. Robert Knapp, historian, gave her report with a brief history of the New Friendship Baptist Church and the Wallburg Baptist Church.

50. The moderator called for miscellaneous business.

51. The Rev. Leonard Rollins called attention to the Book of Reports and moved these be adopted. Following second, this motion passed.

52. The Director of Missions presented some certificates related to Bold Mission Thrust to those churches not receiving theirs the evening before.

53. The moderator appointed the Nominating Committee to serve for the next year as follows:

Paul C. Millwood, Chairman ..... Churchland
Hugh B. Biggers ..... Liberty
Billy Styers ..... Stoner's Grove
Mrs. Marion Gordon ..... Lakeview
Mrs. Faye Whitman ..... Wallburg

54. The vice moderator, the Rev. Brooks Hunt, was asked to come to the pulpit and preside over the next portion of the meeting.

55. The Memorial Service was led by the Rev. Hugh B. Biggers.

56. A congregational hymn, "The Solid Rock,' was led by Mr. Tommy Capps.

57. Vice Moderator Hunt recognized denominationals representatives who were present, and invited them to share from their institutions.

58. Mrs. Margot Searcy gave a report from Baptist Hospital.

59. Mr. Art Harris reported from Wake Forest University.

60. Mr. Gene Puckett reported from the Biblical Recorder.

61. Mr. Luther Osment of the Baptist Children's Homes gave a report from the division of Family Services.

62. Dr. Garland Hendricks spoke on behalf of Gardner-Webb College. He also spoke as a representative of the Annuity Board and urged the churches to provide total coverage for their pastors.

63. Mr. Al Martin introduced Mrs. Jean Davis who presented special music entitled "Don't Spare Me."

64. Franklin Myers received the gavel from the vice moderator and recognized the Rev. Leonard Rollins.

65. Mr. Rollins introduced Dr. Gene Puckett, editor of the Biblical Recorder, for the concluding message. He read from Galatians 6:1-10, and spoke on the topic, "The Christians Life."

66. Following the stirring message, Tommy Capps led in singing "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" and "Amazing Grace." People were asked by the speaker to go and express appreciation to someone for whom they had great admiration and to whom they were indebted. There were many who came to thank Mr. Rollins for the work he has been doing for many years.

67. It was announced that the attendance was 224.

68. The Rev. Ronald Coleman was called upon to conclude the meeting with prayer.

69. The moderator declared the session adjourned.

Executive Committee Report

In keeping with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Liberty Baptist Association, the Executive Committee met four times during the year to hear reports, share information, and conduct business necessary for the work of the association. Each of these meetings were held at the associational office and began with a time of worship.

The first meeting was on November 22, 1982 with 37 members present. New members were introduced and welcomed to the group. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $6,309.91. It was noted that the only large expenditure pending would be for the printing of minutes. Several churches had submitted payment for the minutes in addition to their regular gifts, which helped to strengthen the financial reserve. The Rev. John Pace presented the Sunday School report and stressed the need for an increase of 10 percent in enrollment to reach our goal of 8.5 by '85. The Director of Missions presented a letter from the chairman of the Building Committee at St. Albans, West Virginia. It reported great progress on the new church building through the summer. However, there were enough things lacking to prevent use of the building in the immediate future. In summary, Mr. Rollins noted that 10 churches from the Liberty Association had given $7,000.00, plus a heating unit donated and installed by the First Baptist Church of Welcome. The Baptist Men from Abbotts Creek urged that we give further consideration to additional help. Approximately $5,000.00 would enalbe the congregation to move into the new facilities. It was determined that another drive for funds would be initiated by sending letters to the churches as soon as possible. A report from High Attendance Day in Sunday School revealed a total of 6,363, which was 681 above last year. It was announced that the Rev. Tommy Wagner had accepted the pastorate of the Southside Church, beginning December 5, and the Rev. Marvin Smith was serving as interim pastor at Faith Baptist Church.

The second meeting was on January 17, 1983, with 36 members present. Several reports were given, and the treasurer noted a balance in the checking account of $6,425.03 with all bills paid. Upon presentation of Sunday School report by the director, John Pace, information was given about Sunday School Enlargement Campaigns. It was stated that this will be a major thrust of our convention this year and next in an effort to build strong churches. It was recommended that the Liberty Association schedule such a campaigh for September 29 - October 7, 1984, and that approved workers for each participating church be secured through the State Sunday School Department. This was approved with the suggestion that the Director of Missions request this be scheduled on the convention calendar. Mrs. Bessie Blackwell gave the W.M.U. report and provided copies of the newsletter. In presentation of the Evangelism report, Rev. Dearl Bunce announced plans for an associational ministers' retreat at Caraway Conference Center, and requested that churches provide for their pastor's participation. Rev. Lamar Moore shared information on Family Financial Planning, and offered to conduct local church workshops upon request. Mr. J.C. Alcon reported on the progress of the new church construction at St. Albans, West Virginia. It was noted that the Baptist men of Abbotts Creek Church had arranged for an amount of $5,000 to be sent to St. Albans so that work could proceed toward completion of the building. It was requested that churches wishing to share in this should make their checks to the association. The treasurer was authorized to use these funds to reimburse the Baptist men of Abbotts Creek. Mrs. Judy Wood from Reeds spoke on behalf of the Church Secretaries Group in our Association. She requested the support of the pastors, and suggested that churches pay the annual dues required for the secretaries to hold membership in the organization. The meeting was concluded with reports of church contributions to the Lottie Moon offering.

The third meeting was on May 23, 1983, with 26 members in attendance. Vice Moderator Brooks Hunt presided and Mrs. Bessie Blackwell was asked to serve in place of the clerk who was attending the General Board meeting at Campbell University as representative of the Liberty Association. The treasurer's report noted a checking account balance of $7,337.63 and that several congregations had not made a contribution to association work this year. Rev. Lamar Moore distributed packets on stewardship related to strengthening the family, entitled, "My Growing Commitment." Youth Director Tommy Capps asked that each church submit the name of a person to be contacted in reference to youth activities. He reported a successful Youth Rally with 410 from 26 churches attending. An associational Youth Group was formed on May 7 with 26 youth representing nine churches. Further information was given about youth activities planned for the summer. Mr. Rollins reported that he, Mr. Stan Nichols, and a family from Abbotts Creek attended dedication services for the new church building at St. Albans, West Virginia. He indicated the sanctuary was complete, the basement lacked some finish work, the former dwelling used for meeting was being put on the market, and the membership had grown to 40 members. Mr. Rollins said that the loan arranged by the men at Abbotts Creek had been repaid, and an additional gift of $1,400.00 had been presented to the St. Albans congregation. It was further revealed that 21 churches from our association had contributed $13,880.02 to the work at St. Albans. In addition, the heating unit had been given and installed by the First Baptist Church of Welcome. Work teams from several churches had been involved in the construction of the building. Mr. Rollins expressed appreciation for such fine response and said there would be no further drive for this project. A request that the association plan for another World Missions Conference was favorably received. The date of October 6-13, 1985, was chosen, with plans approved which would include missionaries representing home, foreign, and state missions. It was reported that Liberty was the number five association in the state in Vacation Bible Schools last year. Only one church failed to conduct a school. It was announced that 13 attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May, and the Associational Conference was scheduled for August 22 at the Rich Fork Church.

The final meeting of the year was on September 12, 1983, with 32 in attendance. The treasurer reported that every church had made a contribution, several had made gifts to the Minutes Fund, and this enabled the association to consider the purchase of some additional office equipment and still continue a substantial checking reserve for regular operation of our work. Organizational reports included promotional information. The Brotherhood Director noted that Brotherhood and R.A. leadership had been involved in team leadership training. He also announced efforts to reduce the display of pornographic materials in local establishments, and the completion of the Disaster Van which has been constructed and equipped by the Baptist Men's organization of North Carolina. Mr. Tommy Capps presented a suggested budget of $700.00 for Youth Ministry. Mrs. Gaylin Huff presented a proposed budget of $500.00 for student work at Davidson Community College. Upon motion and discussion, these were approved and referred to the Budget Committee for inclusion in the proposed budget to be presented to the messengers at the annual associational meeting. Another motion was made and passed that Mrs. Huff be reinbursed for some travel expenses while serving as a Volunteer Director for the B.S.U. at D.C.C.C. The Director of Missions focused attention upon the annual meeting scheduled for September 27-28, and gave instructions for getting to the meeting places. Upon Mr. Rollins request, Morris Hollifield was elected to serve as Director for the World Missions Conference scheduled for October 6-13, 1985. Praising was annouced for Tuesday, November 8, at Lexington First Baptist with an anticipated attendance of 1,000 people. Attention was called to the need for a copy machine in the associational office. Following motion and discussion, the Finance Committee was authorized to purchase a copier. Mr. Rollins expressed profound appreciation for the sound financial support in the association and stated he had labored 21 years to bring about this kind of participation with every church sharing in the work. It was agreed this had been a good year in our cooperative effort.

Respectfully submitted,
Morris S. Hollifield, Clerk

Missions Committee Report

The Missions Committee met twice during the associational year. The first meeting was on November 22, 1982, with seven members present. The Rev. Harvey Lanier was present as a visitor. He serves as pastor of a congregation meeting in Lexington at 208 Pennington Avenue. The church was interested in financial help through the convention of North Carolina Baptist. A committee was appointed to gather information and contact Mr. Lanier about any possibilities for support. The committee included the Director of Missions, the Chairman of the Missions Committee, and the clerk (Leonard Rollins, John Penninger, Jr., and Morris Hollifield). The meeting concluded with prayer.

The second meeting was on January 17, 1983 with seven members present. Rev. Carl Hemphill presided in the absence of the chairman. A report was presented from the committee which met with Rev. Harvey Lanier. It had been determined that no financial help was available under the provisions set forth by the North Carolina Baptist Convention. Only a congregation which is a member of the association, under sponsorship of the association, or under the watchcare of an association is eligible for financial assistance from the Department of Church Extension. Motion was made and approved that Mr. Lanier be informed of this decision. The Rev. Wesley Garner, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Denton, came before the committee to express interest in the possibility of the association starting a new work in the southern part of Davidson County. It was suggested that two specific areas might be considered as possible mission points. One stretches south of Denton toward Badin, and the other lies to the east toward Asheboro. The committee indicated it would look with favor toward the Denton congregation sponsoring work in either or both areas and would welcome any opportunity to give assistance to begin such work.

Respectfully submitted,
Morris Hollifield, Clerk

It is noted that John N. Penninger, Jr., who had served as chairman of the Missions Committee since 1979, died suddenly on March 19, 1983.

Report of Director of Missions

Your Director of Missions has been in 38 of the 43 churches for at least one service during the calendar year. In addition to regular preaching services, I taught the book of I Peter at Reeds, Liberty, and Oakview Baptist Church in High Point. I taught the Home Mission Study nine times, and taught the adults in Vacation Bible School at Carolina Memorial and Southgate. I have assisted a number of churches while they were without a pastor, and have worked with five pulpit committees. I spoke at Welcome, First, on the North Carolina Missions Offering; Baptist Men's Day at Rich Fork; Senior Citizens at North Lexington; Deacons and Wives at Reeds; associational emphasis at Reeds and Denton, First; Brotherhood at Stoner's Grove; Vacation Bible School group at Churchland; and Homecoming at Smith Grove. I previewed the Sunday School lessons four times and taught two Bible studies at Coggins Memorial, and previewed Sunday School lessons twice at Lexington, First. I brought the message for the 25th anniversary of the Hasty Church.

I have participated in the following special events: ordination service for Edward Pigg at Rodgers Park Baptist Church, Kannapolis; deacon ordination service at Liberty; deacons and wives Christmas party at North Lexington; Golden Agers Christmas party at Abbotts Creek; Sunday School Appreciation Dinner at Lexington, First; Stewardship banquet and Home Mission program at Southgate; Homecoming at Jersey, Center Hill, Churchland, and Hasty; missions banquet, Valentine banquet, and deacons and wives banquet at Churchland; memorial service at Denton, First, for Herbert Baker; parking lot dedication at Thomasville, First, and Southgate; installation service and reception at Rich Fork for Byron Barker; installation of new pastor at Trinity; dedication service for housing units at North Lexington; Forward Program banquet at Carolina Memorial, and Clergy Appreciation Day at Lexington Y.M.C.A. I also assisted in four funeral services, and preached at Victory Baptist Church, Newport, North Carolina.

I was involved in the Directors of Missions/Convention Staff meeting at Caraway, General Board Meeting in Raleigh, Evangelism Conference in Charlotte, Faculty Training for Sunday School "Understanding" books at Green Street in High Point, State Vacation Bible School Clinic in Statesville, God-Called Ministry Seminar at Caraway, dedication services for Riverwood Baptist Church in St. Albans, West Virginia, Biblical Recorder meeting at Caraway, Directors of Missions Conference at Wingate, and two I.M.C. banquets at Lexington Y.M.C.A. I also attended the State Convention in Fayetteville, Conference at Caraway on Churches in Transition, Annual Planning Meeting for Directors of Missions in High Point, Key Leadership at Ridgecrest, Board of Ministers Meeting at Campbell University, Southern Baptist Convention in Pittsburgh, Brotherhood-R.A. Leadership Conference at Caraway, Area Conference at Mills Home in Thomasville, Church Secretaries Meeting and Liberty Association Day at Baptist Building in Cary, three Triad Missions Committee meetings in Greensboro, and centennial services at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Shelby.

I have given assistance to the associational Program Committee, Nominating Committee, Finance Committee, and Youth Committee.

We need to give attention in the coming years to the Sunday School Enlargement Campaign September 29-October 7, 1984, World Missions Conference October 6-13, 1985, and the Simultaneous Revivals scheduled for 1986.

Respectfully submitted,
Leonard Rollins

Woman's Missionary Union Report

Another year of joyous service in Liberty Associational Woman's Missionary Union is reflected in the growth of the work. New groups during the year, especially in the area of Baptist Young Women, are cause for real thanksgiving. We are happy to see new work begun in Lakeview Church.

Progress has been made on the project to provide drapes for our home for the Director of Missions and it is nearing completion. The Annual Associational Woman's Missionary Union meeting at Denton, First was a real blessing -- the large attendance -- the fine spirit -- and the chance to recognize the dedicated efforts of those Woman's Missionary Union organizations at Abbotts Creek, Welcome, First, New Friendship, Southside and Summerville for earning Standard on the Achievement Guide and Jersey, Lexington, First, Thomasville, First and Wallburg for earning Distinguished. Our Association Woman's Missionary Union continues to be Distinguished. Attending the State Woman's Missionary Meeting at Ridgecrest, the Associational Retreat at Caraway, the G.A. Jamboree at Rich Fork, the Personal Witnessing Workshop at Carolina Memorial, learning "How to Guide Preschoolers" and "How to Control Children"; and the overwhelming response at Key Leadership at Rich Fork were real highlights of the year. We rejoice that the girls and women of Liberty Associational Woman's Missionary Union have indeed said "Use Me, Lord" throughout the year.

Sunday School Report 1983

In the working structure of Southern Baptist churches, there are various organizations that have been given specific tasks to perform. The Sunday School is the Bible Teaching Organization for our churches. The work of all other organizations, Church Training, W.M.U., Music and Brotherhood, is based upon carrying out the message of the Bible through the work of their organizations. This says to us again, the Bible Teaching Program is the foundation upon which these service oriented groups build. That places a very heavy responsibility upon those of us who are in leadership positions in the Liberty Baptist Association Sunday Schools. There is a very real sense in which the ultimate success of all of the work of our churches is dependent upon the Bible Teaching Organization doing its task successfully.

I believe that Southern Baptist churches have the best literature, the best organizational structure, the best helps, available anywhere in the world. Is it just possible that the churches are not using, to the best advantage, those things that are available to us? Are we participating in the State and Regional Training Conferences that are being made available to us? Are we studying the suggested study courses that will help us with the problems that we face? Are we keeping before our people the standards upon which growing churches are built? Are we providing the training necessary to prepare our people for better leading and teaching in our local churches? Are we providing the overall leadership necessary for growth in Bible knowledge? These are just some of the questions that need answers as we prepare for a new year of Bible study.

During the past year our Sunday School Leadership secured a statement of goals for Sunday School growth from each church in the association. Now is the time to check up on ourselves. Did you meet your goal for 1982-1983? It will be interesting to see the Sunday School reports to the association this year and to compare these with the goals that were set.

As a part of the emphasis on Sunday School Preparationg Week for 1983, it is suggested that we study in our churches that book, A Guide to Standard Sunday School Work, by Max L. Caldwell. This book will help any church to set up a proper organization, set goals for your Sunday School, and give suggestions and helps in carrying out your plans.

We look forward during 1984 to our Director-Led Enlargement Campaign for the Liberty Baptist Association. The dates for this are September 29-October 7.

This coming year Rev. Byron Barker, pastor of the Rich Fork Baptist Church, will be directing our Sunday School Program for 1983-84. Be much in prayer for him and for all of the officers and leaders of our association.

Respectfully submitted,
John Pace

Report to Liberty Baptist Association on Campus Ministry

I am grateful to have the chance to share with you tonight how we are seeing God work in the lives of college students at Davidson County Community College. This fall marks the sixth quarter that our association has sponsored work on the campus. The group we have formed there is known as "Alpha Omega" at D.C.C.C., but we function as a Baptist Student Union and this weekend had nine students to represent our campus group at the State Baptist Student Convention at Ridgecrest.

The ministry saw a year of growth last year as our churches became more involved. At the annual associational meeting last year you included this ministry in the budget. We sought to be good stewards of that vote of confidence and were able to improve our programming and expand our outreach efforts. Along with this support six churches directly supported the ministry through providing resources. Jersey Church made a $100 donation to the ministry last fall. Then in the spring their Brotherhood provided soft drinks that were handed out at the end of the registration line, free to every student - compliments of our group. Jersey members were there pouring drinks and our students handed out publicity and sought to enlist new members. Activities like this have helped our group make a good impression on faculty, administration, and students.

The Maurine Perryman W.M.U. group at First Baptist Thomasville "adopted" our group last year and for six months provided lunch for the group once a month. This was a great encouragement to the students since most of them give up their lunch break to come to our weekly meetings. The Maeila King W.M.U. group from Wallburg Baptist helped the students with a two-week World Hunger Emphasis on campus by covering the cost for a Faculty/Student World Hunger Meal.

In addition to these churches, Mills Home Church, Abbotts Creek, and Park Place donated paper products for our lunch meetings and fellowships. I would like to say a public thank you to these groups and also to our Director of Missions for his support and for the availabiliy of our associational office which the group has used several times.

There are some 280,000 college students in North Carolina. We can not talk of "Growing Churches--Reaching People" and ignore the need to reach these young adults during their formative years. They will be a vital key to having growing churches in the not-so-distant future. I am grateful that for over 60 years now Southern Baptists have sought to reach and involve students in Baptist Student Union. I myself was directly effected by B.S.U. during my college years. Until recently though, this ministry has centered on the university and residential campuses. But in North Carolina we have the third largest community college system in the U.S. and one of every two of our students is in this system. Only 20 percent of these students are at present going on to obtain a four-year degree. So we must reach them now.

Last year we touched 41 students in our weekly meetings and special activities and had 25 who were actively involved in our program. Our weekly programs included a variety of speakers and topics using four local pastors or staff members, two Christian laymen, two missionaries, one campus minister, and one Baptist State Convention employee, along with the students who took turns leading the group. We also utilized one film, two slide shows, and two videos. We sponsored a "Get-Acquainted Party" at the first of the year, a bake sale to raise money for student summer missions, several off-campus fellowships, two trips to State B.S.U. meetings, and the two-week World Hunger Emphasis mentioned earlier. These activities gained for our organization the respect of the school administration, who has been open to work with us, as well as the respect of the students. The school newspaper staff awarded our group the Club Spirit Award last year.

This ministry is vital to the students at D.C.C.C. because it is the only Christian organization on campus. It is important for students already involved in our churches because they need the weekday support of knowing other Christian on campus. As one of our girls wrote:

> I am thankful for a Christian group on campus. This provides us with an important part of our education. An education is so much more than just "book learning." I have grown a lot through this group.

It is also vital for those our churches are not reaching as we seek to draw them into meaningful fellowship and introduce them to Christ. Another of our girls wrote after this weekend at Ridgecrest:

> I am proud to be a part of B.S.U. B.S.U. is a strong Christian group which has helped me, and now I am willing and able to spread my faith. I now have the strength and willingness to shout from a mountain "I am a Christian."

I have been humbled this year by the beautiful beginning we are seeing. We have a strong vivacious core group of Christians. They are as sensitive and caring a group as I have ever had the opportunity to work with. This weekend I saw them draw in Ling, a beautiful Taiwanese girl, who has converted to Christianity from Buddism this year, and is being ostracized by her family. These students became family to her and she in turn "infected" them with her newfound joy and enthusiasm for the Christian life. This kind of community can have a lifelong effect on these students who can in turn "infect" our churches with their enthusiasm.

Charles Johnson, the Secretary for National Student Ministries, describes B.S.U. as "the arm of the church on campus." We seek to be an outlet for involvement for the inward growth of students through emphasis on worship, bible study, discipleship, fellowship, and churchmanship. But we are also concerned that this be balanced by an emphasis on the outward expression of the Christian life and so we focus on missions, social action, internationals, enlistment, and evangelism. Last year students in North Carolina B.S.U.s raised $32,925.27 to help support their peers in summer mission ventures. Two young ladies from our group applied to serve last summer and were on the staff at our North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Caswell.

Through this ministry we are weeking to work alongside the churches in seeing Christ proclaimed and believers discipled. The instruction of Colossians 2:6-7 describes the process we desire to see in the lives of the students with whom we work.

> As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude. (NASV)

Pray for us. Pray that the students may gain strength from each other to be a strong witness on the campus. Pray for David Clemmons of Abbotts Creek and I as we seek to give leadership to the group. Pray that the administration will continue to be open to our presence and our activities on campus. And pray about your personal as well as church involvement in this ministry. We have need of your support through resources and presence as well as in prayer.

> B.S.U. is people. It is a spirit among students that faith is not just a private matter to be tucked into a corner of one's world. B.S.U. emphasizes the reality of Christ at work in every aspect of life and the need to make one's faith the dominant force in one's college experience.

Report of the Resolutions Committee

Be it resolved that the messengers to the 151st annual session of the Liberty Baptist Association, meeting September 27 and 28, 1983, do acknowledge our Lord's gracious love, and do express our appreciation to the following:

(1) The host churches, New Friendship Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, and Wallburg Baptist Church, Wallburg, for their warm friendship as well as the delightful meals that they provided for us.
(2) The Program Committee for arranging an informative program for this annual session.
(3) The program personnel for their cooperative contributions to our program theme "Growing Churches--Reaching People."
(4) Our moderator, Rev. Franklin Myers, and our clerk, Rev. Morris Hollifield, for their service during the year.
(5) Our Director of Missions, Rev. Leonard Rollins, for his leadership and dedicated service on behalf of Liberty Baptists.
(6) All who served on committees this year; all who submitted committee reports in these meetings, and our executive meetings, or participated in the order of business in any capacity.
(7) And to the messengers and their churches, with the sincere hope and prayer that all of us will return to our respective places of service with greater purpose in the work of God.

Respectfully submitted,
Hoke Coon, Chairman, Joel Fisher,
Mrs. Nolan C. Reid, Mrs. Franklin Myers,
Mrs. Evva Spurgeon

Historian's Report

In 1959, when Mr. J. Marse Grant was historian of Liberty Baptist Association, a recommendation was "offered to help the historian in the future." The recommendation which was adopted stated that the historian should present a brief history of the churches which entertain the association each year. The recommendation further stated, "The pastors or a person designated by the host churches would furnish the historian information for such a history."

This year our report includes the histories of New Friendship and Wallburg Baptist churches with information furnished by members of these churches. We express our appreciation to those who supplied the information.

History of New Friendship Baptist Church

The New Friendship Baptist Church was organized January 27, 1827, by Elder William Dowd. After preaching a few years in "Charles Schoolhouse," adjacent to the present location of the church house, William Dowd led in the organization of the church and served as its first pastor. He was a missionary from Friendship Baptist Church in Moore County, a state Baptist leader, serving as vice president of the Baptist State Convention in 1830. The Jamestown Baptist Church assisted in constituting the organization of the new church at New Friendship. Churches that have grown out of New Friendship are Waughtown and Southside Baptist churches of Winston-Salem, Wallburg Baptist Church, and Pleasant Fork Church. Starting the mission services in Waughtown about 1868, the promotion had the support of the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem. The Sunday School was organized in 1880, with R.A. Womack as superintendent.

New Friendship was represented at the second session of the Baptist State Convention, held April 15-18, 1831, at Rogers Cross Roads Meeting House in Wake County, by the Pastor, William Dowd. Thirty-seven persons were present.

The church became a member of the Liberty Baptist Association soon after its organization in 1832, and has been a member since that time. For a few years before 1832, New Friendship had belonged to the Abbotts Creek Union Association. The Liberty Association met with the church in 1848 1859, 1871, 1889, 1905, 1920, 1941, 1953 and 1965.

The church has had 22 pastors, namely: William Dowd, Mattheus D. Freeman, Peter Owen, William Turner, F.H. Jones, Henry Sheets, G.W. Reid, Thomas Carrick, O.A. Keller, A.L. McLenden, V.M. Swaim, John R. Miller, V.H. Harrell, B.K. Mason, E.F. Baker, Luther James Matthews (who became the first full-time pastor, April 6, 1941), A.C. Lovelace, W.N. Brookshire, Robert C. Foster, Lee Roy Hall, James H. Pernell, and Warren E. Kerr. Four men have been set aside to preach the Gospel, namely: R. Jeffrey Charles - 1862, Lewis Banner (Black) - 1868, G. Wisemen Harmon - 1871, and Samuel B. Wilson - 1872.

The church extended a call to Rev. Richard D. Jackson on April 12, 1981, to become the first full-time minister of education and youth. This ministry has proved to be of great help to the church.

In December, 1883, a "Missionary Society of Females" was organized with Mrs. William Turner as president. The W.M.S. was suspended after two or three years of service. A W.M.S. was reorganized in 1923, with 31 members. It became a Standard Society in 1928. Mrs. William Griffin served as its president for the first nine years. At present, it is an active W.M.U. with adequate auxiliaries.

There have been three houses of worship. The first was built about 1828. The second building, dedicated to William Turner, who served more than 40 years, was erected in 1890, with brick made and burned on the church grounds, at a cost of $2,000.00. A brick vestibule and tower were added later at a cost of $50.00. The bell in the tower cost $12.50, and rang first on January 23, 1892. In 1928, an educational building was built adjoining the back of the sanctuary. A few years later, a basement was dug under this building by the young men of the church, thereby adding several more Sunday School rooms. In 1953, a more modern education building was built at a cost of $51,000.00. The present pastorium was built in 1937. The third sanctuary was erected in 1964, at a cost of $135,000.00, and was used for the first time November 22, 1964. In 1973, additional property adjoining New Friendship was purchased for $23,000.00. This property consists of three and one-half acres of land and a garage apartment.

Renovation of the education building was completed in 1977 which included air conditioning, carpet, painting, and additional ladies restroom, and new furnishings for the pastors's study and church office.

During the past 156 years, God has been gracious to us, and our spirit of unity is excellent; the possibilities are wonderful.

Sources of information for this history are records of the church and minutes of Liberty Baptist Association.

Wallburg Baptist Church History

The Wallburg Baptist Church was organized in 1892 with the help of Abbotts Creek Baptist Church. During the early days of our church, a pond of water in a nearby stream was used for baptizing. There were 14 charter members. In 1916 the original building was sold and moved to make room for a new brick church. When the old building was torn down in 1947, a plank was found which stated "Built by Committee in 1892 by C.H. Teague, P.N. Motsinger, G.W. Wall, C.C. Smith, Andrew Hines, J.F. Yokeley."

The name of the church was changed from Church of Christ at Wallburg to Piney Grove in May, 1893. In July, 1907, it became Wallburg Baptist Church.

When the foundation was completed for the new brick church in 1916, they rang the bell. The land for the church was given by Samuel D. Yokeley, who died on Monday after the first sermon was preached in the new building on Saturday. He was the first to be buried in our church cemetery.

The first pastor was the Rev. J.N. Stallings who served one year, from 1892-1893. The first revival meeting held in 1892 resulted in 22 being baptized. Following Rev. Stallings, the Rev. Henry Sheets was called as pastor. He served from 1893 to 1907.

The Rev. Thomas Carrish was pastor from the years 1907 to 1910.

In 1910 the church called the Rev. O.A. Keller as pastor. In this same year Brother G.G. Wall was licensed to preach.

The Liberty Baptist Association Minutes show a brick bu with seating capacity of seven hundred in 1916. Five churches gave more than Wallburg financially, yet 12 churches had more members than Wallburg.

In 1920 the Rev. G.L. Kirksey was pastor. The church property was valued at $6,000 with 130 members.

In 1921 Frank Hare served as pastor but was unable to continue in the pastorate because of ill health.

The Rev. E.F. Munford came in 1922 as pastor for "half-time." He was also principal of Liberty Piedmont Institute School.

Wallburg Baptist Church added 23 members in 1927.

The Rev. Ira Ferguson succeeded the Rev. E.F. Munford and served as our pastor from September, 1928 - August 27, 1933. We had both morning and evening services during his ministry. He lived in Mount Airy during the days that he pastored the church.

The Rev. J.R. West was the pastor from September, 1933 until June 8, 1934.

After Rev. West's ministry was completed, the Rev. Heymore came to the church and conducted a revival especially to strengthen church members.

The Rev. L.J. Matthews came in the summer of 1934. He resided in the homes of church members during the early days of his pastorate.

On April 11, 1937 at 7:25 p.m., it was discovered that the church building was on fire. The building was completely burned leaving only the brick walls.

Three months later (in July) the church voted to approve the Building Committee's plans for rebuilding with an estimated cost of $6,000.00. The decision was made to use the existing brick walls in rebuilding. Logs were donated by our church members to be used in framing the structure. The Building Committee was instructed to proceed with the work. Services were held in the auditorium of Wallburg High School during the time that the church building was being restored.

On August 14, 1938, the church moved back into its rebuilt church building. This was called Homecoming Day. All former pastors were invited to take part in the day's festivities. Also, a roll call of the entire church membership was made that day.

The dedication of the new church building was held on April 14, 1940. The building was complete and debt-free in three years. The Rev. L.J. Matthews served as our pastor from the years 1934 to 1941. Rev. Matthews was faithful to us during those difficult years of our church.

In 1941 the Rev. B.A. Mitchell was called to serve as pastor of Wallburg Baptist Church. He preached in the morning and evening services on the second and fourth Sunday of each month. Rev. Mitchell was also pastor of the Abbotts Creek Baptist Church during his ministry here. The Abbotts Creek Church was gracious in sharing with us. During Rev. Mitchell's pastorate, one of the first choir directors was called to serve the church. He was Claude Cook, a church member. Mrs. J.W. Tuttle, one of our members, was a strong support and encouragement to both Claude and the choir at that time. The choir was invited to sing in area churches.

The need for a parsonage had long been felt by the church, and in 1943 Miss Etta Teague was named treasurer for the Parsonage Fund, and a goal of $7,000.00 was set. The Rev. O.W. Rhodenhiser came to pastor the church in 1948. On May 29, 1949, the church dedicated its new parsonage. By 1951, the church was again debt free.

Following Rev. Rhodenhiser, the Rev. Julian Pentecost came as interim pastor to the Wallburg Church. He was called to serve as pastor in January, 1952 and completed his pastorate in March, 1953. Paul Russell preached for 16 weeks as supply pastor following the ministry of Rev. Pentecost.

Rev. Pentecost was succeeded by the Rev. William H. Spradling, Jr., who was called as our first full-time pastor in November, 1953. While Rev. Spradling was our pastor, he brought in an evangelist, Don Austin, to conduct a revival. There was a great spiritual awakening among our people, and a number of professions of faith and rededications were made during that revival. On the Sunday morning concluding the revival services, the Sunday School attendance goal of 300 was met. Don Austin taught the entire congregation in Sunday School. There was talk of the need to build an educational building during Rev. Spradling's pastorate. The need of a building program was so pronounced that the Pulpit Committee, when visiting the Rev. Robert Nation, informed him that should he accept the pastorate at Wallburg, he would have on his hands a building program.

During the time between the first homecoming and the erection of the educational building, a picnic shelter was built out of pine poles and was located at the northwest corner of the then existing pine trees. After plans were made to construct an educational buliding at the east end of the sanctuary, the picnic shelter was torn down and the beautiful grove of pine trees was cut to give needed space for parking.

In the period of time after the early forties to the year 1955, we had two music directors; Elma Wall, wife of one of our members; and Libby Murry of High Point College.

The Rev. Robert Nation was called as our pastor in September, 1955. He served through December of 1962. Rev. Nation was a very busy minister; he not only served as pastor, but also as keeper of the church grounds and cemetery. Some of the highest Sunday School attendance records in the history of the church were experienced during his pastorate. Three music directors served the church during the years Rev. Nation was pastor. They were O.M. Blake, Arthur Lippert and Richard Conrad. During this time Don Williard was licensed to preach. In the year 1960, a church member, Mr. Johnny Yokeley, deeded to the church a tract of land for the cemetery; however, Mr. Yokeley reserved a portion of this land for his own family burial.

The "Laying of the Cornerstone" for the new educational building was held in 1956. In 1959 the enlargement and beautification of the sanctuary was completed. Mrs. C.V. Teague, Miss Etta Teague and Mr. Maskey M. Smith, who served so faithfully and efficiently in places of responsibility for many years, were honored.

The Rev. Jack W. Byrd was called as our pastor at Wallburg Baptist Church in March, 1963. He served eight years. One of our members, Carroll Marshall, was licensed to preach during Rev. Byrd's ministry. Also, during Rev. Byrd's pastorate, Kay Wiggs was called as Music Director and Church Secretary. Following Kay Wiggs, Eddie Gaddy of Wake Forest College was called as Music Director, and then Tawana Casstevens as full-time Music Director.

After Rev. Byrd left, the church did not call a regular interim pastor. Supply pastors were called in on a Sunday by Sunday basis. One of these supply pastors was the Rev. Albert S. Hale.

On July 2, 1972 the church called the Rev. Dalphon J. Thompson as pastor. During his pastorate, the church built an air-conditioned fellowship hall. Music Directors at this time were Winona Hayes and Eddie Kiefer. Also, Richard Ryan served as the Summer Youth Director in 1977. Rev. Thompson completed his pastorate on January 22, 1978.

Mrs. Becky Bell was called on January 29, 1978 to serve as Music Director. On March 19, 1978 the church called the beloved Rev. Albert S. Hale to serve as interim pastor. At this period in our church we had fallen into a low ebb spiritually; Rev. Hale was well aware of this and during his interim ministry, he brought to us love and encouragement.

The Rev. Brooks L. Hunt was called as our pastor on August 12, 1979. Rev. Hunt followed in the footsteps of our interim pastor, Rev. Hale, by bringing to us love, affection and understanding. David Cantrell was called in July, 1982 to serve one year as our first full-time Youth and Education Director. Under Rev. Hunt's leadership, the church began to grow again and is continuing to grow at this writing.

Roby C. Clodfelter

These histories provide very valuable information for the present and for the future. They will become a permanent record as they are published in our associational minutes; also, copies of these are sent to Mr. John H. Woodard, Director of the Baptist Historical Collection, Wake Forest University. Mr. Woodard continues to urge churches to have your entire records micro-filmed. This is a free service provided by this department.

Constitution

(Adopted September 29, 1954 - Revised October 1, 1969 and October 1, 1975)

PREAMBLE

We, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, unite ourselves according to the plan and for the purpose and work of the New Testament churches in our world, and to this end to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention, according to the following Articles:

ARTICLE I — NAME

The name of this body shall be the Liberty Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership shall be composed of the Baptist churches now holding membership and any other Baptist churches which may be received into the Association according to the subsequent provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches or reject churches according to its Constitution and Bylaws. Member churches may also withdraw at their pleasure. Any church in the Association which fails to cooperate with the Association for a period of two consecutive years shall be contacted by a committee appointed by the Association, to ascertain the wishes and desires of the church relative to continuance in the Association.

A cooperating church is one which sends a report to the Annual Session, sends messengers to the Annual Session, and contributes to the financial program of the Association.

ARTICLE III — MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday in September.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided sufficient notice is given the member churches to permit them two Sundays between the call and the meeting.

Section 3. In emergencies, any change in the time and/or place of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV — COMPOSITION OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The official voting body shall be composed of messengers from the member churches as follows. Five messengers from each church for its first one hundred members or fraction thereof, one additional messenger for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof up to 1,000 members, and one additional messenger for each additional hundred members or major fraction above 1,000; all ordained ministers of member churches; and the officers of the Association.

Section 2. The names of the messengers printed in the minutes shall include only those actually attending and registering at the Association from the number elected by the churches.

ARTICLE V — OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the Association shall be Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, and Historian.

Section 2. The election of the Clerk shall be the first item of business in the first session of the Association. He shall be elected for a one-year term. Other officers shall be elected on the last day of the annual meeting for terms of one year each. They shall be contacted and nominated by the Committee on Nominations (Bylaws 8, Section 2, (6), which shall consider the duly elected heads of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union as the committee's nominees for election as the Association's Officers also.

Section 3. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Associational meeting at which elected and shall serve until the close of the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. Any person serving or having served two full annual terms as Moderator shall be ineligible for re-election to this office for a period of two full years.

ARTICLE VI — TRUSTEES AND THEIR ELECTION

There shall be three trustees of the Association, one preferably a lawyer, serving of six years each in a rotating system. Upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, one new trustee shall be elected at the annual meeting in each even year to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of one of the three; no trustee being eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of two full years. The expiration date of each trustee shall appear by his name in the Associational minutes.

ARTICLE VII — THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Committee shall be composed of all Associational officers, the Director of Associational Missions (ex officio), each active pastor, church treasurer, and one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the Association in it annual report. The officers of the Executive Committee shall be the Associational Moderator, Vice Moderator, and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII — POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

This Association of churches shall have no power to infringe upon the rights of usefulness of any church or churches. All churches of the Association remain independent and sovereign. Cooperating churches unite here only that they may more effectively promote Christ's cause throughout the world. The Association may advise or offer recommendations for their adoption and guidance, but these cannot be binding on the churches in any way. (This is not to be interpreted as in conflict with Article II, Section 2.)

ARTICLE IX — AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendments are presented in writing and read at one session, as due notice, to be acted upon at a subsequent session.

Bylaws

BYLAW I — PARLIAMENTARY RULES

Where the Constitution and Bylaws and special orders of the Association do not prescribe otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order, Revised shall be followed as the Association's rules for conducting its deliberative assemblies.

BYLAW II — ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

For the purpose of determining the period of time to be covered by the annual reports of the Associational officers and church letters to the Association, the Associational year shall begin September 1 and close August 31.

BYLAW III — NEW CHURCHES

Section 1. Any church seeking admission to the membership of the Association shall petition in writing the Executive Committee at least three months before the annual meeting of the Association, which petition shall be referred to the Missions Committee for its study of the petitioning church's covenant, articles of faith, history, practices, cooperative spirit, its relations to other churches of the Association and its willingness to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association. The Missions Committee shall then report to the Association with a copy thereof submitted to the Associational Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the Association, its findings and recommendations for Associational action at the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Each church applying for membership in the Association, upon approval shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year. Each church received under a watchcare relationship shall submit a quarterly report to the Mission Committee of the Association and also submit the annual Associational letter at the end of the year.

BYLAW IV — DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the body according to the Constitution and Bylaws, appoint the Committee on Nominations at the closing session, shall be chairman of the Executive Committee and be an ex officio member of all other committees. As presiding officer he shall discharge such other duties as may be given him by the Association.

Section 2. The Vice Moderator shall preside in the absence, or at the pleasure of the Moderator and shall be Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least a month before the Association's annual meeting; distribute at the annual meeting mimeographed copies of the composite record of the member churches taken from their annual reports; make accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distribution to the member churches copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the annual meeting; keep in file and turn over to his successor the printed minutes and other records and documents of the Association; and shall be secretary of the Executive Committee and a member of the Missions Committee.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association; distribute the same upon instructions from the Association, its Executive Committee oras designated; render a mimeographed, itemized report of receipts and disbursements for distribution at the annual meeting of the Association; keep his books always in shape and available for examination of the Executive Committee, and be a member of the Finance and Missions Committee.

Section 5. The Historian shall collect and preserve historial data on the Association and its churches, and shall make a written report to each annual meeting of the Association.

Section 6. The Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, and Church Music Director shall promote their work in keeping with Southern Baptist Standards for their respective organizations, make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association, and serve on the Missions Committee.

BYLAW V — DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Section 1. The Association shall, when possible and expedient, employ a Director of Associational Missions. His selection shall be upon recommendation of the Missions Committee and on vote by the Association at its annual meeting, or between the meetings of the Association, by its Executive Committee. He shall be a member of all committees and organizations of the Association in a serving and advisory capacity. The relationship between the Association and its Director of Associational Missions may be terminated by either party upon the giving of reasonable notice.

Section 2. The Director of Associational Missions shall, under the direction of the Missions Committee, promote the work of the Association and denomination, cooperating with the churches, their pastors and officers, and Associational committees and organizations. He shall make oral reports to the Missions and Executive Committees in their quarterly meetings. He shall also make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association.

Section 3. He may assist the Clerk, by mutual consent, in preparing the composite record of member churches taken from the annual reports, and in preparing the annual minutes of the Association.

BYLAW VI — ANNUAL REPORTS

The persons to prepare reports for the annual meeting of the Association shall present the same in writing for inclusion in the printed Book of Reports, these reports to be limited to 250 words each.

BYLAW VII — TRUSTEES

The Trustees' duties shall be to hold title to the property for the Association and to handle the legal matters of the Association with the Association's foreknowledge and approval; and to comply with the Constitution and Bylaws of the body, and with state laws as they affect the Association. The trustees shall be responsible for keeping the property in good state of repair at all times, but shall not exceed expenditures of more than $500.00 on any major item without approval of Association.

BYLAW VIII — COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

(1) The duties of this committee shall be to act for the Association in all matters of business and activities between annual meetings, to call the Association in special session when necessary, to fill any vacancies that may occur between annual meetings among the Associational officers, the Executive Committee or the Committee on Nominations. It may elect the Director of Associational Missions when a vacancy occurs in accordance with Bylaws VI, Section 1. It shall present a written report to the Association in annual meeting for its approval.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly, the first meeting being as soon as possible after the annual meeting of the Association, on call of the Moderator of the Association (Bylaw IV, Section 1), and the last meeting being as near as possible to the next annual meeting of the Association for approving its report to the annual meeting.

Section 2. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS:

The Committee shall seek to avoid duplications and to distribute as widely as possible the obligations and privileges of service called for in this section. The duties of this committee shall be:

(1) To contact and nominate to the next annual meeting of the Association, on the last day, the officers of the Association, and its standing committees, naming their chairman, (Missions, Program, Place and Preacher, Resolutions, Finance, Memorials, Ordination Examining Council, and Christian Life and Public Affairs) these committes serving for the year following their election.

(2) To nominate trustees according to Article VI of the Constitution.

(3) To nominate such other special committees as may be authorized unless otherwise provided.

(4) To nominate, on the last day of the annual meeting, the persons to prepare reports for the next annual meeting of the Association following their election, on American Bible Society, Annuity Board, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Baptist Foundation, Baptist Homes for Aging, Baptist Hospital, Christian Education, Christian Literature, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and State Missions.

(5) To fill vacancies which may occur between annual meetings of the Association on committees and among persons to prepare or bring annual reports which are nominated by this Committee on Nominations.

(6) This committee's nominations, however, shall not preclude other nominations from the floor.

Section 3. THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE:

(1) This committee shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, Treasurer, Clerk, and also the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and four member churches to be elected by the Association at its annual meeting for one, two, three, and four years respectively on a rotating system. After their election one new member shall be elected each year to serve for a period of four years. It shall supervise and work with the Director of Associational Missions in promoting the work of the Association and lead and assist in organizing new churches.

(2) It shall meet once a quarter to receive a report from the Director of Associational Missions and make helpful suggestions to him concerning his work.

(3) If advice is sought, it shall advise a group seeking to organize a new church, or seek to help any member church desiring assistance in its problems.

(4) It shall perform the duties prescribed for it in Bylaw III and Bylaw V, Section 1.

Section 4. THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

This committee shall be composed of three members and Moderator, Clerk, Church Music Director, and host pastors. It shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program at least 10 days before the annual meeting. It shall, in the opening of the annual meeting of the Association, present the printed program for adoption and serve through the session when adjustments in the program become necessary.

Section 5. THE PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the Association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the annual sermon.

Section 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall draw up and present to the Association resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient. Also, all resolutions and recommendations for consideration presented at the annual meeting shall be referred to this committee.

Section 7. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members and the Treasurer. It shall study the Association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the Association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in the raising of the budget, audit the Treasurer's books at the close of the Associational year, inform member churches of their record of giving, and make a written report to the annual meeting.

Section 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall bring a suitable report at the annual meeting and shall lead in a memorial service in memory of those reported by the churches to have died since the last annual meeting.

Section 9. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of the Director of Associational Missions, who shall serve as chairman, the Moderator and directors of associational organizations. Its duties shall be to plan and correlate the activities of the Associational organization.

Section 10. CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of three members, whose duty it shall be to keep the Association informed of matters pertaining to civic righteous and public morals.

BYLAW IX — AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Bylaws may be made at any session of the annual meeting of the Association when presented in writing and approved by a majority of the messengers present and voting.

Standing Resolutions

Ordination of New Ministers

It is strongly recommended as the position of this Association:

1. That, when a church desires to put forth a candidate for examination and approval for ordination to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, an Examining Council composed of a committee of five elected by the Association in annual meeting, plus the pastors and one layman from each cooperating church in the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association, be summoned by written invitation of at least one week in advance from the church nominating the candidate.

2. That the examination of the candidate be conducted by the Examining Council and that a report of its findings be given to the nominating church. If the report is favorable the nominating church will set the date of ordination and notify the member churches.

3. That we ordain only those who have received a definite call to become a pastor, an associate pastor, or an educational director of a Baptist church on regular standing in the Association or those who have felt a call to the mission field, the chaplaincy of our armed forces or the chaplaincy of a public institution whose church shall have requested in writing his ordination before the call of the ordaining council shall be approved.

Policies for the Establishment of Missions

1. Definite sponsorship by an established church.
2. Sponsoring church to work in cooperation with Associational Missions Committee.
3. Sponsoring church to retain control of Mission until such time as the church and the Associational Missions Committee agree that the Mission is self-sufficient.
4. Sponsoring church to call Mission pastor and select all workers in the Mission.
5. Sponsoring church to encourage Mission from the beginning to give a definite percentage of the offering plate dollar through the Cooperative Program and Associational Missions.
6. Sponsoring church should insist upon a full and well-defined program of Southern Baptist Work in the Mission, using the Southern Baptist literature.
7. Sponsoring church to work with the Associational Missions Committee in properly locating the Mission.
8. Sponsoring church to work with the Mission in planning of new buildings, using the services of the Church Planning Department of the Baptist State Convention.

Organization and Admission of New Churches

Recognizing the right of the Association to determine its own membership and being aware of the importance of the manner in which the churches are organized, we recommend that any group of individuals desiring to organize themselves into a new church with the purpose of seeking recognition of and fellowship and cooperation with the Association be requested to meet the following standards:

1. Notice shall be given to the Moderator of the desire to organize a church before any such organization takes place. The Moderator will then ask the Missions Committee to study and pass upon the need for and the practicability of such an organization.

2. That the location of said church shall be sufficiently removed so as not to interfere with the work or encroach upon the territory of the churches already affiliated with the Association. This will be determined by the Missions Committee.

3. Upon being approved by the Missions Committee the group will then request this committee to examine the church covenant, articles of faith, and constitution (if a constitution has been adopted) of the proposed church. Should the committee approve the covenant, articles of faith, and constitution, the group will proceed at a later date to be constituted into a Baptist church of the same faith and order.

This Annual Is Dedicated In Memory Of

THE REVEREND DAVID WILLIAM DIGH

Born April 25, 1898 Died April 21, 1984

Rev. D.W. Digh was a native of Rutherford County. He was married to Alma Elium of Rowan County, and was a graduate of Boiling Springs College. He served as a pastor for 51 years.

In Rowan Association, he pastored Dunn's Mountain, East Corinth, Gold Hill and Rowan Mills, and Antioch in Stanly County.

In our Liberty Association, Reverend Digh pastored Center Hill, Smith Grove and Sheets Memorial. Then he accepted a call to become the pastor of Bethel in Kings Mountain Association. While there he organized and built under his leadership, the Lily Memorial Church under the sponsorship of Bethel. It soon became full-time and he served at Lily Memorial until his retirement in 1969. At this time, he moved to Lexington.

During his retirement years, he served as interim pastor at East Corinth, Cedar Lodge, Victory, Park Place, Hasty, Summerville and Floyd.

Several parsonages and two church buildings were erected under his leadership.

He spent his life doing for and serving people. Many hours were spent by him visiting the sick and shut-ins. A unique ministry of Reverend Digh was time spent by him in prayer for others at his "Rock Pile." This being formed by a rock for each person for whom he prayed. The large size of the pile was a witness of his concern for others.

Many people came to know Christ in his ministry as well as a number of young men entering the ministry.

His ministry, from its beginning to its close, was marked by the faithful proclamation of the word of God as an obedient servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is in deep appreciation for such faithful leadership that this annual is hereby dedicated to his memory.

Reverend D.W. Digh was a member of Center Hill Church at his death in 1984. He was pastor and interim pastor of the following churches during his lifetime:

1934-1943	Dunn's Mountain in Rowan Association
1938-1940	East Corinth in Rowan Association
1938-1940	Antioch in Stanly Association

Historical Events in the Churches

ABBOTTS CREEK: On July 29, 1984, Abbotts Creek helped celebrate 159 years as an organized church with First Baptist Church in High Point, it's sister church.

CENTER HILL: Paid off debt on church sanctuary.

COGGINS MEMORIAL: Employed a summer youth worker for three months.

DENTON, FIRST: Franklin Bailey Memorial given by the Franklin Bailey Sunday School Class.

FAITH: Dedicated new Sunday School classroom; paid off all loans; held note burning services.

GREENWOOD: Purchased church van.

HIGH ROCK: Burning of all debts on the High Rock Community Arbor, on homecoming day, 1984.

LAKEVIEW: A new piano was donated to the church; installed a new baptistry; newly renovated altar and choir; new carpet throughout the auditorium.

LEXINGTON, FIRST: Began Senior Adult Ministry. Began Senior Adult Choir.

NORTH LEXINGTON: Mt. Moriah Manor, Home for the Elderly, completed.

PARK PLACE: Baptistry installed.

RICH FORK: (1) Renovation of upstairs of old educational building for offices for staff and choir and baptismal rooms were completed in the early spring.

(2) During this year, skits have been presented depicting special events in our 100-year history -- such as the two ladies who were instrumental in our organization and signing of deed with John Mills and trustees. John Mills (founder of Mills Home Baptist Children's Home) played a very important part in helping begin Rich Fork and gave land on which the church was built. More activities are planned as our Centennial Sunday of October 14 approaches.

(3) The paving of cemetery road was completed in August.

(4) Major renovation of church sanctuary began in early summer which included painting, new carpet and tile, pew cushions, releading of stained glass windows (with addition of storm windows), new light fixtures, new roof, reconstruction of platform, choir loft and instrument boxes. This work should be completed near the end of September.

SMITH GROVE: Handicapped ramp on front porch of church was constructed; church roll updated.

SUMMERVILLE: Built fellowship building.

THOMASVILLE: Commissioned Gary Payne.

TYRO: Mrs. Janet Sharpe and Annette Craver attended National Acteen Convention at Fort Worth, Texas.

WELCOME, FIRST: Employed full-time associate pastor, John Yates. Reorganized Sunday School. Restructured to segregated age/grade levels.

Proceedings

152nd Annual Session

Tuesday Afternoon - September 25, 1984
RICH FORK BAPTIST CHURCH
Thomasville, North Carolina

1. The 152nd Annual Session of the Liberty Association was called to order by the moderator, the Rev. Brooks Hunt.

2. The singing was led by Tom Capps, with Crystal Capps on piano, and Joyce Black playing the organ. Hymns were "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" and "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

3. Moderator Hunt introdued the Rev. Cecil Staton of Trinity Baptist Church who led in worship.

4. Rev. Staton spoke on becoming sidetracked and what God expects from us as justice doers and humility workers, used references from Micah and Matthew.

5. Following a motion by the clerk, Rev. Morris Hollifield, the body was constituted for worship and the transaction of business.

6. In the absence of Joel Fisher, Rev. Leonard Rollins made a motion that the printed program be adopted as the order of business. This was approved.

7. Dr. Paul Millwood, chairman of the Nominating Committee made a motion that Mrs. Judy Wood be elected to serve as clerk for 1984-85 associational year. The motion was seconded and carried.

8. Rev. Rollins introduced new pastors and staff: Rev. Hulon Pait, Walter's Grove; Rev. Kenneth Evans, Stoner's Grove; Rev. Mark Blair, Smith Grove; Rev. Earle Rogers, interim, Victory; Rev. John Yates, director of youth, music and education, First Baptist Welcome.

9. Rev. Morris Hollifield was recognized to present the Executive Committee Report. This was adopted as stated.

10. Rev. Hollifield recognized Mrs. Kathy Greene of Abbotts Creek as church clerk of the year.

11. Rev. Hollifield, who served as the representative from the Liberty Association on the General Baord of the Baptist State Convention, shared with those present that at Caraway, the Search Committee has recommended Roy Smith as executive secretary of the N.C. Baptist State Convention. He also shared personal words of great satisfaction at the General Board meeting now in progress and the appointment of Mr. Smith.

12. Associational treasurer, Dothan Reece, was recognized and gave the treasurer's report that was accepted on a motion by Rev. Max Evington that it be adopted.

13. Comments by Rev. Doug Huff expressed concern for the lack of challenge as the budget was presented with only a minimal increase.

14. J.C. Alcon presented the Missions Committee report that was accepted.

15. Al Martin led in the singing of "To God Be The Glory."

16. Words of welcome were expressed by Tom Capps of Rich Fork in the absence of Bryon Barker.

17. In miscellaneous business, Carl Hemphill expressed pride in our associational budget balance at the close of the year, noting that in earlier years money was borrowed to pay Rev. Rollins salary. Stating also that Rev. Rollins refused to accept a raise in salary the following year because of hardships financially for the association. Rev. Hemphill also made a motion that in recognition of 50 years of service to the Lord, that the proceedings including a picture, biographical information and other information as available, be included in this 1984 minutes dedicated to the memory of Rev. D.W. Digh.

18. We were then prepared for worship with the reading of scripture by Rev. Ron Coleman followed by prayer by Inman Stewart.

19. Special music by Mrs. Dennis Bronson.

20. Rev. Robert Floyd preached the annual sermon using scriptures, facts and thoughts drawing attention to this year's theme "Growing Churches - Strengthening Families."

TUESDAY EVENING

1. The moderator called the evening session to order reporting registration of 188 messengers and 23 visitors.

2. Al Martin led in congregational singing of "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart."

3. A worship period was led by Rev. Chet Cantrell of Lick Creek. Reading Luke 18:15-17 as a model for ministry.

4. Dr. Dearl Bunce gave the Evangelism Report. The messengers voted to participate in "Good News America, God Loves You" March 23-30, 1986. He informed of the need to appoint a committee to appropriate funds.

5. Mrs. Gaylin Huff introduced Dean Marion and Dawn Hill who shared with us by special music. This begins the third year of our participation in Campus Ministry at Davidson County Community College, "Alpha Omega" (Baptist Student Union) is a Christian fellowship for students and influence for the faculty.

6. Rev. Leonard Rollins gave a detailed report on the North Davidson - Lexington Sr. High football game September 21. North Davidson claiming a 27-23 victory. He explained of going to four churches four times on the following Sunday to conquer his anger and guilt. This story was greatly enjoyed by all.

7. Al Martin led the congregation in singing "Higher Ground."

8. Mrs. Robert Knapp moved that the historical report on Rich Fork Church be adopted. It was so adopted.

9. Mrs. Knapp introduced Mrs. Revella Sellers who narrated a skit of the establishment and heritage of Rich Fork Baptist Church.

10. Rev. Rollins introduced Robert Newton, director of Christian Family Life, North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

Executive Committee Report

The Executive Committee of the Liberty Baptist Association has met four times since the last annual meeting in September of 1983. Each meeting was held at the associational office and began with a period of worship.

The first meeting was on November 21, 1983, with 21 members present. New members were introduced and welcomed to the committee. The treasurer's report showed a balance in the checking account of $7,109.17. It was reported that the Finance Committee had authorized the purchase of a copy machine for the associational office. The organizational reports were shared, meetings were publicized, and information shared with reference to High Attendance Day in Sunday School. It was reported that on October 30 there were 6,384 people attending Sunday School in the 43 churches of the Liberty Association. The Sunday School Enlargement/Improvement Campaign scheduled for our association was announced for September 29-October 7, 1984. All the churches were invited to participate.

The second meeting was on January 16, 1984. The treasurer noted a balance of $8,384.72, and indicated that our work is on solid ground financially. Reference was made to the fact that all churches are seeking to participate with increased support. Organizational leaders shared information from various meetings, and promotion was given to scheduled events. Of special interest was the focus on the Sunday School Enlargement Campaign. Preparation meetings were announced with the first being on January 23 at the Hasty Church. The missions emphasis indicated a total Lottie Moon offering of $97,788.46, which was an increase of $8,467.98 over the last year. The Director of Missions reported that several new ministers had been called to serve in our association. It was noted that Chet Cantrell (ordained at the Abbotts Creek Church on January 1) had been called to the Lick Creek Church, Hulon Pait to the Walters Grove Church, Mark Blair to the Smith Grove Church, Tom and Crystal Capps to the staff at Rich Fork, and John Yates to the staff of Welcome First Baptist. Gregory Garner was licensed by the Summerville Church the second Sunday in December of 1983. The cost of printing the associational minutes was discussed, and it was determined that we should continue to order 1,100 copies each year. Following a time for prayer requests, the meeting was adjourned with prayer.

The third meeting was on May 21, 1984. Those attending for the first time were recognized, a time of worship was observed, and special prayer was offered for many who were reported as being ill. Paul Millwood, chairman of the Nominating Committee, was recognized to present a report. He called attention to the fact that the moderator, Franklin Myers, had moved to the Sabbath Home Baptist Church in the Brunswick Association. In light of this development two recommendations were presented:

1. That Brooks Hunt, presently serving as vice moderator, be elected to fill the unexpired term as moderator of the association. This was adopted.
2. That Roy Cantrell be elected to serve the remaining portion of the year as vice moderator. This was also adopted.

The treasurer's report gave a checking account balance of $10,782.45. The W.M.U. report by Mrs. Bessie Blackwell stated that 177 persons from 26 churches were present at Carolina Memorial on April 30 for the annual W.M.U. meeting. It was also noted that 11 people had completed the workshop for teaching adults to read by use of the Laubach method. The Brotherhood report was given by Marvin Lyon. He stated that the disaster van, built, equipped, and operated by the Baptist Men of North Carolina, was used extensively during the days of recovery following tornadoes in the Southeastern region of the state. Within three hours after receiving word of desperate need, the van was in operation in Red Springs. In a 10-day period 14,000 hot meals were served. Approximately $450,000 was sent through the convention office by individuals and churches for disaster relief. A request was shared for volunteers to help in the Togo project where North Carolina is paired to work with the Foreign Mission Board. Cost for the individual would be approximately $1,800 and one should plan to be there at least three weeks. It was noted that seven churches had participated in the associational track meet. Other business matters included the approval of a request for pastoral assistance for the Trinity Baptist Church from the Church Extension Department of the Baptist State Convention. It was announced that this congregation would break ground for a new building on June 10. The Director of Missions noted that 14 churches had made commitment to the Sunday School Enlargement Campaign. Plans were announced for an Associational Evangelism Conference on August 12 to be held at Finch Auditorium in Thomasville. There would be two sessions: from 3:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon, and from 7:00 to 9:30 that evening. A request was made for the Budget Committee to give consideration to providing financial assistance to the Trinity Church, at least in the amount which was requested for convention support. It was suggested we could use the same kind of approach which was followed in assisting the West Virginia project. Following discussion, this request was approved and the meeting was adjourned.

The fourth meeting was on September 11, 1984. Following the welcome, Mrs. Barbara Foster was presented as the newly elected W.M.U. president and was welcomed to membership on the Executive Committee. The treasurer presented his report which gave a checking account balance as of August 31, of $15,721.90. It was acknowledged that this has been an outstanding year as the churches have consistently supported the program of work in the association. It was noted that Mr. and Mrs. Luther Morphis have arrived home for a four-month furlough from their field of service with the Foreign Mission Board in Austria. Four churches in the Liberty Association have worked together to provide a rental car for the couple while they are in the states on furlough. These congregations are the Smith Grove, Reeds, Lexington, First, and Jersey churches. Mr. Rollins stated that direct support from the churches has enabled the association to sponsor the broadcast of "The Baptist Hour" each week on a local radio station for the rest of 1984. A report was brought from the Missions Committee regarding several matters.

1. It was suggested that assistance for the Trinity Church equal to that requested from the Department of Church Extension be handled as designed gifts from the churches through the association. This would be in addition to the regular gifts to the association. The goal is $2,400, but any additional funds designed for this purpose would be dispursed to the Trinity congregation.

2. Attention was directed to the full-time chaplain at the local North Carolina prison unit. Funds are being solicited from the local churches, and the chaplain is charged with raising his own salary. It was determined that information should be shared with the churches and that they be encouraged to designate financial support through the association for this cause.
3. Information was shared that Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute wants to offer a course on the work of the association when funds are available. The suggestion has come that this can be done if several of the surrounding associations can provide some financial support. A motion was offered and passed that the Liberty Association contribute an amount of $100 to this endeavor. It was announced that with the far-reaching impact of Fruitland, this would help to strengthen the work of all the surrounding associations.

Attention was called to the remaining indebtedness on the associational office in the amount of $24,338.61. Dothan Reece moved that $5,000 be taken from the surplus funds on hand at the end of August and paid on the principal of the outstanding loan. This was heartily endorsed by the committee. Following several matters of promotion, the meeting was concluded with a time of prayer.

Missions Committee Report

The Missions Committee of the Liberty Baptist Association met at the associational office at 7:30 p.m. The chairman, Mr. J.C. Alcon, called the meeting to order. He introduced Mr. Ron Beutel, chaplain of the Davidson County Prison system and the local jail, who spoke of his work. He shared his views and understanding of the opportunities for ministry in our county. He is a westerner, graduate of Brevard Junior College, Maryland University, Southern Seminary with Master of Divinity, and is now working on a 2½-year Doctoral Program. He is now certified in the prison unit, has permission to minister in the city jail, and is chaplain at the American Children's Home. He serves as pastor of the Farmington Baptist Church near Winston-Salem, with approximately 60 members. Mr. Beutel shared information about "Good News Missions." He is directly responsible for raising his salary and operating funds. He provided training for Yokefellows and those who minister in the prison system or the Children's Home. Discussion followed related to training and Yokefellow relationships. There is needed 150 volunteers and $32,000 per year. All funds raised locally are sent to Good News Mission, with administrative costs of 1.7 cents per dollar. David Whiteman explained that there is a local Board of Directors who give guidance and control the direction of ministry. The area office for supervision is In Arlington, Virginia.

Mr. Dothan Reece made a motion that the committee recommend to the Executive Committee that our association endorse this prison ministry, with information being shared with local churches, and any funds channelled through our association be forwarded to this work. After second and discussion, it was unanimously approved.

The minutes were read from the last meeting of January 17, 1983. Mr. Rollins reported that Harvey Lanier had made no further approach since learning of the required structure and method of reporting. Neither has there been any further report from Denton, First, with reference to starting a new work.

Mr. Rollins stated there was a desire on the part of several churches to give financial support to the Trinity Church. He stated that a request was made of the Finance Committee by Roy Cantrell that our association match the request from the State Convention for pastoral assistance, which is $2,400 per year. It was Mr. Rollins' suggestion that this be handled like the West Virginia support, with each church giving over and above to help the Trinity congregation.

Mr. Marvin Lyon spoke of past experience and indicated he felt to make contributions from associational budget might be detrimental to the support of the smaller churches. Discussion centerd around the best way to proceed. Rev. Dearl Bunce moved that this committee request the Finance Committee include an item for Trinity in the proposed budget for 1984-85, to equal $2,400. Miss Betty Bradshaw made a second. This was approved by vote.

Rev. Byron Barker, made a motion that the Missions Committee have a three-member committee to discuss, examine, and recommend at the next meeting, the matter of starting a fund to assist in the starting of new churches. The group voted to do so. Rev. Brooks Hunt, Rev. David Whiteman, and Rev. Byron Barker were appointed to the committee. The Missions Committee chairman and the Director of Missions serve ex officio with this group.

The association has the opportunity to sponsor the Baptist Hour for 30 minutes at 8:30 each Sunday morning. What is the best method for recruitment? We need 26 churches who would provide $80.00 per year ($40.00 per Sunday) to help Baptist Hour on each Sunday. Dothan Reece moved that we make commitment for six months, and if churches do not respond favorably, we support this from the budget for the six-month period. After discussion, this was approved (second by Dearl Bunce). Station is WTHP (Stereo 98).

Dearl Bunce presented the World Hunger matter related to the Togo Project. He serves on the state committee, and these members have been asked to share this information with the leadership of our churches. It was suggested we ask Mr. Bunce to proceed with plans for a meeting to present information to the church leaders. He asked the chairman to appoint three members to serve as a Planning Committee. Miss Hazel Frady, Marvin Lyon, and Miss Betty Bradshaw were asked to serve. Mr. Bunce was encouraged to enlist other leadership to give support.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mr. Rollins, and everybody went home rejoicing.

Report of Director of Missions

This year has provided many opportunities for service, and your Director of Missions has been in every church for at least one meeting during the calendar year. In addition to regular preaching services, I taught the book of I Corinthians at Reeds, Center Hill, Churchland, and Liberty. I taught the Home Mission Study 11 times, and taught the adults in Vacation Bible School at Carolina Memorial, Park Place and Coggins Memorial. I also preached in revival services at Summerville. I spoke in the Deacons' Retreat at Welcome, First; Baptist Men's Day at Coggins Memorial; Triple L Banquet at Rich Fork; Senior Citizens' Valentine Banquet at Southgate; Sunday School Council at Reeds; North Lexington Brotherhood; Lenten Service at First Methodist; Note-burning service at Faith; Baptist Men and Baptist Women at Lexington, First; tenth anniversary service for Max Evington at Mills Home; and homecoming and dedication of fellowship building at Summerville. I spoke to the R.A.'s and also to the congregation on associational missions at Liberty. I assisted in one wedding and five funerals. I gave assistance to two pulpit committees and participated in ordination services at Abbotts Creek, Greenwood, Victory, and Floyd.

I have been present for the following special events: homecoming at North Lexington, Jersey, and Reeds; Gideons' Banquet at Lexington Y.M.C.A.; R.A. Recognition Service at Jersey; Thanksgiving dinner and Baptist Men's Breakfast at Churchland, reception for Tom and Crystal Capps at Rich Fork, fellowship meal at Denton, First; organization of Baptist Men and Sunday School Teacher Appreciation Dinner at Lexington, First; and Annual Senior Citizens Fun Day at Wallburg. I also spoke on the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City at Lexington, First, and Victory.

I was involved in Directors of Missions/Convention Staff Meetings and a Regional Evangelism Conference at Caraway, Triad Missions Committee in Greensboro, Annuity Board Program at Baptist Building in Cary, Home Mission Teacher Training in Winston-Salem, Home Mission Tele-conference and Evangelism Conference in Greensboro, and Directors of Missions/Annual Planning in High Point. I also attended the Baptist State Convention and the State Vacation Bible School Clinic in Greensboro, Christian Action League at Caraway, World Missions Orientation Conference at Caraway, Southern Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill, Directors' of Missions Conference at Wingate, and Directors' of Missions Update Seminar and Key Leadership at Ridgecrest.

I have given assistance to the Estate Planning Seminar at Southgate; Special Ministries Workshop at Thomasville, First; PraiSing at Lexington, First; Ministers' Retreat at Caraway; Church Secretaries' Day; Evangelism Rally, and the Sunday School Enlargement/Improvement Campaign. I have worked closely with the Nominating Committee, Program Commitee, Finance Committee, Missions Committee, Evangelism Committee, and World Hunger Committee.

We need to give attention now to the World Missions Conference October 6-13, 1985, and the Good News America Simultaneous Revivals March 23-30, 1986.

Respectfully submitted,
Leonard Rollins

Report of Woman's Missionary Union

The women of Liberty Baptist Associational Woman's Missionary Union did indeed "Catch the Spirit" as we met at Denton for our 1983 annual meeting. This has led to a year of 'being accountable' through the missions emphasis in our association.

ENLISTMENT - is the tool by which W.M.U. grows. This makes it the concern of every W.M.U. organization. Churchwide knowledge of the W.M.U. program and why it is necessary for men in the church to understand the W.M.U. goals and objectives is most important.

MISSION ACTION - "love in action" to "persons not things" has been the theme of the Special Ministries Workshop held jointly with the Brotherhood and to plans for a Literacy Workshop to be held at Churchland in May.

BAPTIST WOMEN - in "Partnership in prayer and ministry" lead out in missions efforts in each church.

BAPTIST YOUNG WOMEN - found inspiration and information when attending the Convention at Ridgecrest in October.

ACTEENS - going by the bus-load to National Acteens Convention at Fort Worth in July; welcoming girls at Hasty and Victory churches to activities such as Studiact, Recognition Services; Mother/Daughter Banquet . . . a year of going and growing.

GIRLS IN ACTION - share with new group at Faith . . . attend G.A./Father/Pastor Missions Night Out; Missions Adventures Fair; Missions Day Camp . . . another year of going and growing.

MISSIONS FRIENDS - leaders sharing at Leadership Conference; Christmas in August; happy times in Home and Foreign Missions activities.

SPECIAL THANKS - for your continued support of N.C. Correctional Center for Women Christmas gifts.

- for providing drapes for the home of our associational missionary.

- for your attendance at the associational W.M.U. Retreat at Caraway Conference Center.

Evangelism Report 1984-1985

The more we Christians learn of Jesus, the more evangelistic we become. True evangelism is embodied in Him -- His birth, His life, His death, His resurrection, and His living presence. He is the message and the medium of evangelism. Real evangelism is to introduce Him to the lost and help Christians grow up in His love. The goal is to know the very mind of Christ and to that end all our evangelistic efforts in our association must be directed.

Serving God as evangels requires power, a motivation, a purpose which God alone can supply. Thus we depend solely upon His Spirit. We daily seek His will as we study His Word and meet with Him alone in prayer. We walk with Him daily and meet regularly as we corporately worship Him with His larger family of faith. We learn of him daily and minister in His name. We give to support His kingdom's work, and through it all evangelism becomes a Christian reality.

Thus, our convention is evangelistic in its approach to ministry. We as a people of God make no apologies for our goal in this regard. Specifically in 1983-84, we as a convention chose as our theme "Growing An Evangelistic Church." In 1984 we emphasized the training of churches in methods of preparation for and the conducting of revivals. The year 1985 will find us conducting Christian witness training for our upcoming "Good News America -- God Loves You" crusades which are to be held throughout our convention in 1986.

This year (March 22-23) in our associaiton, we held a Pastor's Retreat at Caraway in preparation for our spring revival. Also, for the first time ever we held an Associational Evangelism Rally. This meeting, held on August 12, involved persons from 20 or more of our churches and was attended by an estimated 400-450 people for the two sessions.

Our Liberty Baptist Pastor's Conference voted at its last meeting to plan another Associational Evangelism Rally for August 25, 1985 and encourage full participation by all our churches. Pray for this special event and plan to bring your entire church family. Also, we should begin praying for and looking forward to our "Good News America - God Loves You" crusades to be held in 1986.

Campus Ministry Report

Liberty Baptist Association

Your Campus Ministry has begun its third fall at DCCC. Our group is known on campus by the name Alpha Omega, although we function as a Baptist Student Union. We seek to provide Christian fellowship and a witness for Christ to faculty and students. The group seeks to be student centered. It is led by student officers, advised by a faculty member, Dr. Jim Helvey, a member of First Baptist in Lexington and encouraged by volunteer directors, David Clemmons of Abbotts Creek Church and myself.

The group's main focus is campus oriented. This past year we involved some 40 students and had 16 active in various activities. Our weekly meetings are designed to encourage students in their day to day walk with Christ. This past year we had emphases on witnessing and family relationships.

The group sponsored a campus-wide film warning of the dangers of the occult. The most exciting event was our hosting the Eastern Kentucky University BSU Choir. They invaded the campus on a Monday in March with a clown, puppets and beautiful enthusiasm spreading the word about our group. They gave two performances on campus to approximately 150 college folk. The Jersey WMU was brave enough to bring out lunch for 50 hungry young adults that day.

The group also particpated in the campus spring fun day and provided free drinks during fall registration. Winning the Club School Spirit Award for the second consecutive year is one indication that our presence is being felt.

But students live in a world more far reaching than simply the campus. This year we spent a Sunday picnicing with children from York Cottage at Mills Home, sponsored a Skating Party for teenagers from Liberty Association churches and raised $158.00 for Student Summer Missionaries from North Carolina. The group was represented at four State BSU retreats and had two students to be accepted to work on the staff at Caswell.

Our inclusion in the association's budget assures us of your support. Equally important is the opportunity for our group to minister to you. This year four of our churches gave the students an opportunity to minister. We had student teams to lead worship services, teach Sunday School, lead fellowships, and conduct two retreats. I hope that more of the churches will take advantage of the availability of these young adults to use their talents in our Lord's service. They would love a chance to visit each church in any of these capacities.

Again this year we are indebted to the Maurine Perryman WMU group of First Baptist, Thomasville who sponsored a monthly meal for the group. We need a group to adopt us for this year!

Being involved with young adults who love our Lord is a blessing. Their enthusiasm is refreshing and contagious! This weekend eight of us will go to Ridgecrest for the annual Fall Student Convention. Some 700 students from 36 campuses where North Carolina Baptists have work will convene there. They will study and discuss the Christian family, ethical decision-making, world missions, personal stewardship, life-planning, and world issues in Christian perspective. They will also stay up all night! But from this weekend will come some lasting commitments to a Christ centered life and some clearer understanding as to His direction for individual lives. And this group of "poor" and "apathetic" students will be challenged to pledge themselves to raising $48,850 for student-funded mission projects for the summer of '85. Last year students went to Europe and Africa as well as to Alaska, New York, and Kentucky. Others stayed here in North Carolina to work with resort missions and weekday activities for senior citizens, youth, and children.

Someone has aptly stated, "College is not just a question of what you learn, but a question of what you become." This is why we believe that the investment of time and money to student ministry is a wise investment. Students are becoming the leaders of tomorrow. They must be challenged to make life-changing commitments to Christ at this crucial time in life. These commitments will be felt in our church for years to come. Alpha Omega is Liberty Baptist Association developing believers. We covet your prayers.

Gaylin Huff

Resolutions Committee Report

The Liberty Baptist Association, meeting in its 152nd Annual Session on September 25 and 26, at the Rich Fork Baptist Church and the Greenwood Baptist Church, pauses in its deliberations to consider the following resolutions reflecting our feelings and determinations on this day.

Be it resolved:

1. That we express our love and our devotion and our sincere thanksgiving to God, our Heavenly Father, for His grace, love and blessings upon us since last we met together.
2. That we express our sincere appreciation to our host churches, Rich Fork Baptist Church and Greenwood Baptist Church for the very gracious manner in which they have so fully cared for our needs and comfort, and for the adequate and delicious food which they have provided for us.
3. That we express our deep appreciaiton to the Program Committee for a challenging and informative program on "Growing Churches - Strengthening Families."
4. That we express our appreciation to and admiration for the officers of our association, Rev. Brooks Hunt, Moderator, Rev. Morris Hollifield, Clerk, Mr. Dothan Reece, Treasurer, and Rev. Leonard Rollins, our Director of Missions, for the fine way that they have led us and administered the affairs of our association.
5. That we express our appreciation to all those persons who have participated in our program and deliberations, and to all those who have prepared reports to be given to the body or to be included in the minutes or in the book of reports.
6. That we thank and praise God for the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, for their support to the association, financial and otherwise, and to the messengers from the churches who have attended these sessions, and that they will return to their churches better informed, adequately inspired, and sufficiently challenged that "Growing Churches - Strengthening Families" will be more than just a program theme, but will be a program for action ministry for the coming year.

Not written into the report were comments concerning the election of a woman to serve as associational clerk for the first time in 152 years. The following report was adopted by a unanimous standing vote.

" I ask the indulgence of this body for a special resolution of appreciation for a member and officer of this body.

If you look at the historical table of our association since its beginning in 1832, you will see that there have been only 18 men who have served as clerk of this body during the course of its 152-year history. Elder Henry Sheets served for 34 years, Mr. Sam Smith served for 21 years, Elder Azariah Williams served 22 years and Rev. Morris Hollifield has served for 13 years. He is fourth in number of years served in this capacity. All of these men have served admirably in a very demanding task.

For many of us now serving as pastors in this association, Bro. Morris Hollifield is the only associational clerk that we have known. He has been clerk since 1971. He has been a most efficient clerk, a very patient man, and a very helpful leader for our association. The many duties involved in this task would be frightening to most of us, but Morris has accepted them and accomplished them so graciously and we have, many times, accepted the results of his labours without adequately expressing our appreciation. Today we want to correct this oversight.

Morris has now completed his work in this capacity. We want to say 'thank you' for all that you have done for us, we want to tell you how much we love you and will still depend on you, and to say that you have touched many lives in quietly doing your task and serving your Lord in your own way.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we express our heartfelt appreciation to Rev. Morris Hollifield for all of the many ways that he has blessed our lives, for the many talents that he has and has shared with us. For all of the challenges that he has given the churches concerning keeping better records, and for just being the friend of the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association that he has been over these 13 years.

Again, we thank you and as a group, we want to give you a standing vote of appreciation for your work among us."

Yours in His service

Historian's Report

Rich Fork Baptist Church is celebrating its 100th anniversary! We, of the Liberty Baptist Association, are happy to share with them on this joyous occasion as they are hosting the 152nd annual session of the associaiton. We herewith present an historical sketch of the church as it was submitted by Sandi Hanner.

Historical Sketch of Rich Fork Baptist Church: 1884-1984

The constituting of Rich Fork Baptist Church took place on December 28, 1884 as 18 persons met together in a log house three miles west of Thomasville. This meeting was instigated by John Haymes Mills, founder of Thomasville (Mills Home) Orphanage in 1885, as a result of a brush arbor camp meeting Mill attended in the area.

On November 23, 1884 the group of 18 persons who would become the charter members developed plans for a meeting house. The structure was to have dimensions of 18 feet by 38 feet. John H. Mills donated the land on which the church and cemetery were built.

Rich Fork enacted its first regular conference on January 31, 1885. In July of 1885 the church elected its first delegates to the Liberty Baptist Association; the church minutes record the names of these delegates as "Brethren Leigh, Sapp, and Walter Fitzgerald."

Hezekiah Morton served as the first pastor of Rich Fork, and the church called him for service in May 1885. Rev. Morton served on a part-time basis.

In March 1886 Rich Fork elected its first trustees: W.S. Kanoy, A. Leigh, George Leonard, J.H. Mills, and E.S. Sapp. The church elected its first deacons -- W.S. Kanoy and William Bowers -- in April of 1886. In November of 1886, John H. Mills received appointment as the church's first delegate to the State Baptist Convention.

Henry Sheets pastored Rich Fork from 1886 until 1889; his successor was J.D. Newton, who served until 1890. John A. Summey served as pastor from 1891 to 1893, and J.D. Newton was called again to serve in 1893 and 1894.

Elder C.C. Newton, a missionary from Africa, was the first missionary to speak at Rich Fork. He addressed the congregation on March 25, 1893.

Jeff Lanning pastored the church from 1895 until 1896. During his pastorate, the congregation voted "that each member be required to give one bushel of produce on his or her farm or the worth of it for missions" in 1895.

Hezekiah Morton served again at Rich Fork from 1897 to 1898. John R. Miller was pastor from 1898 to 1905. From 1906 through 1907, G.P. Harrell pastored Rich Fork, and he was succeeded by T.S. Crutchfield in 1908. In 1911 the church recalled Henry Sheets as pastor; his second pastorate at Rich Fork endured until 1914. G.A. Martin pastored Rich Fork in 1914, J.M. Hamrick served in 1915, and I.M. Mercer served from 1916 to 1918.

R.E. White served at Rich Fork from 1919 to 1922. During his pastorate, the church sent its first delegate to a Southern Baptist Convention: In 1920, Mills Newton attended the meeting in Washington, D.C.

W.L. Barrs served as pastor of Rich Fork from 1923 until 1927. In 1923 the church voted to initiate construction of a new church building -- a brick structure which cost twenty thousand dollars. Rich Fork celebrated the laying of the cornerstone for the new building on April 16, 1927.

R.C. Foster came to pastor the Rich Fork congregation in 1927, resigning in 1928. E.F. Mumford served as pastor from 1930 until 1931.

Clyde Eddinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Eddinger, became the first Rich Fork member to receive ordination into the ministry; he was licensed to preach in December of 1931 and his ordination occurred in January of 1933. Since that time, Rich Fork witnessed the ordination of the following persons into the ministry: Jimmy Edwards, Hoyle Tate, Bobby Williard, Jimmy Sumney, and Danny Dalton.

R.L. West pastored the Rich Fork body from 1932 through 1934. Samuel J. Erwin became pastor in September of 1934, and he served until 1935.

E.N.C. Andrews served as pastor in 1935. In 1937 Walter L. Warfford was called to serve as pastor, serving until 1938.

With the coming of T.W. Bray as pastor in 1938, Rich Fork launched into a program which called for pastors to serve on a full-time basis. At this time the church voted to construct a parsonage, and this structure was built beside the church. In 1976 the church purchased a new parsonage, located two miles from the church.

Members from Rich Fork, along with members of First Baptist Church in Thomasville, worked together in 1943 to organize West End Mission. In 1946 West End Mission was constituted as Greenwood Baptist Church.

T.W. Bray resigned in 1943, and V.W. Sears was called as pastor, serving from 1944 until 1947. In 1948 Rich Fork called J. Harvey Clark as pastor, and he served until 1955. During his pastorate, an educational building was added to the church structure, and the departmentalization of the Sunday School was enacted.

Inman Stewart was interim pastor after Rev. Clark's resignation. R.L. Bowen served as pastor from 1955 until 1958, and Dr. C.M. Pegram served as interim pastor upon Rev. Bowen's resignation. Sam O'Neal pastored Rich Fork from 1960 until September of 1961. Dr. F.M. Powell worked as interim pastor until May of 1962, at which time the church called James Helvey, Jr., as pastor.

During Rev. Helvey's pastorate, in the fall of 1965, construction was begun for a new educational building. This structure was completed by December of 1966.

Rev. Helvey resigned in 1968, and Fred Culler served as interim pastor. In November of 1968 Rich Fork called Melvin Greene as pastor, and he served until 1979.

Rich Fork employed its first youth director -- Pam McCall -- in 1970. In 1972 the church called Richard (Mugsy) Davis as minister of music and youth, and he served through 1974.

The church purchased an activity bus in 1973. The bus has been used for youth choir tours, as well as for transportation for various activities among various other groups in the church.

In 1974 the Woman's Missionary Union at Rich Fork initiated an outreach ministry in which church worship services were recorded on cassette tapes and the tapes delivered to shut-ins. This ministry continues today.

Danny Dalton was called as associate pastor in charge of music and youth in 1974, and he served until 1982.

Rich Fork began a program of worship for children – "Children's Church" – in 1976. These activities take place in the educational building of the church each Sunday morning during the worship hour.

Upon Rev. Greene's resignation in 1979, Danny Dalton served as interim pastor. The church called Dr. Dennis E. Kenney to serve as pastor in 1981.

In 1982 Rich Fork called its first minister of education and outreach – J. Byron Barker.

Dr. Kenney resigned in 1983, and in May of that year the church called J. Byron Barker to serve as pastor.

In January of 1984 the church called Tom and Crystal Capps to serve as directors of music, youth, and education. Mr. and Mrs. Capps had previously been employed by the Baptist Children's Homes.

In the spring of 1984, Rich Fork initiated construction work for major renovations of the church worship center; the work is scheduled for completion in the fall of 1984.

Historian's Report

Wednesday, September 26, 1984

It is an interesting note that the Liberty Baptist Association is hosted this year by Rich Fork Baptist Church celebrating its 100th anniversary and by Greenwood Baptist Church, which was co-sponsored as a mission under the leadership of Rich Fork Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church of Thomasville. We present a brief history of Greenwood Baptist Church with information provided by church clerk, Mrs. Maxine Hudson.

A Brief History of Greenwood Baptist Church

In the year of 1943, two men of God bowed in a wooded area at the edge of Thomasville, North Carolina, and prayed that there might some day be a Baptist church in that area. These men were Rev. F.A. Maier, retired minister in First Baptist Church of Thomasville, and Rev. T.W. Bray, pastor of Rich Fork Baptist Church. About three or four months later, a group of people from these two churches co-sponsored a mission Sunday School which met on Sunday afternoons and preaching was held every other Sunday.

Dr. W.K. McGee, pastor of First Baptist Church in Thomasville wrote to Dr. M.A. Huggins of Raleigh and asked him to send someone from the State Mission Board, or department, to preach in a revival meeting. Rev. Douglas Branch, regional missionary with the State Mission Board, came for a two-week meeting, at which time they organized into a mission known as the West End Mission. Rev. Inman Stewart was elected as superintendent of the mission.

On Sunday, August 11, 1946, a major turning point toward the formation of the Greenwood Baptist Church took place. The people, with unanimous and enthusiastic approval, vited to organize into a church. Rev. David Oldham was called as pastor of the mission and served along with a Missions Committee of five to confer with the associational committee regarding the formation of a Baptist church.

On Thursday, November 21, 1946, upon request from the people of the mission and their pastor, a conference was held to consider finalizing the organization of a Baptist church. The conference voted unanimously to move ahead with the organization as soon as possible.

On Sunday, November 24, 1946, at 2:30 in the afternoon, West End Mission came into being as a fully organized church and was called Greenwood Baptist Church. It was truly a day of Thanksgiving for the people of the congregation. Rev. David W. Oldham was called as the first pastor. There were 43 charter members.

The following men have served as pastor of the Greenwood Baptist Church:

Rev. David W. Oldham	1946 - 1956
Rev. Raymond Crow	1956 - 1961
Rev. Parks Harris	1961 - 1966
Rev. Paul J. Hopkins	1967 - 1969
Rev. James O'Tuel	1970 - 1972
Rev. Edgar Christy	1972 - 1981
Rev. Joel Fisher	1982 - Present

Constitution

(Adopted September 29, 1954 - Revised October 1, 1969 and October 1, 1975)

PREAMBLE

We, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, unite ourselves according to the plan and for the purpose and work of the New Testament churches in our world, and to this end to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention, according to the following Articles:

ARTICLE I — NAME

The name of this body shall be the Liberty Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership shall be composed of the Baptist churches now holding membership and any other Baptist churches which may be received into the Association according to the subsequent provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches or reject churches according to its Constitution and Bylaws. Member churches may also withdraw at their pleasure. Any church in the Association which fails to cooperate with the Association for a period of two consecutive years shall be contacted by a committee appointed by the Association, to ascertain the wishes and desires of the church relative to continuance in the Association.

A cooperating church is one which sends a report to the Annual Session, sends messengers to the Annual Session, and contributes to the financial program of the Association.

ARTICLE III — MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday in September.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided sufficient notice is given the member churches to permit them two Sundays between the call and the meeting.

Section 3. In emergencies, any change in the time and/or place of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV — COMPOSITION OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The official voting body shall be composed of messengers from the member churches as follows. Five messengers from each church for its first one hundred members or fraction thereof, one additional messenger for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof up to 1,000 members, and one additional messenger for each additional hundred members or major fraction above 1,000; all ordained ministers of member churches; and the officers of the Association.

Section 2. The names of the messengers printed in the minutes shall include only those actually attending and registering at the Association from the number elected by the churches.

ARTICLE V — OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the Association shall be Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, and Historian.

Section 2. The election of the Clerk shall be the first item of business in the first session of the Association. He shall be elected for a one-year term. Other officers shall be elected on the last day of the annual meeting for terms of one year each. They shall be contacted and nominated by the Committee on Nominations (Bylaws 8, Section 2, (6), which shall consider the duly elected heads of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union as the committee's nominees for election as the Association's Officers also.

Section 3. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Associational meeting at which elected and shall serve until the close of the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. Any person serving or having served two full annual terms as Moderator shall be ineligible for re-election to this office for a period of two full years.

ARTICLE VI — TRUSTEES AND THEIR ELECTION

There shall be three trustees of the Association, one preferably a lawyer, serving of six years each in a rotating system. Upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, one new trustee shall be elected at the annual meeting in each even year to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of one of the three; no trustee being eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of two full years. The expiration date of each trustee shall appear by his name in the Associational minutes.

ARTICLE VII — THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Committee shall be composed of all Associational officers, the Director of Associational Missions (ex officio), each active pastor, church treasurer, and one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the Association in it annual report. The officers of the Executive Committee shall be the Associational Moderator, Vice Moderator, and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII — POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

This Association of churches shall have no power to infringe upon the rights of usefulness of any church or churches. All churches of the Association remain independent and sovereign. Cooperating churches unite here only that they may more effectively promote Christ's cause throughout the world. The Association may advise or offer recommendations for their adoption and guidance, but these cannot be binding on the churches in any way. (This is not to be interpreted as in conflict with Article II, Section 2.)

ARTICLE IX — AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendments are presented in writing and read at one session, as due notice, to be acted upon at a subsequent session.

Bylaws

BYLAW I — PARLIAMENTARY RULES

Where the Constitution and Bylaws and special orders of the Association do not prescribe otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order, Revised shall be followed as the Association's rules for conducting its deliberative assemblies.

BYLAW II — ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

For the purpose of determining the period of time to be covered by the annual reports of the Associational officers and church letters to the Association, the Associational year shall begin September 1 and close August 31.

BYLAW III — NEW CHURCHES

Section 1. Any church seeking admission to the membership of the Association shall petition in writing the Executive Committee at least three months before the annual meeting of the Association, which petition shall be referred to the Missions Committee for its study of the petitioning church's covenant, articles of faith, history, practices, cooperative spirit, its relations to other churches of the Association and its willingness to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association. The Missions Committee shall then report to the Association with a copy thereof submitted to the Associational Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the Association, its findings and recommendations for Associational action at the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Each church applying for membership in the Association, upon approval shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year. Each church received under a watchcare relationship shall submit a quarterly report to the Mission Committee of the Association and also submit the annual Associational letter at the end of the year.

BYLAW IV — DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the body according to the Constitution and Bylaws, appoint the Committee on Nominations at the closing session, shall be chairman of the Executive Committee and be an ex officio member of all other committees. As presiding officer he shall discharge such other duties as may be given him by the Association.

Section 2. The Vice Moderator shall preside in the absence, or at the pleasure of the Moderator and shall be Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least a month before the Association's annual meeting; distribute at the annual meeting mimeographed copies of the composite record of the member churches taken from their annual reports; make accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distribution to the member churches copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the annual meeting; keep in file and turn over to his successor the printed minutes and other records and documents of the Association; and shall be secretary of the Executive Committee and a member of the Missions Committee.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association; distribute the same upon instructions from the Association, its Executive Committee oras designated; render a mimeographed, itemized report of receipts and disbursements for distribution at the annual meeting of the Association; keep his books always in shape and available for examination of the Executive Committee, and be a member of the Finance and Missions Committee.

Section 5. The Historian shall collect and preserve historial data on the Association and its churches, and shall make a written report to each annual meeting of the Association.

Section 6. The Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, and Church Music Director shall promote their work in keeping with Southern Baptist Standards for their respective organizations, make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association, and serve on the Missions Committee.

BYLAW V — DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Section 1. The Association shall, when possible and expedient, employ a Director of Associational Missions. His selection shall be upon recommendation of the Missions Committee and on vote by the Association at its annual meeting, or between the meetings of the Association, by its Executive Committee. He shall be a member of all committees and organizations of the Association in a serving and advisory capacity. The relationship between the Association and its Director of Associational Missions may be terminated by either party upon the giving of reasonable notice.

Section 2. The Director of Associational Missions shall, under the direction of the Missions Committee, promote the work of the Association and denomination, cooperating with the churches, their pastors and officers, and Associational committees and organizations. He shall make oral reports to the Missions and Executive Committees in their quarterly meetings. He shall also make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association.

Section 3. He may assist the Clerk, by mutual consent, in preparing the composite record of member churches taken from the annual reports, and in preparing the annual minutes of the Association.

BYLAW VI — ANNUAL REPORTS

The persons to prepare reports for the annual meeting of the Association shall present the same in writing for inclusion in the printed Book of Reports, these reports to be limited to 250 words each.

BYLAW VII — TRUSTEES

The Trustees' duties shall be to hold title to the property for the Association and to handle the legal matters of the Association with the Association's foreknowledge and approval; and to comply with the Constitution and Bylaws of the body, and with state laws as they affect the Association. The trustees shall be responsible for keeping the property in good state of repair at all times, but shall not exceed expenditures of more than $500.00 on any major item without approval of Association.

BYLAW VIII — COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

(1) The duties of this committee shall be to act for the Association in all matters of business and activities between annual meetings, to call the Association in special session when necessary, to fill any vacancies that may occur between annual meetings among the Associational officers, the Executive Committee or the Committee on Nominations. It may elect the Director of Associational Missions when a vacancy occurs in accordance with Bylaws VI, Section 1. It shall present a written report to the Association in annual meeting for its approval.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly, the first meeting being as soon as possible after the annual meeting of the Association, on call of the Moderator of the Association (Bylaw IV, Section 1), and the last meeting being as near as possible to the next annual meeting of the Association for approving its report to the annual meeting.

Section 2. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS:

The Committee shall seek to avoid duplications and to distribute as widely as possible the obligations and privileges of service called for in this section. The duties of this committee shall be:

(1) To contact and nominate to the next annual meeting of the Association, on the last day, the officers of the Association, and its standing committees, naming their chairman, (Missions, Program, Place and Preacher, Resolutions, Finance, Memorials, Ordination Examining Council, and Christian Life and Public Affairs) these committes serving for the year following their election.

(2) To nominate trustees according to Article VI of the Constitution.

(3) To nominate such other special committees as may be authorized unless otherwise provided.

(4) To nominate, on the last day of the annual meeting, the persons to prepare reports for the next annual meeting of the Association following their election, on American Bible Society, Annuity Board, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Baptist Foundation, Baptist Homes for Aging, Baptist Hospital, Christian Education, Christian Literature, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and State Missions.

(5) To fill vacancies which may occur between annual meetings of the Association on committees and among persons to prepare or bring annual reports which are nominated by this Committee on Nominations.

(6) This committee's nominations, however, shall not preclude other nominations from the floor.

Section 3. THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE:

(1) This committee shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, Treasurer, Clerk, and also the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and four member churches to be elected by the Association at its annual meeting for one, two, three, and four years respectively on a rotating system. After their election one new member shall be elected each year to serve for a period of four years. It shall supervise and work with the Director of Associational Missions in promoting the work of the Association and lead and assist in organizing new churches.

(2) It shall meet once a quarter to receive a report from the Director of Associational Missions and make helpful suggestions to him concerning his work.

(3) If advice is sought, it shall advise a group seeking to organize a new church, or seek to help any member church desiring assistance in its problems.

(4) It shall perform the duties prescribed for it in Bylaw III and Bylaw V, Section 1.

Section 4. THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

This committee shall be composed of three members and Moderator, Clerk, Church Music Director, and host pastors. It shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program at least 10 days before the annual meeting. It shall, in the opening of the annual meeting of the Association, present the printed program for adoption and serve through the session when adjustments in the program become necessary.

Section 5. THE PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the Association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the annual sermon.

Section 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall draw up and present to the Association resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient. Also, all resolutions and recommendations for consideration presented at the annual meeting shall be referred to this committee.

Section 7. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members and the Treasurer. It shall study the Association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the Association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in the raising of the budget, audit the Treasurer's books at the close of the Associational year, inform member churches of their record of giving, and make a written report to the annual meeting.

Section 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall bring a suitable report at the annual meeting and shall lead in a memorial service in memory of those reported by the churches to have died since the last annual meeting.

Section 9. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of the Director of Associational Missions, who shall serve as chairman, the Moderator and directors of associational organizations. Its duties shall be to plan and correlate the activities of the Associational organization.

Section 10. CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of three members, whose duty it shall be to keep the Association informed of matters pertaining to civic righteous and public morals.

BYLAW IX — AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Bylaws may be made at any session of the annual meeting of the Association when presented in writing and approved by a majority of the messengers present and voting.

Standing Resolutions

Ordination of New Ministers

It is strongly recommended as the position of this Association:

1. That, when a church desires to put forth a candidate for examination and approval for ordination to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, an Examining Council composed of a committee of five elected by the Association in annual meeting, plus the pastors and one layman from each cooperating church in the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association, be summoned by written invitation of at least one week in advance from the church nominating the candidate.

2. That the examination of the candidate be conducted by the Examining Council and that a report of its findings be given to the nominating church. If the report is favorable the nominating church will set the date of ordination and notify the member churches.

3. That we ordain only those who have received a definite call to become a pastor, an associate pastor, or an educational director of a Baptist church on regular standing in the Association or those who have felt a call to the mission field, the chaplaincy of our armed forces or the chaplaincy of a public institution whose church shall have requested in writing his ordination before the call of the ordaining council shall be approved.

Policies for the Establishment of Missions

1. Definite sponsorship by an established church.
2. Sponsoring church to work in cooperation with Associational Missions Committee.
3. Sponsoring church to retain control of Mission until such time as the church and the Associational Missions Committee agree that the Mission is self-sufficient.
4. Sponsoring church to call Mission pastor and select all workers in the Mission.
5. Sponsoring church to encourage Mission from the beginning to give a definite percentage of the offering plate dollar through the Cooperative Program and Associational Missions.
6. Sponsoring church should insist upon a full and well-defined program of Southern Baptist Work in the Mission, using the Southern Baptist literature.
7. Sponsoring church to work with the Associational Missions Committee in properly locating the Mission.
8. Sponsoring church to work with the Mission in planning of new buildings, using the services of the Church Planning Department of the Baptist State Convention.

Organization and Admission of New Churches

Recognizing the right of the Association to determine its own membership and being aware of the importance of the manner in which the churches are organized, we recommend that any group of individuals desiring to organize themselves into a new church with the purpose of seeking recognition of and fellowship and cooperation with the Association be requested to meet the following standards:

1. Notice shall be given to the Moderator of the desire to organize a church before any such organization takes place. The Moderator will then ask the Missions Committee to study and pass upon the need for and the practicability of such an organization.

2. That the location of said church shall be sufficiently removed so as not to interfere with the work or encroach upon the territory of the churches already affiliated with the Association. This will be determined by the Missions Committee.

3. Upon being approved by the Missions Committee the group will then request this committee to examine the church covenant, articles of faith, and constitution (if a constitution has been adopted) of the proposed church. Should the committee approve the covenant, articles of faith, and constitution, the group will proceed at a later date to be constituted into a Baptist church of the same faith and order.

This Annual Is Dedicated In Honor Of

and Reverend Morris Hollifield

DOTHAN D. REECE

Dothan D. Reece has served the Liberty Baptist Association as treasurer since September 1964. Dothan is senior vice president, secretary and a director of Lexington State Bank, Lexington, North Carolina.

A native of Yadkin County, Dothan spent his early life in Jonesville where he graduated from high school. He was an active member of Jonesville First Baptist Church. Dothan is the son of the late Lela Davis Reece and Rev. D.G. Reece.

Following graduation, Dothan served in the U.S. Naval Reserve for three years during World War II, spending two years in the South Pacific.

Dothan and his wife, the former Mary Frances Absher, have made their home in Lexington since 1949. They have three daughters and two grandchildren. They formerly lived in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where Dothan studied accounting and was later employed by a bank. While living in Winston-Salem, they were active members of the First Baptist Church.

Dothan and his family have been members of the First Baptist Church since locating in Lexington. He has served as teacher in the intermediate department, director of church training, president of church brotherhood, class president, and deacon, having served as moderator of the church.

A very active civic leader, Dothan has served as president of the Lexington Civitan Club, president of Lexington Retail Merchants Association, member of the advisory board of the Salvation Army, director and treasurer of the Developmental Center for the Handicapped, as well as many other civic and charitable organizations.

Dothan relaxes by playing golf, reading and working in his yard.

MORRIS HOLLIFIELD

Morris Hollifield served as clerk for the Liberty Baptist Association, September 28, 1971 to September 25, 1984. During the 152-year history only 18 men have served as clerk. One served 34 years, one served 22 years, one served 21 years, and Brother Hollifield served 13 years.

Rev. Hollifield was born at Chesnee, South Carolina. He graduated from Chesnee High School, attended Mars Hill Junior College and earned the B.A. degree from Wake Forest University. He holds the B.D. and Th.M. degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Further graduate study was carried on at the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, and in the Department of Clinical Pastoral Education at Dorothea Dix Hospital. He is married to the former Hannah Brown of Chesnee, South Carolina. They have two children, Hannah Jeanne and Jeffrey Morris.

Upon completion of Junior College, he worked three years for Duke Power Co., then served two years in the Army's 20th Engineer Combat Battalion during Korea, and on March 21, 1957 was discharged from the U.S. Army Reserve after serving as First Sergeant with Battery B, 506th FA Battalion.

Rev. Hollifield's ministry began with pulpit supply while a student in Seminary. His pastorates include the Momeyer Baptist Church, 1957-66; First Baptist Church, Church Hill, Tennessee, 1966-70; and the Jersey Baptist Church at Lexington since July 1970. He has conducted revivals in South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, and West Virginia. For five years he led mission teams in Dailey, West Virginia, and the latter part of 1978 was interim pastor for the Anderson Memorial Baptist Church in Schweinfurt, Germany.

On the associational level he has served as moderator, clerk, VBS director, president of Ministers' Conference, and director of World Missions Conference in 1978 and 1985. At the state level he served four years on the General Board, three years on the Executive Committee, three years on the Budget Committee, three years as chairman of the Missions Committee and the Fruitland Committee. He chaired two General Board Committees: NCMO Study Committee and the Committee to Study the Relationship of Convention President and the General Secretary to the Agencies and Institutions.

Honors include listing in Who's Who in North Carolina 1973, and Who's Who in Religion 1977. In March of 1985 he was presented the Leadership Award by the Convention's Church Extension Department during the Annual Church Growth Conference.

Proceedings

One Hundred Fifty-third Annual Session

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 24, 1985
MILLS HOME BAPTIST CHURCH
Thomasville, North Carolina

The Reverend Brooks Hunt sounded the gavel as the 153rd Annual Session of the Liberty Baptist Association began.

"Good News America, God Loves You" was introduced as the theme welcoming messengers, guests and members of the 43 churches of the Liberty Association.

Al Martin, minister of music of First Baptist Church, Lexington, led the congregation in singing "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine."

Rev. Leonard Rollins introduced Manuel Cunnup, Director of Missions of the Piedmont Association, as the guest worship leader. Rev. Cunnup relived the birth of Southern Baptists as seen through the eyes of Shubel Sterns.

The 153rd annual session was constituted and the program was accepted as the order for proceedings.

Rev. Hugh Biggers nominated Mrs. Judy Wood as associational clerk. The nomination was seconded and carried.

New pastors and staff members were recognized: Blaine Taylor, minister of music and education at New Friendship; Bill Lewis, pastor of High Rock; Gary Myers, pastor of Victory; William K. Highbaugh, minister of music, Thomasville, First; Angela Pless, minister of children and youth, First Baptist Church, Welcome. A word of welcome to the Liberty Association was given by Rev. Leonard Rollins.

Associational treasurer, Dothan Reece gave an impressive treasurer's report. Chairman of the Finance Committee presented the proposed 1985-86 budget noting that changes reflect an 11% increase. The proposed budget was adopted.

Reports were heard from the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee.

Al Martin led in the singing of "Victory in Jesus." Immediately following, Rev. Max Evington welcomed everyone to Mills Home.

The floor was opened for miscellaneous business. There was none.

Special music was presented by Mr. Al Martin, Dr. Ralph Ashley and Mrs. Sidney Minner.

Roy Smith, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention, Cary, gave the afternoon message. The theme focused on the fact that we are in the midst of history and sometimes miss the significance of it. Jersey Church just celebrated a 230th anniversary, the Children's Home will soon celebrate a 100th anniversary and the Liberty Association is in its 153rd year. Through associations we learn cooperation and have the opportunity for cooperative ventures. "The most important gathering in Baptist life, other than the local congregation is the Baptist association," Smith said. In reference to the commitment we have to share the Gospel with the whole world, Smith said that many doors are opening in the world and it is his desire to have the "kind of commitment that will match the challenge He (the Lord) has set before us. So as the Father has sent me so send I you."

Following the benediction by Rev. Morris Hollifield, the session was dismissed for supper.

TUESDAY EVENING

Again, welcome was extended to messengers and guests from the 43 churches. It was reported 235 messengers and 48 visitors were in attendance.

Al Martin led in the singing of "Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

"Shubal Sterns" shared with us our heritage.

In miscellaneous business it was reported that 25 persons had gone to Jamaica and Grenada this summer and were eager to speak to groups or organizations.

Mrs. Gaylin Huff, expressed appreciation of support to the Alpha and Omega (BSU) at Davidson County Community College. Mrs. Huff showed slides and shared their endeavors in Bronx, New York during a spring mission trip.

Dr. Dearl Bunce expressed excitement about the simultaneous revivals March 23-30, 1985, "Good News America, God Loves You."

Director of Missions Rollins gave the book of reports. Members of the Sunday School ASSISTeam were presented with certificates: Dr. David Whiteman, Mr. John Yates, Mr. Ron Richardson, Mrs. Gaylin Huff, Mrs. Sharon Hill, Mrs. Mary Lou Dickey and Rev. Andy Royals. Rev. Rollins gave emphasis to the first paragraph of the report. He shared a humorous Togo experience. The spirit of giving to the budget was greatly felt during this year. He also expressed expectations as four ministry support groups have been established during the year.

Al Martin led in the singing of "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

Mrs. Sara Knapp gave the History Report of Mills Home Church.

Dr. Michael Blackwell led in the celebration of the N.C. Baptist Children's Home 100th birthday. Mr. Larry Sawyer shared invitations for special occasions during the celebration. Wonderful stories and testimonies were given by former Children Home residents, David and Kim Childress, and Joe Knight. Bill and Billy Caudle led the Children's Home choir in several songs. Dr. Blackwell gave the evening message using Acts 16:25-34 as his text.

Benediction was offered by Rev. George Williamson.

WEDNESDAY MORNING - SEPTEMBER 25, 1985
CEDAR LODGE BAPTIST CHURCH
Thomasville, North Carolina

In the absence of Rev. Brooks Hunt, Vice Moderator Rev. Roy Cantrell opened the session.

Al Martin led in singing, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" and "Breathe on Me."

Rev. Manuel Cunnup shared again a story from "Shubal Sterns."

Rev. George Williamson, interim pastor for Cedar Lodge and Rev. John Wheeles, pastor of Hillside Park, gave words of welcome.

The Nominating Committee Report, as presented by Rev. Hugh Biggers, was accepted.

Rev. Earle Rogers, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, gave their report.

Rev. Warren Kerr announced that next years meeting would be at Carolina Memorial Baptist Church on September 30 and at Hasty Baptist Church, October 1. Rev. Roy Cantrell would give the annual message with Rev. Eugene Elmore as alternate.

Mrs. Sara Knapp gave the historical backgrounds of Cedar Lodge Baptist Church and Hillside Park Baptist Church.

Miscellaneous business:

The Treasurer's Report and the Book of Reports given on Tuesday evening were accepted.

People from the five churches involved in mission trips were asked to stand.

The association is involved in support of the pastor of a church in the pioneer area of West Virginia by way of an one-year commitment for life and health insurance. This will also be an opportunity for ongoing mission involvement.

The Resolutions Committee gave words of appreciation to Mr. Dothan Reece for 21 years of service and wish to honor and recognize Mr. Reece and Rev. Morris Hollifield and former associational clerk with a picture and biographical sketch in the 1985 minutes.

Rev. Mark Blair, chairman of the Memorials Committee, led in a tribute to the deceased members. Al Martin led in singing "We're Marching to Zion."

Special guests giving reports were: Calvin Knight, N.C. Baptist Hospital; Jim Saul, N.C. Baptist Retirement Homes; Jo Clontz, Youth and Campus Ministries, N.C. Baptist State Convention; Bob Lowman, Wingate College.

The Senior Adult Choir from First Baptist Lexington began a time of worship with an anthem from the Senior Adult Musical, "More Than Ever Before." Rev. Jake Sharpe read the scriptures and Rev. B.V. Broadway gave the annual sermon based on II Samuel 21:1-14, "The Wonder of God's Love." We are living during a time with the greatest resources ever known to man and with the greatest abilities and power to use these resources, why, because of that love.

Benediction and blessing was offered by George Dowd.

Executive Committee Report

The Executive Committee of the Liberty Baptist Association has met four times since the last annual meeting in September 1984. Each meeting was held at the associational office and began with a time of devotion and prayer.

The first meeting was November 19, 1984.

The Treasurer's Report showed a closing balance in October as $10,957.40.

It was reported that 13 churches participated in the Sunday School Enlargement Campaign. Positive results were heard as a result of this exciting campaign. Andy Royals was elected as our Associational Sunday School Outreach Director, the motion carried.

The World Hunger Conference, November 9 and 10, was attended by 31 persons with nine churches represented.

The Missions Committee announced that a decision must be made by the middle of December as to continuing the Baptist Hour. Betty Bradshaw of the Missions Committee made a recommendation that we send our associational missionary to Togo in March. Explanation was given of the partnership with Togo and North Carolina and how Leonard will come back and share from experience. He will be teaching and preaching and working with church leaders.

It was recommended and approved that Leonard Rollins be sent by our association to Togo in February or March. It was also stated that if Leonard was allowed to go that there would be a volunteer from the Reeds Church to go also. Leonard expressed strong concerns that the association be assured that this is not a pleasure trip. He explained of preparation needed for the living conditions that must be endured while there. Those present voted to send Leonard Rollins (round trip as per Polly's request) to Togo.

Rev. Rollins read a thank you letter from a black church that was sent 25 hymnals.

Gary Myers from Trinity Church has been called to Victory Church as pastor. The Ordination Council is scheduled for November 25.

Morris Hollifield read a letter concerning the World Missions Conference. Participation was encouraged and to work together to enable all to be involved.

The second meeting was January 21, 1985.

The treasurer reported a balance of $11,902.28. Twenty churches have responded with $1,397.47 designated for the Togo project.

Rev. Rollins explained that the N.C. Convention through Willcox Travel Agency in Asheville, has made a reservation for the air fare, overnight lodging in Amsterdam on return and lodging on the mission site for a total package deal of $1,710.45. Other expenses include passport and a yellow fever shot. A motion was made to set a goal of $2,400.00 with the understanding that any unused funds be channeled to World Hunger.

A motion authorizing the treasurer to pay the bills for Togo as they were due was accepted and carried.

Rev. Rollins explained his duties would be to use discipleship material for new Christians in that culture, there are many new Christians baptized with no assistance since baptism, create new mission sites and churches. Upon return he is to make suggested changes in materials.

The W.M.U. was charged with the responsibility of organizing a Day of Prayer and a Daily Prayer Ministry among the 43 associational churches during the time that Leonard and Gene Smith are away.

Associational Training School is scheduled for February 25 and 26 with credit given in age groups for the Basic book series. The age group conferences will be led by Mary Lou Dickey, Sharon Hill, Gaylin Huff, John Yates, Andy Royals and David Whiteman.

Leonard Rollins also gave the following reports: Lottie Moon Christmas offering total of $111,821. The 1983 goal was set at $100,000 and a pledge made never to set the goal below that amount. Two churches have given $12,000 plus for Lottie Moon, one church at $9,286 and one church at $11,000. From the Missions Committee, there was discussion about the prison ministry. The associational treasurer has received $580 designated for this ministry, this has been forwarded.

The Baptist Hour, June-December cost the association $780 with $200 received for this ministry. There has been interest shown in the Christian quality programing on a "non-Christian" oriented station. Only one major appeal has been made to our churches requesting support of this program. Leonard stated that this is a very good quality program and that it was identified as being made possible by the Southern Baptist churches of the Liberty Association.

A motion was passed that we agree to support the program through the first quarter of 1985 and in addition make a more aggressive effort to make known to congregations the quality of this program and the need for financial support through our association.

The third meeting was May 20, 1985.

Associational treasurer, Dothan Reece, gave a report of total funds available.

Total Funds Available	$49,714.19
Total Expenses	38,689.87
Leaving a balance of	$11,024.32

Associational W.M.U. reported the Associational G.A. Mission Adventures night for parents and G.A.'s was held at Coggins Memorial Church. Churchland Church hosted an associational Acteen Lock-in. March 15 and 16 were the dates of the State Annual W.M.U. Session in Winston-Salem. Several Acteens attended the State Acteen Convention at Ridgecrest. April 29 was the 79th Annual Associational W.M.U. Session at New Friendship. Mrs. Saralyn Collins led an Acteens Prayer Retreat at the Agro-Care Lodge in Lexington.

Associational R.A. Director reported eight churches participating in the associational track meet on April 27. Abbotts Creek was the points winner, Liberty second and Smith Grove third. Our association was represented at the state meet by Abbotts Creek, Liberty and Thomasville, First. The R.A. boys from Liberty Church represented our association at the Crusader Congress and raced their cars in March.

Leonard Rollins reported on preparations for "Good News America" emphasis; associational Key Leadership Conference scheduled for July 22, Rich Fork Church, nine conferences will be offered; the annual sessions September 24 and 25 are being planned by the Program Committee; the second day is planned for Cedar Lodge with Hillside Park as co-host; the Northern Davidson Crusade with John Wesley White is scheduled for June 16-23; there were 30 present on May 16 for the Pastor's Appreciation luncheon hosted by the associational church secretaries; Vacation Bible School Clinic had 146 in attendance.

Deep regrets were expressed for the turn of events concerning Ron Beutel and the prison ministry. Good News Mission has sent a letter of termination concerning our local prison ministry also requesting that no more funds be sent to Good News Mission. Carl Hemphill made a motion that the balance of $400 in the budget designated for prison ministry be retained as it is until further instructions concerning a local prison ministry.

A motion was made and passed that we continue to sponsor the Baptist Hour. It was discussed that this program time is in great demand and of the need for our association to support this high quality programing. It was requested that the Missions Committee explore further audience response to the program.

Application for Pastoral Assistance for Trinity Church was presented. A request for $1,440 from the Baptist State Convention for the 1986 calendar year was read. A motion to approve the application was made and approved.

In response to his Togo trip, Leonard expressed great appreciation of support through prayers, calls, flowers, invitations to eat, notes, for Polly and Jo Carrol Smith during his and Gene's trip. The support was tremendous and they are grateful. He reported that 36 of the 43 churches responded financially. There remains a balance of $687.19 in the treasury.

Lamar Moore made a motion to send the balance as designated for World Hunger. Roy Cantrell amended the motion that the gift to World Hunger be designated for Togo-World Hunger. The amended motion was accepted and carried.

The fourth meeting was September 16, 1985.

Retiring treasurer, Dothan Reece, gave a yearly summation of the financial report:

Total receipts	$63,611.10
Balance forward	10,721.90
Total Available	74,333.00
Total Expenses	58,222.85
Balance August '85	$16,110.15

A report from the Missions Committee brought to attention the need of a united and cooperative effort to help support the pastor of Union Chapel Baptist Church, Bluefield, West Virginia with health and life insurance. This expense would be $176.67 a month. After explanation and discussion, recommendation from the Missions Committee was to ask our churches for commitments to help underwrite the cost of health and life insurance. Rev. Dearl Bunce made a motion that the recommendation be accepted from the Missions Committee. Morris Hollifield suggested we make a commitment to accept financial responsibility for 1986. Rev. Bunce accepted this suggestion in his motion. The motion was carried.

The associational W.M.U. director reported that eight attended the Associational W.M.U. Council Leadership Training at Caraway. On August 26 there was a Prayer Retreat at Center Hill Church. The joint W.M.U. and Brotherhood workshop was attended by 200 persons.

Associational Brotherhood Director, reported on a very successful Key Leadership Conference. The Baptist Men's conference was attended by 15 men representing 12 churches. Brotherhood programs are showing improvement.

Associational R.A. director reported three churches attending the camping trip to Caraway. At the W.M.U. and Brotherhood Leadership conferences there were 29 Crusader and Pioneer leaders representing 11 churches. N.C. Baptist Men and R.A.'s are second only to Texas.

Rev. Dearl Bunce gave an enthusiastic report on the Evangelism Rally at Reeds Church, August 26. There were in excess of 500 persons attending. Plans are to have an annual Evangelism Rally, program suggestions are welcome. Rev. Bunce encouraged participation in the Good News America Campaign during March 1986.

Rev. Morris Hollifield announced four missionary cancellations for the World Missions Conferences, but stated substitutions are being made. Pastors and wives and church transportation committee chairman and guest are encouraged to attend a Mission Rally beginning with dinner, October 5 at Center Hill Church.

Rev. Leonard Rollins expressed appreciation to Morris Hollifield on being the director of the World Missions Conferences. Rev. Rollins made the following announcements: The Ordaining Council is to meet September 22, First Baptist Church, Denton to examine Bill Lewis who has been called as pastor of High Rock Church. September 29 is the end of the 8.5 by '85 campaign. The state and Southern Baptist Convention have asked for reports as of that Sunday. The Nominating Committee welcomes suggestions for these vacancies: Associational Youth Director, Baptist Foundation Director, Children's Director for the Sunday School ASSISTeam.

Rev. Rollins expressed grateful appreciation to Dothan Reece for 21 years of dedicated service.

Leonard has shared his Togo experience 44 times with two commitments outstanding, also has been to Briarcliff Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia and will go in December to First Baptist Church, New Bern, North Carolina.

Rev. Rollins gave information about the establishment of a scholarship fund for Cecil Staton.

Rev. Rollins, noting there is no immediate solution to fill the position vacated by Ron Beutel, recommended that we send the $400 designated balance in our budget for Prison Ministry to the Baptist State Convention designated for Prison Ministry. A motion was made by Roy Cantrell and was carried.

The balance in checking contains money carried forward from 1984, World Mission Conference money and $2,400 designated for new carpet at the associational home. Rev. Rollins recommended that of the $11,000 checking balance, $4,000 be applied to the principal of the loan on the associational building. This was put into motion by Carl Hemphill and carried.

There was no new business and the meeting was adjourned with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Judy S. Wood, Clerk

Missions Committee Report

The Missions Committee of Liberty Association is composed of eight associational officers, the moderator, director of missions and four laypersons. We have held our meetings three times this year at the associational office prior to the Executive Committee meetings.

The first meeting, November 19, 1984, was opened with prayer by David Whiteman. The prison ministry in Davidson County, to which we give support, was discussed. Ron Beutel, the chaplain, had assumed full-time responsibilities with the prison ministry. Burke Holland confirmed with Leonard Rollins that in January 1986 financial support from the state convention would begin and faze out over a four-year period. Contributions should be made through the association first. The associational treasurer would send funds quarterly from our association.

There was concern about how much the Baptist Hour was being heard and how much support there is to continue. Betty Bradshaw was to ask the Executive Committee members to survey their church membership. After the results are in, we could determine the future of this radio ministry.

Roy Cantrell expressed great interest in the Togo/North Carolina project and the desire and the need for Leonard Rollins to go to Togo. A position was held for a minister pending the decision of the Missions Committee. It was determined that approximately $2,000 would be needed for expenses and that we should aim for a goal of $2,400. Brooks Hunt made a motion, seconded by David Whiteman that we support the sending of Leonard Rollins to Togo. Benefits to our churches from this mission trip and communicating this need to our churches and people was discussed. Pastors, W.M.U. directors, Brotherhood directors and deacon chairmen received a letter telling of opportunities to participate. A motion was offered and carried that we send any money beyond the needs of Leonard to the N.C. Baptist State Convention for the support of World Hunger in Togo.

At the January meeting, Leonard reported that he had missed an opportunity to meet with Ron Beutel regarding his feelings of support gained. Burke Holland's decision is pending on whether or not Beutel is expected to raise funds exceeding the amount needed for the Lexington Ministry. Through the association, $580 was forwarded to Beutel during September 1, 1984 through January 21, 1985. Leonard discussed the possibility of looking into sponsoring this ministry entirely by our association. He was also to look further into the convention's possible support.

A total of $780 had been paid for the Baptist Hour from June to December 1984. Leonard Rollins asked the station manager of WTHP if there was a process available to survey the listening audience. We felt it necessary to determine the listening audience outside the Baptist churches.

An update of the Togo project was presented to the committee.

On September 16, 1985, Roy Cantrell presented the opportunity for our participation in West Virginia. The pastor in the pioneer field of Union Chapel Baptist Church, near Bluefield, West Virginia, is in need of financial help. He needs $176.67 each month for health and life insurance. This was where we were to consider our help. The additions and growth this church had experienced this summer was noted. It was agreed that the chairman present this recommendation: that our association make a commitment to this cause, making our churches aware of the ministry in West Virginia.

Leonard Rollins reported that Ron Beutel had left the Lexington Prison as chaplain to associate with American Children's Home. With his leaving and the leaving of the Prison superintendent, our contributions to the prison ministry will come to an end for the present. The $400 in the association treasury for Prison Ministry will be forwarded to the N.C. Baptist State Convention designated "prison ministry" if approved by the Executive Committee.

The associational Finance Committee will present the new budget with $2,080 allocated for the Baptist Hour heard over radio WTHP FM Thomasville on Sunday mornings at 8:00. This 30-minute quality program carries good publicity for the Southern Baptist churches in Liberty Association as it tells of our sponsorship.

Leonard Rollins called attention to the scholarship fund set up at Trinity Baptist Church for Cecil Staton (their pastor) who resigned to continue his studies at Oxford, England.

New work is still a priority for the Missions Committee. The upcoming November 18, 1985 meeting is designated for a map study of our county. Leonard Rollins told the committee he now had a map marked with growth areas and present church work. A committee had already been named to study ways our association could help in new work begun. Named to the committee was Brooks Hunt, Byron Barker and David Whiteman.

The last meeting of the year was concluded with prayer by Marvin Lyon.

Report of Director of Missions

This year will be remembered as the year of the "Togo Experience." I served as a volunteer in that West African nation during the month of March, and it was the greatest experience of my entire ministry. The churches of this association provided the money and rallied around me and my family from the beginning of the missions venture to the end. I got an extra bonus in that Gene Smith, a layman in the Reeds Church, went with me. Two additional Togo Volunteers from Liberty Association have been accepted and will be leaving soon. Since returning on March 31, I have shared the experience 44 times. Included in those opportunities to speak have been engagements in the Sandhills Association and Briarcliff Baptist Church in Atlanta. I will go to First Baptist Church, New Bern, North Carolina, as a part of their Lottie Moon Christmas Offering emphasis.

In the kind of ministry that is carried out on a regular basis, I have been in 37 of the 43 churches for at least one meeting during the calendar year. In addition to regular preaching services, I taught the book of Psalms at Churchland, Reeds, Coggins Memorial, Center Hill and Liberty. I taught the Home Mission Study five times - at Southside, Holloways, Reeds, Smith Grove and Thomasville, First. I taught the adults in Vacation Bible School at Carolina Memorial and led a four-session senior adult Bible study at Lexington, First.

I spoke to the Baptist Men and R.A.'s at Coggins Memorial; the Thomasville Ministerial Association; women at First Methodist in Lexington; Alpha Omega at D.C.C.C.; classes at Dunbar School and American Children's Home; G.A.'s and R.A.'s Day Camp at Jersey; Baptist Men at Welcome, First and Trinity; Lion's Club in Thomasville; R.A.'s and G.A.'s at Liberty; and Togo orientation at Camp Caraway. I assisted in two weddings and three funerals.

I participated in the following special events: Homecoming at Coggins Memorial; Loyalty Dinner at Carolina Memorial; Centennial Celebration at Rich Fork, Ordination services at North Lexington, Trinity and Center Hill; Senior Adult Banquet at Lexington, First; North Lexington Deacons and Wives Christmas Party, Retirement Reception for Isaac Terrell at Mills Home; Baptist Men's Day at Churchland; two 50th wedding anniversary receptions; dedication services at Trinity for first unit of building program; note burning service at Stoner's Grove; and "Run for the Children" at Mills Home.

I was involved in Directors of Missions/Convention Staff Meeting at Caraway and Raleigh. I attended a Christian Action League meeting and Togo Reunion at Caraway. I also attended a New Work Strategy Planning Meeting (Church Extension) at the Baptist Building in Cary; Triad Missions Committee and Home Missions Teacher Training in Greensboro; Baptist State Convention in Asheville; Statewide Evangelism Conference in Greensboro; Mountain Ministers' Meeting, Key Leadership and Home Missions Week at Ridgecrest; Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas, Texas; and Directors of Missions Conference at Wingate.

I have given assistance to the Sunday School Enlargement/Improvement Campaign, World Hunger Committee, Sunday School ASSISTeam, Steering Committee for Good News Revivals, Program Committee, Nominating Committee and Finance Committee. I continue to serve as chaplain for the Lexington Sertoma Club and as a member of the Community Service Committee for the Thomasville Ministerial Association.

We need to give attention now to the World Missions Conference October 6-13 and the Good News America Simultaneous Revivals, March 23-30, 1986.

Respectfully submitted,
Leonard Rollins

Report of Women's Missionary Union

As we met for our 1984 annual meeting we were challenged to let "Love Compell" us to reach out to the world with the gospel; to share the love of Jesus Christ with all men. Our year has been busy with training, sharing, and mission action. We were particularly challenged by the state meeting in Winston-Salem.

Centennial Committee - Getting ready to celebrate the most remarkable year in Woman's Missionary Union history is indeed exciting. Twenty-two Centennial Celebration chairmen attended the leadership training in September. There was a sharing of Centennial Celebration information at our associational W.M.U. retreat in November. The anniversary year October 1, 1985 - September 30, 1986, holds many BIG events. Be glad you are a part of this high hour in W.M.U. The purpose of the Centennial Celebration is to look back, look forward and look upward to God. W.M.U. will recall the contributions of our foremothers. W.M.U. must press on for our task is far from complete. W.M.U. must reach and enlist more members. Lead them to a greater commitment to sharing the gospel. Turn to the Centennial logo and theme interpretation, become very familiar with it. Never forget that the message of the cross is the central focus of W.M.U. "Whatsoever . . . in His Name," Colossians 3:17, expresses the guiding principle and priority that must characterize all efforts and activities of the 100th anniversary of W.M.U. in our state.

Baptist Women - Our leadership conference in September was well attended and interest was shown in the work of Baptist Women. We were renewed spiritually at our Prayer Retreat at Caraway. The Baptist Women Manual was taught by Suthell Walker, state Baptist Women consultant, at Thomasville First, in April. It is our prayer that we will have a good year to come and that we will strive for more women to become a part of the W.M.U.

Baptist Young Women - Again we found inspiration and information attending the B.Y.W. Convention at Ridgecrest in October. The workshop was a success with six in attendance. A new B.Y.W. was formed at Lexington First. We have hopes that three other groups will be formed in the near future.

Acteens - On October 6 the Acteen Council attended a workshop at Mundo Vista. A member handbook study was held on October 21 at Cedar Lodge Fellowship Hall. Twenty-five were present. On March 15 an overnight lock-in was held at Churchland Fellowship Hall. The Brotherhood of the church cooked a wonderful breakfast for us. In April the State Acteen Convention met at Ridgecrest, several girls from our asssociation attended. The highlight of this year was the National Acteens Convention in Ft. Worth, Texas. There were 27 from our association attending. On the way back our bus wrecked and we spent five hours in the First Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia, where Charles Stanley, our convention president, pastors. Acteen organizations were reorganized at Abbotts Creek and Liberty this year.

Girls in Action - This was a busy year. On September 17 we held our annual workshop for leaders. October 6 we held a G.A. Leader Manual study at Stoner's Grove. December 29 was our G.A. Leader Brunch at Welcome First. February 23 we had a Mission Adventures program of skits for G.A.'s, leaders, and parents. April 13 was our Day Camp at Agro-Care Lodge. Thanks to all of you for a good year.

Mission Action - Again this year we contributed to the Correctional Center at Raleigh, distributed Christian literature to the prison unit in Lexington, distributed church literature to two black churches, provided lunch for the DCCC campus minlstry, prepared Christmas treats for Davidson County Foster Children, and much more.

Evangelism Report

October 1984 - September 1985

The gospel of the Kingdom of God is the most significant news God ever gave to man. This universe and all within it operates according to certain basic principles and laws without which chaos and confusion would reign. If man is to experience fulfillment, joy, peace–in short, life–then he also must live in harmony: harmony with his Father, his neighbor, himself and with nature. To so live is to live in God's Kingdom, and the good news is that this becomes a reality as one surrenders himself to Jesus Christ as Lord. This gift is from the Father and is for here and now as well as for all eternity. That is good news! Sharing that message is evangelism.

Already, Southern Baptists are praying and planning for the biggest effort undertaken by our convention to share that message of love. It is called "Good News America, God Loves You" and will climax during our simultaneous revivals in March and April 1986. We in the Piedmont area of North Carolina are slated to hold our crusades during the week of March 23-30. Many of our churches in the Liberty Association have already made a commitment to be a part of this crusade.

Connected with this effort and in preparation for our crusades, we will be distributing thousands of New Testaments and doing house to house surveys to determine persons most in need. To support the program, a statewide media blitz is planned. Yours will want to be one of the 43 churches in our association and one of the 36,000 churches across our convention to participate in this giant ministry to share God's love with America.

Looking back across 1984-85, many great evangelistic events have occurred among North Carolina Baptists. These included: the Statewide Evangelism Conference in February, Super Summer '85 for youth in July, a Single Adult Evangelism Retreat, a Mountain Pastor's Evangelism Conference and 15 regional evangelism meetings designed to help train pastors and staff to better accomplish their evangelistic goals.

In addition, we here in our association held our first Associational Evangelism Rally in 1984 and another will be held in August of 1985. We hope to make this an annual event with every church in the association participating.

Pray for our churches in the Liberty Association. God wants us to effectively share his Good News. That is our privilege. That is our task. That is evangelism!

Sincerely in Christ,
Dearl L. Bunce

Campus Ministry Report

For four years now the Liberty Baptist Association has supported a Christian witness on the campus of Davidson County Community College. The group known as Alpha Omega, provides weekly Christian fellowship of an interdenominational nature. Our goal on campus is to provide the opportunity for Christians to support one another and then to be witnesses to non-Christians. We seek to encourage responsible Christian growth through emphases on evangelism, missions, Bible study, worship, fellowship, churchmanship, and ministry.

We participate on a state level as a Baptist Student Union with 43 other campuses in North Carolina in statewide student activities and mission endeavors. Last year students in North Carolina contributed over $40,000 to the support of fellow students who ministered throughout this state, our nation and overseas.

The highlight of this past year and the culmination of a dream was our group's personal involvement in home missions. Three members of the group went to New York City during Easter holidays and joined hands with two other BSU mission teams to minister in the Bronx. The challenge of ministry in such a city was a faith building experience that will influence its participants for a lifetime.

Within our own home county our group was involved in ministry to several churches and communities. Members of the group have presented mission programs on our ministry in the Bronx at three churches, provided Valentine banquet entertainment at one church and a ministry to preschoolers at another. The group planned special recognition for campus employees and provided help with yard work for an administrator as a ministry to the campus family. Giving a Christmas party for the underprivileged children in Thomasville the group learned firsthand that it is "more blessed to give than to receive."

Those of us involved in this ministry invite others to be involved in this exciting challenge of reaching young adults for Christ and seeking to enhance their spiritual growth and development. We covet your prayers as Dr. Jim Helvey, David Clemens and myself meet with an average of 13 students each week and reach out to touch many more.

Resolutions

The Liberty Baptist Association 1985

WHEREAS the Liberty Baptist Association, meeting in its 153rd annual session in the Mills Home and Cedar Lodge churches of Thomasville, North Carolina, on September 24 and 25, 1985, is keenly aware of the wise providence of God in enabling this association to have a vital part in the spreading of the gospel of Jesus Christ and in the extension of His kingdom upon the earth;

AND WHEREAS this body is cognizant of the fact of the mighty power for good in the cooperative efforts of churches such as exemplified in the long and honored history of Christian fellowship and missionary endeavors carried out by the Liberty Baptist Association;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to this annual session of the association, assembled in the Cedar Lodge Baptist Church on September 25, 1985, do hereby:

1. Offer to God afresh our prayer of gratitude for the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit in the work of this association of churches across the generations of time; and that we give expression of thanks to our churches for the spirit of faith, love and commitment which has been the bond by which we have been kept together in our Master's work.

2. That we sincerely thank our host churches, Mills Home, Cedar Lodge and Hillside Park, for the beautiful and gracious Christian manner in which they have received this body, for the delicious and adequate meals served and for the thoughtful provision for our needs.

3. Give expression of our love and gratitude to Moderator, Brooks Hunt, to Clerk, Judy Wood, to our Director of Missions, Leonard Rollins, to the Program Committee, to those who have planned and carried out the beautiful and inspiring music program, to the messengers for concerned participation and to all who have given spirit and purpose to our theme, "Good News America, God Loves You."

I ask the further indulgence of the body for the presentation of three additional resolutions of appreciation.

I. WHEREAS our brother, Dothan Reece, has served the Liberty Baptist Association as treasurer for 21 years and has now reached the conclusion that he should relinquish this heavy responsibility and whereas we the messengers to this session of the association are aware of his unique qualifications for this work, he being a widely respected banker and business leader in our area, and whereas he has brought to this office an unusual degree of Christian commitment and the careful application of his abilities and knowledge;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we acknowledge the fact that we owe a deep debt of gratitude to Mr. Reece for his faithful handling of the business affairs of the association and that we freely lay to his account much of the credit for the progress in the stewardship of the churches of the association during his long tenure in office as treasurer; and that we thank God for what he has done through the services of this man and pray his continued blessings upon him.

II. WHEREAS our Director of Missions, Leonard Rollins with devotion and love, spent the month of March 1985 on a mission to Togo, Africa, joining hands with other missionaries from our Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in an effort to provide water and to bridge streams and to lift the level of living and to bring that "Living Water" which is Jesus Christ to the people of Togo, unselfishly pouring out his soul in preaching and in Christian witness, using his great talents and experience from long years of training and Christian statesmanship;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we the messengers to the 153rd annual session of the Liberty Baptist Association express our thanks to God for the leadership of Leonard Rollins in our work here and that we especially thank him for this unique service which our director has rendered in taking the spirit and message of our Lord to the hungry and needy people of Togo, and bringing back to our churches, through slides and commentary, the message which has brought about a new awareness in the minds and hearts of our people of the deep needs of the Togolese.

III. WHEREAS one of our Baptist Men, Gene Smith of the Reeds Baptist Church, accompanied our Director of Missions and has had a vital part in this Togo ministry in laboring with the Togolese in the initial construction of a needed bridge and by demonstrating with mind, spirit, and body the earnest desire of each of us to minister to the total needs of man;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we the messengers to the 153rd annual session of the Liberty Baptist Association express our thanks to God for the sacrificial example that Gene Smith has set by challenging us to bridge the gap between the affluent and the impoverished in all parts of the world.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Frances Gordon, Gary Graves, Mrs. Marian Gordon,

Historian's Report

We are honored this evening to meet with Mills Home Baptist Church to help celebrate the 153rd Anniversary of the founding of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, now known as Mills Home, a unit of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. We are presenting a brief history of the Mills Home Baptist Church as compiled and written by C. Franklin Bailey on August 8, 1967; revised by Bill and Louise Sisk on March 22, 1985. We express our appreciation to them for providing the information for this report.

History of the Mills Home Baptist Church

John H. Mills called a group of Baptist neighbors together at his home and organized the Rich Fork Baptist Church on December 30, 1884. He was founder and general manager of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage which admitted its first child on November 11, 1885. A deeply religious man, one of his first concerns was a spiritual home for "his orphanage children." The Lea Chapel (which stood where the home of our resident director now stands) was erected in 1886 and was the center of the religious life of the orphanage community. John Mills appealed to the orphanage trustees for the formation of a church for the orphans and workers (staff) but was turned down. The Baptist State Convention also rejected his plea on the grounds that Rich Fork Church was just three miles from the campus and Thomasville First Baptist Church was only a distance away. Mr. Mills then tried to get Thomasville First Baptist Church to build a mission close by the campus but was refused. He then secured the services of Rev. J.N. Stallings, a teacher in Thomasville to act as chaplain at the orphanage. Following the resignation of Rev. Stallings, Rev. Henry Sheets of Lexington was invited to serve as chaplain. In July of 1888 the orphanage board of trustees elected Rev. Sheets as assistant manager of the orphanage, assistant editor of Charity & Children and chaplain. His compensation was $250.00 per year.

In May of 1888 Rev. G.W. Gwaltney came and preached a number of days at the orphanage which resulted in the conversion of five boys and nine girls. On Sunday, June 3, Mr. Mills took them to Rich Fork as candidates for church membership. On Monday, June 4, they were baptized in the pond below Marble Springs on the orphanage campus. These children and the others on campus attended Rich Fork Baptist Church regularly with Mr. John Mills.

John Mills required the children and workers to attend worship services each time the bell tolled on campus. These averaged 92 services each month; but Mr. Mills still insisted that the children needed their own spiritual home. At 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 28, 1891, the Orphanage Church was formed with 27 charter members. The organizing presbytery consisted of Rev. Thomas Carrick and Rev. J.D. Newton (son-in-law of Mr. Mills). Charter members were the 14 children from the orphanage baptized into membership at Rich Fork Church: Minnie Wells, Georgia Faircloth, Nellie Wheeler, Emma Southern, Linnie Judd, Melissa Brockwell, Mattie Cook, Sallie Farrior, Pattie Pope, Edwin Coble, John Gay, Thomas Belch, Tyler Wheeler, David Coble. Others were Cape Fear Church, Mrs. Isabella Cecil; Shelby Church, Miss Kate Durham; Concord Church, Rev. J.D. Newton; Beulah Church, Virg E. Moore, Ella J. Moore and William H. Moore; Durham Church, Miss Ida Christmas and Mrs. Octie D. Thomas; Oxford Church, Miss Ella Thomas; joining under watchcare awaiting letters were W.P. Pickett, Mrs. Aldell Pickett and Mrs. J.D. Newton (Martha Mills).

Rev. J.D. Newton was elected pastor and Miss Ella Thomas was elected first church clerk after Mrs. Newton declined to serve. Deacons were elected 10 months later. This first deacon board consisted of William P. Pickett, deacon and Mrs. Nannie Williams, deaconess. We quote from Dr. B.W. Spillman's book, The Mills Home: "When the Orphanage Church was constituted there was considerable opposition locally, especially in the Liberty Baptist Association. In the fall of 1893 it united with the association."

Rev. J.B. Boone was known as "the builder" due to the growth of the orphanage during his administration. When Central School Building was completed June 7, 1897, he used it both as a place of worship and as a school. The Orphanage Church had outgrown its small meeting place in Lea Chapel. As the orphanage family grew in size, the Orphanage Church increased in membership.

During Dr. M.L. Kesler's administration, which began September 1, 1905 and ended with his death on August 19, 1932, the orphanage family grew and grew until over 550 children were being cared for at Mills Home. In Davie County there was a practicing medical doctor, S.W. Little, who didn't belong to any church but supported the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage with gifts. In his legacy he left enough money to erect an auditorium, a need he had learned of from Dr. Kesler. The Little Auditorium was completed and put to use as both a place of worship and school progress on April 19, 1915. This auditorium stood almost exactly where our present sanctuary stands.

Thomasville First Baptist Church and the Orphanage Church were both seeking pastors so they formed a field and called Rev. W.H. Rich in 1896. This arrangement lasted 29 years until the Orphanage Church called its first full-time pastor on September 7, 1924. Rev. E. Norfleet Gardner began his duties January 1, 1925.

The church membership voted to change the name of the Orphanage Church to Mills Home Baptist Church on November 25, 1929 because Thomasville Baptist Orphanage had changed its name to Mills Home.

During the administration of Dr. I.G. Greer (1932-1948) a non-church member from Winston-Salem heard him speak over the radio one Sunday morning. He sent word to Dr. Greer that he would like to see and talk with him. As a result of their meeting, Robert M. Idol left over a half million dollars designated to the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina. A church building was erected along with an educational plant in 1953, honoring Mr. Idol's mother. The Sarah Maston Idol Church Building made it possible for the first time in Mills Home Baptist Church's history to have a place of worship for that purpose only.

Again God proved in a most unusual way that he will provide for His children by seeing that they had a beautiful place of worship.

At the time of this writing the Mills Home Church is not supported with funds sent to the home through offerings, but is a self-supporting Baptist church controlled by its membership. The Mills Home Church pays its pastor's salary, elects its own deacons, sets its own budget, and votes its own rules.

The two biggest differences in this church and your church is that the place of meeting belongs to the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc., and is maintained by the Home and that most of our membership is youngsters.

One can see that the Home and church are still, as John Mills said they should be, closely related. One can also see from the foregoing statements that the Mills Home and the Baptist church, composed of its members, are closely tied together by history and common interest.

Following are the pastors who have served the thousands of children and staff members who have resided at the Home since Mills Home Baptist Church was founded on April 28, 1891:

The churches we honor today are quite young when compared to the Centennial Celebration we observed yesterday with Mills Home Baptist Church. Today we will give a brief history of Cedar Lodge Baptist Church, now in its 21st year, and Hillside Park Baptist Church in its 25th year. Though young in years, both of these churches have been strong in their ministry.

We express our appreciation to those who have provided information for this report.

History of Cedar Lodge Baptist Church

On May 1, 1964, a group of optimistic people under the leadership of Rev. Fred Jurney met in the Fairgrove Lions Club building for the purpose of starting a new Baptist church in the community. This determined group of Christians continued to meet each week and on July 12 of that year Cedar Lodge Baptist Church was organized with a membership of 64 charter members. In August a tract of land was purchased and a well was dug on the property. After much discussion it was decided this property was too isolated and another tract was purchased which is now the present site of Cedar Lodge Baptist Church.

In February 1965, a building committee was selected and on May 2 groundbreaking services were held with construction to begin immediately. The building consists of a sanctuary with a seating capacity of approximately 325 and a basement containing nine classrooms. It was completed at a cost of approximately $45,000 which included the building and the furnishings. Most of the furnishings were given by members through gifts and memorials. A metal plate with this information is displayed on each piece of furniture showing the love and determination with each gift.

September 12, 1965, the congregation moved into the new sanctuary and Sunday School facilities. Approximately four years later the air conditioning system was installed.

Rev. Fred Jurney served as pastor from May 1964 until his unexpected death in April 1971. During his pastorate he brought unity, love, dedication and a determination to always look ahead as nothing is impossible under the will of God. He worked very hard to make the church grow and to be an inspiration to the community.

After Rev. Jurney's death, Rev. D.W. Digh served as interim pastor until February 1972, at which time Rev. B.V. Broadway accepted the call to become the second pastor to lead the church. Soon there was discussion regarding the need of a fellowship hall. the congregation accepted the challenge and plans were made to begin the construction. Once again, with faith and determination, and with the people of the church working together, the fellowship hall was completed in 1975 at a cost of approximately $37,000.00.

The next project was to improve the grounds. The circle drive and parking area had originally been gravelled in 1966 and paved in 1967. In May 1984, these were paved again and other improvements were also made at this time.

June 30, 1985, the pastor, Rev. B.V. Broadway, retired.

From the information furnished by Mr. Myers and Mrs. Turner, we quote the following: "A pastor, as well as all of God's children, must follow the will of God. So to Rev. Broadway, we say thank you and may God grant you peace and happiness. Thank you for 13 years of leadership, friendship, dedication and especially for the constant reminder that God's love will suffice. We must now look to the future with God's guidance and much prayer as once again we search for a new leader. During the past 21 years God has been gracious to us and our possibilities for the future are excellent."

History of Hillside Park Baptist Church

Hillside Park Baptist Church was begun as Greenwood Baptist Mission on March 19, 1960. The first pastor was Rev. Raeford Cooke, who on December 25, 1960, began a 2½-year pastorate.

The Welborn property located on Holly Grove Road was purchased for the church site February 26, 1961. By unanimous vote, the name of the church was changed to Hillside Park Baptist Church. Bylaws were adopted August 12, 1962. The church, consisting of 19 members, requested membership into the Liberty Association under one year of watchcare.

Quoting from the 1962 Liberty Association minutes: "Hillside Park Baptist Church was presented for watchcare status by Rev. Leonard Rollins, Chairman of the Missions Committee, with the request that Section 1, Article 2, dealing with church membership in the Association be waived at this time in order to accept the church into the Association. It was stated they had fufilled all other requirements. Rev. Parks Harris, pastor of Greenwood Baptist Church, the mother church, gave a good explanation of the delay in meeting this particular requirement. Being satisfied with this explanation, the messengers accepted the motion and voted its approval."

The first deacons were elected October 18, 1962. On July 7, 1963, Rev. Otis Kiger began a 2½-year pastorate.

By October 1963, the land debt was paid in full. A Building Committee was elected and by June 21, 1962, the church building was completed at a cost of $21,500.00. Rev. Leonard Rollins, associational missionary, led in a dedication service.

Dr. C.M. Pegram served as supply pastor from February 6 until May 22, 1966. On May 29, 1966, Rev. Odell Coggins assumed the pastorate. At this time the church was able to discontinue the funds from the State Mission Board.

On December 21, 1969, the church voted to accept Lee Mauldin's bid of $68,950.00 to build a new church building. Within a year the new building was completed.

Rev. Bobby Martin served as pastor from March 17, 1974, until November 20, 1977. Rev. Eugene Elmore served as supply pastor from December 1977 until May 1978.

Rev. John Wheeles preached a trial message Sunday morning, April 9, 1978, and on the following Sunday the church called him as pastor with a 98 percent vote. He assumed his duties on Sunday morning, May 28, 1978. He and his wife, Viola, united with the church on this day, coming from Richland Baptist Church in Asheboro.

On April 23, 1978, the church voted to purchase a home located at 1104 Black Road to be used as a parsonage. The cost was $39,900.00. On May 10, 1981, just three years later, under the leadership of Rev. John Wheeles, the church was called into conference, and by unanimous vote agreed to pay off the $31,000.00 debt. On Sunday morning, January 31, 1982, the church celebrated this occasion with the "Note Burning."

Due to membership growth, additional classrooms were needed. During the year of 1983, four new rooms were built in the space of the Fellowship Hall. In the latter part of 1983, a new Fellowship Hall was completed and the debt is now paid in full. In January of this year, 1985, the church purchased approximately 11 acres of land on the Holly Grove Road for the "Future Home of Hillside Park Baptist Church."

We quote the following statement made by Mrs. Parrish, church clerk: "As we look at the history of our church, we can do so with great gratitude and pride, thanking God for the way we have grown in spirit and number and especially the way Love has spread throughout our congregation. This we feel has been greatly accomplished under the leadership of our present pastor, Rev. John Wheeles. The Lord has continued to bless Hillside Park Baptist Church and now we look to the future and pray that God will open the windows of Heaven and continue to pour out His blessings as we toil together in unity and love to win the lost to Christ."

Information furnished by Patsy Parrish, Church Clerk

The histories of these two churches and that of Mills Home Church will be printed in the minutes of the Liberty Baptist Association and will also be sent to Mr. John Woodard, Director of North Carolina Baptist Historical Collection at Wake Forest University, and will become a part of the permanent records there.

Constitution

(Adopted September 29, 1954 - Revised October 1, 1969 and October 1, 1975)

PREAMBLE

We, the churches of the Liberty Baptist Association, unite ourselves according to the plan and for the purpose and work of the New Testament churches in our world, and to this end to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention, according to the following Articles:

ARTICLE I — NAME

The name of this body shall be the Liberty Baptist Association.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership shall be composed of the Baptist churches now holding membership and any other Baptist churches which may be received into the Association according to the subsequent provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches or reject churches according to its Constitution and Bylaws. Member churches may also withdraw at their pleasure. Any church in the Association which fails to cooperate with the Association for a period of two consecutive years shall be contacted by a committee appointed by the Association, to ascertain the wishes and desires of the church relative to continuance in the Association.

A cooperating church is one which sends a report to the Annual Session, sends messengers to the Annual Session, and contributes to the financial program of the Association.

ARTICLE III — MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on Tuesday and Wednesday following the fourth Sunday in September.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee, provided sufficient notice is given the member churches to permit them two Sundays between the call and the meeting.

Section 3. In emergencies, any change in the time and/or place of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV — COMPOSITION OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The official voting body shall be composed of messengers from the member churches as follows. Five messengers from each church for its first one hundred members or fraction thereof, one additional messenger for each additional fifty members or fraction thereof up to 1,000 members, and one additional messenger for each additional hundred members or major fraction above 1,000; all ordained ministers of member churches; and the officers of the Association.

Section 2. The names of the messengers printed in the minutes shall include only those actually attending and registering at the Association from the number elected by the churches.

ARTICLE V — OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers of the Association shall be Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, and Historian.

Section 2. The election of the Clerk shall be the first item of business in the first session of the Association. He shall be elected for a one-year term. Other officers shall be elected on the last day of the annual meeting for terms of one year each. They shall be contacted and nominated by the Committee on Nominations (Bylaws 8, Section 2, (6), which shall consider the duly elected heads of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union as the committee's nominees for election as the Association's Officers also.

Section 3. Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Associational meeting at which elected and shall serve until the close of the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. Any person serving or having served two full annual terms as Moderator shall be ineligible for re-election to this office for a period of two full years.

ARTICLE VI — TRUSTEES AND THEIR ELECTION

There shall be three trustees of the Association, one preferably a lawyer, serving of six years each in a rotating system. Upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, one new trustee shall be elected at the annual meeting in each even year to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of one of the three; no trustee being eligible to succeed himself until after the lapse of two full years. The expiration date of each trustee shall appear by his name in the Associational minutes.

ARTICLE VII — THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This Committee shall be composed of all Associational officers, the Director of Associational Missions (ex officio), each active pastor, church treasurer, and one lay member chosen by each member church from its membership and certified to the Association in it annual report. The officers of the Executive Committee shall be the Associational Moderator, Vice Moderator, and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII — POWERS AND PRIVILEGES

This Association of churches shall have no power to infringe upon the rights of usefulness of any church or churches. All churches of the Association remain independent and sovereign. Cooperating churches unite here only that they may more effectively promote Christ's cause throughout the world. The Association may advise or offer recommendations for their adoption and guidance, but these cannot be binding on the churches in any way. (This is not to be interpreted as in conflict with Article II, Section 2.)

ARTICLE IX — AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendments are presented in writing and read at one session, as due notice, to be acted upon at a subsequent session.

Bylaws

BYLAW I — PARLIAMENTARY RULES

Where the Constitution and Bylaws and special orders of the Association do not prescribe otherwise, Robert's Rules of Order, Revised shall be followed as the Association's rules for conducting its deliberative assemblies.

BYLAW II — ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

For the purpose of determining the period of time to be covered by the annual reports of the Associational officers and church letters to the Association, the Associational year shall begin September 1 and close August 31.

BYLAW III — NEW CHURCHES

Section 1. Any church seeking admission to the membership of the Association shall petition in writing the Executive Committee at least three months before the annual meeting of the Association, which petition shall be referred to the Missions Committee for its study of the petitioning church's covenant, articles of faith, history, practices, cooperative spirit, its relations to other churches of the Association and its willingness to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association. The Missions Committee shall then report to the Association with a copy thereof submitted to the Associational Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the Association, its findings and recommendations for Associational action at the next annual meeting.

Section 2. Each church applying for membership in the Association, upon approval shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of one year. Each church received under a watchcare relationship shall submit a quarterly report to the Mission Committee of the Association and also submit the annual Associational letter at the end of the year.

BYLAW IV — DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the body according to the Constitution and Bylaws, appoint the Committee on Nominations at the closing session, shall be chairman of the Executive Committee and be an ex officio member of all other committees. As presiding officer he shall discharge such other duties as may be given him by the Association.

Section 2. The Vice Moderator shall preside in the absence, or at the pleasure of the Moderator and shall be Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least a month before the Association's annual meeting; distribute at the annual meeting mimeographed copies of the composite record of the member churches taken from their annual reports; make accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distribution to the member churches copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the annual meeting; keep in file and turn over to his successor the printed minutes and other records and documents of the Association; and shall be secretary of the Executive Committee and a member of the Missions Committee.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association; distribute the same upon instructions from the Association, its Executive Committee oras designated; render a mimeographed, itemized report of receipts and disbursements for distribution at the annual meeting of the Association; keep his books always in shape and available for examination of the Executive Committee, and be a member of the Finance and Missions Committee.

Section 5. The Historian shall collect and preserve historial data on the Association and its churches, and shall make a written report to each annual meeting of the Association.

Section 6. The Associational Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, and Church Music Director shall promote their work in keeping with Southern Baptist Standards for their respective organizations, make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association, and serve on the Missions Committee.

BYLAW V — DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Section 1. The Association shall, when possible and expedient, employ a Director of Associational Missions. His selection shall be upon recommendation of the Missions Committee and on vote by the Association at its annual meeting, or between the meetings of the Association, by its Executive Committee. He shall be a member of all committees and organizations of the Association in a serving and advisory capacity. The relationship between the Association and its Director of Associational Missions may be terminated by either party upon the giving of reasonable notice.

Section 2. The Director of Associational Missions shall, under the direction of the Missions Committee, promote the work of the Association and denomination, cooperating with the churches, their pastors and officers, and Associational committees and organizations. He shall make oral reports to the Missions and Executive Committees in their quarterly meetings. He shall also make a written report to the annual meeting of the Association.

Section 3. He may assist the Clerk, by mutual consent, in preparing the composite record of member churches taken from the annual reports, and in preparing the annual minutes of the Association.

BYLAW VI — ANNUAL REPORTS

The persons to prepare reports for the annual meeting of the Association shall present the same in writing for inclusion in the printed Book of Reports, these reports to be limited to 250 words each.

BYLAW VII — TRUSTEES

The Trustees' duties shall be to hold title to the property for the Association and to handle the legal matters of the Association with the Association's foreknowledge and approval; and to comply with the Constitution and Bylaws of the body, and with state laws as they affect the Association. The trustees shall be responsible for keeping the property in good state of repair at all times, but shall not exceed expenditures of more than $500.00 on any major item without approval of Association.

BYLAW VIII — COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

(1) The duties of this committee shall be to act for the Association in all matters of business and activities between annual meetings, to call the Association in special session when necessary, to fill any vacancies that may occur between annual meetings among the Associational officers, the Executive Committee or the Committee on Nominations. It may elect the Director of Associational Missions when a vacancy occurs in accordance with Bylaws VI, Section 1. It shall present a written report to the Association in annual meeting for its approval.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly, the first meeting being as soon as possible after the annual meeting of the Association, on call of the Moderator of the Association (Bylaw IV, Section 1), and the last meeting being as near as possible to the next annual meeting of the Association for approving its report to the annual meeting.

Section 2. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS:

The Committee shall seek to avoid duplications and to distribute as widely as possible the obligations and privileges of service called for in this section. The duties of this committee shall be:

(1) To contact and nominate to the next annual meeting of the Association, on the last day, the officers of the Association, and its standing committees, naming their chairman, (Missions, Program, Place and Preacher, Resolutions, Finance, Memorials, Ordination Examining Council, and Christian Life and Public Affairs) these committes serving for the year following their election.

(2) To nominate trustees according to Article VI of the Constitution.

(3) To nominate such other special committees as may be authorized unless otherwise provided.

(4) To nominate, on the last day of the annual meeting, the persons to prepare reports for the next annual meeting of the Association following their election, on American Bible Society, Annuity Board, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Baptist Foundation, Baptist Homes for Aging, Baptist Hospital, Christian Education, Christian Literature, Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and State Missions.

(5) To fill vacancies which may occur between annual meetings of the Association on committees and among persons to prepare or bring annual reports which are nominated by this Committee on Nominations.

(6) This committee's nominations, however, shall not preclude other nominations from the floor.

Section 3. THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE:

(1) This committee shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Sunday School Director, Church Training Director, Brotherhood Director, Woman's Missionary Union Director, Church Music Director, Evangelism Director, Treasurer, Clerk, and also the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and four member churches to be elected by the Association at its annual meeting for one, two, three, and four years respectively on a rotating system. After their election one new member shall be elected each year to serve for a period of four years. It shall supervise and work with the Director of Associational Missions in promoting the work of the Association and lead and assist in organizing new churches.

(2) It shall meet once a quarter to receive a report from the Director of Associational Missions and make helpful suggestions to him concerning his work.

(3) If advice is sought, it shall advise a group seeking to organize a new church, or seek to help any member church desiring assistance in its problems.

(4) It shall perform the duties prescribed for it in Bylaw III and Bylaw V, Section 1.

Section 4. THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

This committee shall be composed of three members and Moderator, Clerk, Church Music Director, and host pastors. It shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program at least 10 days before the annual meeting. It shall, in the opening of the annual meeting of the Association, present the printed program for adoption and serve through the session when adjustments in the program become necessary.

Section 5. THE PLACE AND PREACHER COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall receive or solicit invitations for the place or places of meeting for the next annual meeting of the Association, and shall recommend the place or places. It shall also recommend the preacher and alternate for the annual sermon.

Section 6. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall draw up and present to the Association resolutions of appreciation and any other resolutions it may deem expedient. Also, all resolutions and recommendations for consideration presented at the annual meeting shall be referred to this committee.

Section 7. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of five members and the Treasurer. It shall study the Association's financial needs for an adequate program, present a budget to the Association for the following year, devise plans for securing the cooperation of the churches in the raising of the budget, audit the Treasurer's books at the close of the Associational year, inform member churches of their record of giving, and make a written report to the annual meeting.

Section 8. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL:

This committee shall be composed of five members. It shall bring a suitable report at the annual meeting and shall lead in a memorial service in memory of those reported by the churches to have died since the last annual meeting.

Section 9. THE ASSOCIATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of the Director of Associational Missions, who shall serve as chairman, the Moderator and directors of associational organizations. Its duties shall be to plan and correlate the activities of the Associational organization.

Section 10. CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be composed of three members, whose duty it shall be to keep the Association informed of matters pertaining to civic righteous and public morals.

BYLAW IX — AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Bylaws may be made at any session of the annual meeting of the Association when presented in writing and approved by a majority of the messengers present and voting.

Standing Resolutions

Ordination of New Ministers

It is strongly recommended as the position of this Association:

1. That, when a church desires to put forth a candidate for examination and approval for ordination to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, an Examining Council composed of a committee of five elected by the Association in annual meeting, plus the pastors and one layman from each cooperating church in the fellowship of the Liberty Baptist Association, be summoned by written invitation of at least one week in advance from the church nominating the candidate.

2. That the examination of the candidate be conducted by the Examining Council and that a report of its findings be given to the nominating church. If the report is favorable the nominating church will set the date of ordination and notify the member churches.

3. That we ordain only those who have received a definite call to become a pastor, an associate pastor, or an educational director of a Baptist church on regular standing in the Association or those who have felt a call to the mission field, the chaplaincy of our armed forces or the chaplaincy of a public institution whose church shall have requested in writing his ordination before the call of the ordaining council shall be approved.

Policies for the Establishment of Missions

1. Definite sponsorship by an established church.

2. Sponsoring church to work in cooperation with Associational Missions Committee.

3. Sponsoring church to retain control of Mission until such time as the church and the Associational Missions Committee agree that the Mission is self-sufficient.

4. Sponsoring church to call Mission pastor and select all workers in the Mission.

5. Sponsoring church to encourage Mission from the beginning to give a definite percentage of the offering plate dollar through the Cooperative Program and Associational Missions.

6. Sponsoring church should insist upon a full and well-defined program of Southern Baptist Work in the Mission, using the Southern Baptist literature.

7. Sponsoring church to work with the Associational Missions Committee in properly locating the Mission.

8. Sponsoring church to work with the Mission in planning of new buildings, using the services of the Church Planning Department of the Baptist State Convention.

Organization and Admission of New Churches

Recognizing the right of the Association to determine its own membership and being aware of the importance of the manner in which the churches are organized, we recommend that any group of individuals desiring to organize themselves into a new church with the purpose of seeking recognition of and fellowship and cooperation with the Association be requested to meet the following standards:

1. Notice shall be given to the Moderator of the desire to organize a church before any such organization takes place. The Moderator will then ask the Missions Committee to study and pass upon the need for and the practicability of such an organization.

2. That the location of said church shall be sufficiently removed so as not to interfere with the work or encroach upon the territory of the churches already affiliated with the Association. This will be determined by the Missions Committee.

3. Upon being approved by the Missions Committee the group will then request this committee to examine the church covenant, articles of faith, and constitution (if a constitution has been adopted) of the proposed church. Should the committee approve the covenant, articles of faith, and constitution, the group will proceed at a later date to be constituted into a Baptist church of the same faith and order.
